

"DAVID COPPERFIELD" DICKENS NOVEL FILM TRIUMPH AT LIBERTY

"David Copperfield" the prize winning photoplay which will be seen at the Liberty Theatre, Monday and Tuesday is destined to take its place as one of the all screen history pictures of all times. Boasting a cast of sixty-five players with an intimacy that cannot be imagined. It blends every element of entertainment—romance, pathos, comedy, thrills and spectacle—in such deft quality that one fairly lives with the characters as they work out their destiny on the screen.

School Day Follies At Liberty Theatre

Something unique for the people of this section is the showing of "School Day Follies" at the Liberty Theatre today and tomorrow in conjunction with the screen program featuring "Society Doctor," a sequel to that favorite picture, "Men in White."

"School Day Follies" will be presented by a cast of 75 local children under the able direction of William Carr and Miss Dollie Dawn, late of movie studios in Hollywood. They have had much experience in training children for the movies and have directed the rehearsals for the performances here. The children are awaiting with eager anticipation the big moment when they are to appear on the theatre stage. Members of Mrs. R. G. Finley's expression class will play an important part with specialty numbers.
