

Family Reunion Held At Summit

Reunion At Home of W. B. Wilkes Sunday; Other News of Community

SUMMIT, May 19.—On Sunday, May 19th, the family of Sandra and Olive Baker, and their relatives, gathered at the home of Mr. W. B. Wilkes and enjoyed a nice reunion. There was a large crowd present from different parts of several counties. At 11 o'clock noon, a nice dinner was spread on the large table, which had been previously prepared in the shade of the many large trees that surround the home. There were a number of speakers present, who entertained the folks a short while. Among those were: Mr. Lee J. Church, of Summit; Rev. Wesley Wilkes, Stony Fork, Watauga county; Mr. Richard Wagoner, also of Watauga County; and Mr. W. S. Church, of Booneville. The Summit choir No. 2 and quartet sang a number of selections in the afternoon. We feel that this occasion was enjoyed by all who were present and wish to thank everyone for their wonderful cooperation, which helped to make this affair a success.

Rev. Lee Beshears, of Parsonville, filled his regular appointment at Yellow Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Church and children, of Stony Fork, spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. Lee J. Church.

Mrs. Matt Church and children, of Stony Fork, are spending some time in this community visiting her sister, Mrs. Lillie Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Woodie and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bengtson are spending some time in this community visiting her sister, Mrs. Lillie Knight.
