42 to Graduate in Commencement At Ronda May 13

Seventh Grade Exercises Will Be Held On Saturday, May 11th

LINNEY TO PREACH
Dr. B. B. Dougherty to Deliver Dress in Final Commencement Program

Final program of Ronda high school commencement will be held on Monday night, May 13, at which time Dr. B. B. Dougherty, president of Appalachian State Teachers College, will deliver the commencement address and diplomas will be presented to a class of 42 seniors.
Seventh grade commencement exercises for all schools in the Ronda district will be held at Ronda on Saturday, May 11, with the exercises beginning at 10 a. m. The program for the morning session will be made up of seventh grade graduation exercises, plays, songs, recitations and readings with students from all the schools in the district participating.
Dinner will be served on the grounds at noon and the afternoon will be devoted to a field day of athletic events including running broad jump, high jump, relay and 100-yard dash for boys, basketball relay, basketball throw, fifty-yard dash and bottle relay for girls. District school authorities are hoping that every school will be represented in the athletic contests as well as the literary program.
The high school commencement will begin on Saturday night, May 11, with the presentation of a play, "When a Woman Decides." A small admission charge will be made.
The commencement sermon will be delivered on Sunday, May 12, at three p. m. by Rev. W. E. Linney, well known Baptist minister of Wilkesboro.

The class of 42 to graduate on Monday night, May 13, is the largest in the history of the school and has made the highest academic average of any class in the last eight years. The school has enjoyed a most successful year from every standpoint.
The public, and especially all patrons of the school, are invited to the commencement programs. All night programs will begin promptly at eight o'clock.

N. C. Students' Volunteer Council Meets on Brushies

Annual Meeting Held Friday and Saturday to Lay Plans for Coming Year

The members of the North Carolina Student Volunteer Council held their annual meeting Friday, Saturday and Sunday to make plans for the coming year's work. They chose for their place of meeting this year the Brushy Mountains and were given the use of the Arthur Finley and R. W. Gwyn cottages.
Those here for the meeting were, the traveling secretary, Miss Carrie Lena McMullen, whose parents are missionaries in China, and her brother, John McMullen, from Davidson College; Frank Brown, also of Davidson College; Miss Mary Lou Kincheloe, and Rufus Morrow, from Duke University; Miss Mary Wilson, from Queens-Chicago College; Miss Joe Marie Thompson, of Greensboro College, Bob Woodside, of Troutman, and Miss Marie Haigwood, of this city, who is in school at the Asheville Teachers College.

Trying To Prevent Pine Blister Rust

Crew Working in the County is Eradicating Gooseberries and Currants
A. B. Smith, a representative of the United States department of agriculture, is working a crew of five men in Wilkes county in an effort to eradicate cultivated gooseberry and currant plants and to prevent the spread of blister rust, a blight disease that kills white pine trees.
The department of agriculture points out that gooseberries and currants are the medium by which blister rust is contracted in white pine areas and that the disease can be prevented where these plants do not exist.
Mr. Smith wants it known that the work is being done for the protection of white pine timber, which is very prolific in this section, and hopes to have the co-operation of all home owners and tenants.

WORKERS IN GO-TO-CHURCH ORGANIZATION WILL CANVASS HOMES IN NORTH WILKESBORO

The Go-To-Church organization, started recently in a meeting attended by laymen from the three leading churches in the city, has taken definite form and in a union prayer service held last week it was decided that a canvass of the city would be made inviting people to go to the church of their choice.

Convicted Negro Gets 8-15 Years

Calendar of Criminal Cases Will Be Cleared This Week. Solicitor Says

"We are going to clear up the criminal docket this term," Solicitor John R. Jones said Saturday in discussing the progress made in the term of court now going on in Wilkesboro.
Until today noon approximately 150 of the docket's 200 cases had been disposed of and there was every indication that the remainder of the cases will be tried. The solicitor again warned all defendants and witnesses to be in court when the cases in which they are involved are tried.
The longest term meted out so far by Judge F. A. Daniels was to Sucker Sales, negro who was convicted last week of the murder of Gilbert Parks on May 25, 1933. The bill of indictment was returned by the grand jury during the special term of court in July, 1933.
Among other cases in which judgment has been passed are the following:
Beemer Redman, operating motor vehicle while under influence of liquor, six months on roads.
Margaret Foster, keeping disorderly house, sentence of one year suspended on condition that she stay out of the town of Wilkesboro.
Coleman Wallace and Mrs. Coleman Wallace, keeping disorderly house and other charges; Coleman Wallace 60 days on roads; Mrs. Coleman Wallace sentence of one year suspended on good behavior and on condition that she stay out of Wilkesboro.
Earl Pruitt, assault with deadly weapon, 30 days at county home.
Dwight Waddell and Glenn Bowers, larceny and receiving, sentence suspended on payment of costs.
Lawrence Call, operating motor vehicle while under influence of liquor, four months on roads.
Uless Brewer, nuisance, 30 days at county home.

Dr. W. A. Jenkins Preaches Sermon To the Graduates

Final Program of City School Commencement Will Be Held Tuesday Night

Dr. W. A. Jenkins, former pastor of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church and now located at Chapel Hill, delivered a splendid commencement sermon to the members of the graduating class of the city schools and a large audience Sunday morning at the First Baptist church here.
Dr. Jenkins based his message on the subject of "A Well Rounded Life" and his text was "Jesus increased in strength, wisdom and favor with God and men."
He pointed out the four essentials of a well rounded life as physical, mental, spiritual and social development. The message was well received.
Ministers of the three leading churches of the city took part in the service. Rev. C. W. Robinson spoke the invocation, Rev. Eugene Olive read the scripture lesson and Rev. H. K. King led in prayer. John Kermit Blackburn rendered a solo, "He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place." The entire service was very impressive.
Class exercises will be given tonight in the school auditorium and following is the program for the graduation Tuesday night, beginning at eight o'clock:
Song—America, The Beautiful, led by Miss Elizabeth Zurburg.
Invocation, Rev. Eugene Olive, pastor First Baptist church.
Awarding of Prizes and Medals, Chairman and others.
Music—Salon Mazurka, Bohm, Miss Mary Gwyn Williams.
Introduction of speaker, Mr. A. H. Casey.
Commencement address, Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler, president of Salem College.
Music—"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes", Johnson, Girls' Glee Club, Miss Elizabeth Zurburg, director.
Announcements, Mr. W. D. Halfacre, Superintendent City Schools.
Class Valedictory, Miss Nina Call.
Presentation of 7th Grade Certificates, Mr. D. J. Carter.
