Robert E. Reeves Claimed By Death

(The Welch (W. Va.) Daily News, Monday Evening, June 10)

Following an illness of five weeks, the death of Robert E. Reeves prominent Welch business man, occurred Sunday afternoon...

His mother, Mrs. Rosa L. Reeves, of North Wilkesboro, N. C., and his sister, Mrs. Harold Z. Riley, of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in the city four weeks ago...

Mr. Reeves was a native of North Carolina, having been born June 29, 1893, at North Wilkesboro...

He was married to Miss Madge C. Martin, of Wythe county, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Martin, of near Wytheville...

Mr. Reeves came to McDowell county about 20 years ago. For a number of years he was a traveling salesman for the McDowell County Wholesale company...

He was a member of McDowell County Post No. 3, the American Legion, and a former member of the Welch Rotary club...

While he never sought public office, Mr. Reeves was active in local Democratic political circles.

Funeral Service Tonight He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Frances E. Reeves; his mother, Mrs. Rosa L. Reeves, of North Wilkesboro, N. C.; and his sister, Mrs. Harold Z. Riley, of St. Louis, Mo.

A brother, W. D. Reeves, who was a prominent groceryman in Welch, died in 1928. A nephew, W. D. Reeves, Jr., also survives. T. R. Crumpler, of this city, is a cousin.

Funeral services will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock, at the family residence, 267 Virginia avenue. The Rev. L. W. Pierce, pastor of the Methodist church, will be in charge, assisted by the Rev. D. M. Dorsey, pastor of the Baptist church and the Rev. L. B. Padgett, former pastor.

The body was prepared for burial at the O. J. Douglas mortuary, and was removed to the late home this morning, at 10:30 o'clock.

The body will be taken by automobile hearse, leaving early tomorrow morning, to North Wilkesboro, N. C., where interment will take place tomorrow afternoon, at 4:09 o'clock, in the family burial plot.

feature on the same program will be the fourth issue of March of Time subject. And in addition a Charley Chase Comedy will be seen entitled "Oh Kay Toots."

Plans Made For Filming Moving Picture In City

(Continued from page one) a large number of exterior scenes which will enable the people of Wilkes county to see the actual taking of one of these hilarious comedies that flash much merriment on the screen for millions.

There is a wealth of material here for artistic backgrounds in which to frame successive scenes and the local atmosphere will enhance the interest of the film.

The studio company cooperating with The Journal-Patriot in the production of "Wilkes County's Hero," is established in Hollywood, Calif., where the great interests are focused, but a temporary studio will be located here for the necessary interior scenes.

The offer of the leading role in this picture to a beautiful and capable young woman of North Wilkesboro or vicinity carries with it no obligations.

The management tenders it unconditionally and requests only that the applicant fill out the application appearing elsewhere that the selection may be made with intelligent discrimination.

Further details concerning the extraordinary opportunities for Wilkes county girls will be published in Monday's issue of The Journal-Patriot so that many who will undoubtedly be interested may keep in close touch with the progress of the work.

"Wilkes County's Hero," is expected to prove a sensational success, as no efforts or resources will be spared.

If you have a girl friend whom you think would screen well, fill out the application that appears below and mail it at once to the movie editor, care of The Journal-Patriot. If you have a photograph send that too, for it will aid in selecting the principal for the cast. The movie editor assures those interested that there is no contest attached to the selecting of the star, but personality and screen ability are the guiding points.

Dellaplaine and Roaring River Route 2 News

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, June 11.—An interesting program will be presented at Cranberry church next Sunday morning at ten o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Lois Jarvis Roberts. The pastor is expected to be present and an invitation is extended to many to attend.

The pastor, Rev. W. F. Lawrence, of Jennings, preached at Cranberry the past Sunday. The annual communion service was held at Oak Forest.

Mr. A. H. Roberts, popular merchant of the Cranberry section attended the Wilkes court all last week as a juror.

Miss Minnie Love went with Mrs. Pearl Davis to town Saturday to take Miss Love's nephew, Herman Riding, to see a physician. The little boy had bronchitis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Greene and two of Mr. Green's daughters, returned Saturday to Salisbury, Md., after visiting Mrs. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jarvis, in the Cranberry neighborhood on this route. Mr. Jarvis accompanied them home for a visit. En route to Wilkes they attended the commencement exercises at a college in Virginia where Mr. Greene's middle daughter, Miss Agnes Greene, was a member of the graduating class.

Mr. T. Frank Mastin, Bluefield, W. Va., wrote relatives here last week that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Emma V. Martin, seriously ill since January 19, had returned home from the hospital and was able to sit up in a chair some of the time, but could not walk.

Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Jarvis have much company, including Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jarvis and three children, at their home in the Cranberry, or Mathis, section.

Miss Eula Jarvis returned last Thursday to High Point, where she is employed as a beautician, after spending Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jarvis, and her sisters, Mesdames H. L. Greene and Jim Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis had all of their nine children at home last Wednesday, except, J. Shade Jarvis, of Ohio.

Miss Ruth Linney, who had been crippled several days, was sufficiently improved to walk six or eight miles to attend services at Cranberry Sunday—and to get crippled some more!

Mrs. James Henderson, visiting here from Fairmont, W. Va., spent last week-end at Wilkesboro with Mrs. Helen Linney Cashion.

Mrs. Roxie Love had as her guest Sunday her brother, a Mr. St. John.

Mr. Harry Z. Tucker, of Stokesdale, was in this vicinity and other parts of Wilkes recently.
