Young People In Mountain View Community Enroll For Farm Work

Forty-one young people of the Mountain View community participated in organization of a 4-H club, unit at Mountain View a few days ago. It was learned today from A. G. Hendren, farm agent for Wilkes county. This represents one of the largest organizations of its kind ever formed in the county.

Eighteen of the 41 members enrolled in the corn club, 14 in the poultry club and nine in the soil club. The officers are as follows: Sherrill Gregory, president, Edwin Billings, vice president, and Ed Templeton, secretary-treasurer.

County Agent Hendren will assist in organizing a 4-H club unit at Purlear on Saturday afternoon.

Guernsey breeders of Buncombe county are cooperating to form a 4-H calf club by furnishing some of their best calves to the club members at reasonable prices.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT GIVES FOUR STAR PERFORMANCE "PRIVATE WORLDS"

Claudette Colbert, winner of this year's Academy award for the best performance of the year is seen at the Liberty Theatre in the first production since her award. Monday and Tuesday. A very fine cast support Miss Colbert in one of the greatest woman stories ever written about a very unusual subject Joel MacCreal and Charles Boyer, the new French import, Helen Vinson and Joan Bennett again score a hit for their parts in "Private Worlds." A good short program has also been included in the program. This time "Star Night At Coconut Grove" the favorite "hangout" for the movie stars in Hollywood. This short gives very intimate "shots" of the stars at their leisure hours. More of the stars will be seen in this little featurette than ever seen on any screen at any one time. In fact every star is seen with their favorite parties or party and in fashion most familiar to those only who have attended the Coconut Grove in an evening with the stars.

4. In conclusion he emphasized the thought of immortality and the supreme importance of carrying out the will of God.

Prof. T. E. Story made awards to various students for outstanding work. The Balfour award was to Miss Annie Lou Ferguson for the best record in scholarship, loyalty and achievement. Citizenship medals were presented to two eighth grade students, one from each room, and the honored students were Willie Mae Tevepaugh and Blanche Sparks. Medals for seven years perfect attendance were awarded to Baxter Davis, Goldie Erickson, Billie Stroud, Thomas Inscore, Lee Settle and Mack Brock. Prof. Story made mention of the fact that he had been informed by Miss Jaunita MacDougald, of the state department of education, that Carl Dennis had been declared winner in a creative art contest and pencil sketches sponsored by the state department of education, federation of Woman's Clubs and the American Association of University Women.

Prof. C. B. Eller, county superintendent of schools, presented diplomas of seventh grade graduation to a large class.

The president of the class announced that the class' gift to the school this year is a glass cabinet, in which trophies and other valued objects may be placed on display. The valedictory was rendered by Helen Bumgarner.

Benediction was spoke by Rev. S. Taylor.

Following is the senior class roll for the term just ending: Joan Royal Anderson, Paul Ferguson, James F. Garwood, Jack Henderson, James T. Kinlaw, Raymond B. McDuffie, C. Clinton Minton, J. Harlie Minton, H. Slater Prevette, Culous M. Settle, George H. Smoak, George Wall, Larry C. Wiles, Archie A. Yates, Thomas Inscore, Robert Foster, Margie Allen, Veele Sue Anderson, Carmine L. Broyhill, Zephia Brookshire, Bonnie Bumgarner, Helen Bumgarner, Gladys M. Bumgarner, M. Louise Canter, Carolyn N. Carlton, Floeta Church, G. Mozelle Davis, Annie Lou Ferguson, Pauline E. Gentry, Margorie Howell, V. Dare Howell, Vena L. Jarvis, Treva R. Johnston, Wilna Mae Jones, Pauline R. Kinlaw, Lillian K. Linney, Alma Minton, Faye Minton, Ruth Moore, Kate C. Ogilvie, Estelle L. Sloope, Ina Soots, Ada Lois Tedder.

The commencement opened on Sunday night, at which time Dr. George G. Higgins, pastor of Greensboro Moravian Church, delivered the commencement sermon to a large audience gathered in the auditorium of the Wilkesboro Methodist church. Dr. Higgins' subject was "The Pearl Of Life." In discussing the subject Dr. Higgins said that neither beauty, money or knowledge is the pearl of life but that it is happiness. "Happiness is a way of life," he said, and may be attained through three essentials: a Godly life, living for a purpose and accepting Jesus as a model.

The second commencement program was given on Tuesday, at which time the class day exercises were beautifully given in a program directed by Miss Lillian Stafford, of the high school faculty, and Mrs. R. E. Prevette, director of the music department.

The 1934-35 school year was the 11th under the leadership of Prof. T. E. Story and incidentally there were a number graduating this year who were in the first grade when Prof. Story served his first year as head of the school. Since he became principal 450 have graduated with high school diplomas from the school.

obligation of the citizen to share the responsibility of government and to actively participate in every movement which promises fuller opportunities for the masses of our people.

The Shelby attorney further stated in his announcement that the entire state would be his client if he were governor.

The formal announcement by Mr. Hoey placed himself definitely in the race, along with the one other who has announced so far, Lieutenant Governor A. H. Graham having announced last week.

ing what his congregation proclaims as a sound, sensible and saving gospel. His talks and comments are entirely free from any semblance of creedism and are directed toward a plan of Christian unity and saving grace that can emanate only from one God and from one Christ. His sermons thus far have been built around various and sundry essentials of life, necessary in a general trend of the people who, in this day, see advisability in a united turn back to God.

The choir is beginning to take on form in a real way and promises to prove an attraction by the end of their first week. Soloists for the week include such favorite singers as John Kermit Blackburn, Mrs. Gordon Finley, Mrs. C. S. Sink and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant. A. H. Andrews, of the First Baptist church choir, is lending valuable service to Mr. Barrett, director of music for the revival.

Rev. Jennings intimated that his subject for Sunday afternoon would be, "Spider-webs of Creation" and perhaps from the subject "Lost" on Sunday night, with the best musical talent pos-court, the services he has rendered have met with popular approval.

Following is a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Union County Bar Association:

"That whereas Honorable Julius Rousseau, one of the newly elected Judges, has presided over this, his first term in this county, and has presided with such fairness and dignity and with such courtesy to the members of the bar, court officers, jurors, litigants and witnesses as to excite the admiration, affection and respect of all persons having business with the court:

"Be it now, therefore, resolved by the Union County Bar:

"1. That Judge Rousseau's services in presiding over this term of the court, his fairness in administering justice, his profound knowledge of the law, his courtesy to and consideration of the members of the bar, jurors, court officials and all persons having business with the Court
