

Kiwanis Officers Installed Friday

McCoy New President; Year's Work of Civic Organization is Reviewed

Kiwanians of the local club on Friday installed officers for the new year, heard a report of the past year's achievements and laid plans for 1935.

J. B. McCoy, manager of Hotel Wilkes, took up the helm as president, and S. V. Tomlinson vice president. Prof. T. E. Story remains secretary and treasurer.

The meeting was opened with President R. G. Finley presiding. In the business session P. W. Eshelman presented the matter of providing the proper shoes and braces for children treated at the state orthopedic hospital. In a few moments $145.50 was subscribed for this purpose.

Kiwanian R. T. Greer, of Lehigh, was a guest of S. V. Tomlinson; W. D. Halfacre a guest of Rev. H. K. King; Dr. John T. Hoyle and Miss Joyce Welborn were guests of Prof. Story.

The retiring president reviewed the year's activities, stating that the platform calling for new members, good programs and a balanced budget had been adhered to and fulfilled during the year. He presented Mr. McCoy with the president's button and gavel. Mr. McCoy made a brief talk on the Kiwanis slogan, "We Build," and urged that character building become an aim. He stated that the club would have a platform this year of more new members, more good programs and the continuation of a balanced budget. He read the committee appointments and presented each chairman with a booklet on his work in the club.

Two new members were taken in Friday, Rev. H. K. King, pastor of the Methodist church, and A. L. Griffing, manager of the local J. C. Penney company store.

A vote of thanks was given by the club to Prof. Story, who, on Thursday night, presented a very fine report of the past year.

In the directors' meeting good annual reports were read from all committee chairmen. The reports indicated that each committee had done its work well during the year.

Nearly 10 Per Cent In State On Relief

FERA Helped 297,073 Persons in North Carolina During the Month of November

Raleigh, Jan. 4.—A total of 9.4 per cent of the entire population of North Carolina was on relief in one form or another during November, Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, state relief administrator, announced today as she conferred here with district and county relief administrators on ways and means of taking care of the poor and needy this winter.

The number of families helped by the federal supported relief agency in the state during November totaled 59,936 and the total number of persons receiving relief either directly or through work numbered 297,073 persons. The grand total of money distributed to help 297,073 persons was $1,404,226.10.

Wake county led all counties of the state in funds received with $102,788.99.

Plans were mapped out at the conference for the setting up of district and county advisory committees to meet monthly for discussion of relief problems in their localities. Five to seven persons will be on each county committee and one person from each county group will serve on the district committee.

J. D. MOORE'S COUSIN PASSES IN CALDWELL

Funeral services were held at Globe on Thursday afternoon for Finley Moore, age 77, who died at his home there on Tuesday. Dr. B. B. Dougherty, president of A. S. T. C., and a close friend of Mr. Moore, delivered an eulogy at the funeral.

Mr. Moore was known far and wide for his activity and interest in the old Globe academy, which was once recognized as one of the leading schools in western North Carolina.

Those from here attending the last rites were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Bryant and Prof. T. E. Story.

Both the new and old boards were in joint meeting, which was held at Hotel Wilkes.

Lady Says She Took CARDUI for Cramps; Was Soon Relieved

Women who suffer as she did will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Maude Crafton, of Belleville, Ill., who writes: "For several years, I suffered from irregular trouble and cramping. There would be days when I would have to stay in bed. I would get so nervous, I was miserable. My aunt told me to try Cardui. She believed it would build me up, regulate me and help the nervous trouble. I knew after taking half a bottle of Cardui that I was better. I kept on taking Cardui and found it was doing me a world of good. I am in good health, which means a lot to me. . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. . . . Price $1.

Statesville, Jan. 3.—Gaston T. Henderson, 40, north Iredell farmer, was instantly killed today while cutting timber near Union Grove. Mr. Henderson, his son and two other young men were working together in the woods. They cut a tree which fell against another tree, the top breaking and rebounding and falling on Mr. Henderson, causing almost instant death. The boys escaped death.
