

Society

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, Editor
Telephone 215

Presbyterian Auxiliary Met Tuesday Afternoon

With twenty-two members present an interesting meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary was held Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. G. P. McNeill, the president, presided and read the minutes of the previous meeting. Miss Clara Ogilvie gave the program and devotional using for her theme "Sabbath Observance."

Fidelity Class Enjoys Picnic Tuesday Evening

The monthly meeting for the Fidelity class at the First Baptist church on Tuesday evening took the form of a picnic. About twenty members of the class gathered at the church at 7:30 and motored out to the picnic grounds near Moravian Falls where a bounteous supper was spread. Guests of the class were Mrs. H. C. Easley and little daughter, Jo Ann, of Winston-Salem, who are spending sometime in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chal McNeil.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams Feted On Anniversary

To celebrate the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown and guests of the Brown Boarding House, where Mr. and Mrs. Adams make their home, entertained at bridge last Thursday evening. Three tables were placed for bridge in the living room where a profusion of glad-ill made a festive scene. Honor gift for Mr. and Mrs. Adams was a bedspread in keeping with the cotton anniversary.

Y. W. A. Met With Miss Nina Call

Miss Nina Call was hostess to the members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church at her home on D Street Monday evening in their regular monthly meeting. In charge of the business session was Miss Doris Pardue with Miss Shirley Foster as program chairman. The subject for study was based on Africa and the devotional for the evening was led by Miss Foster. Those present for the meeting other than the members were Mrs. Tip McNeill, Mrs. Rufus Church and Miss Lura Reynolds. The meeting was attended by twelve members and at close of program a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Dinner Party Given For The Misses Phillips

As a courtesy to Misses Flora and Florence Phillips, of Spruce Pine, Mrs. Andrew Kilby and Mrs. Jack Quinn entertained at an informal dinner party at Mrs. Kilby's home on Memorial Avenue last Tuesday evening. The Misses Phillips were here attending summer school in Wilkesboro and were staying with their sister, Mrs. C. B. Lomax, a sister-in-law of the hostesses. Dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for eighteen after which bridge was in play for sometime at four tables.

Miss Toby Turner Is Hostess At Bridge Party

To honor Mrs. H. C. Landon, of Philadelphia, Pa., Miss Toby Turner was hostess at a delightful bridge party at the Nurses home on E Street Monday evening. Mrs. Landon is here visiting her son, Mr. Henry Landon and Mrs. Landon. The game was played at three tables with cut flowers forming a festive background for the players. The top score prize in the game went to Mrs. Will Blair, and to the honoree Mes Turner presented a gift. In serving delicious refreshments at close of play the hostess had the assistance of Miss Audrey Miller.

Mrs. Phillip Robbins Is Feted At Bridge Luncheon

An outstanding social event of the week was the lovely bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Walter Newton at her home on Sixth Street Tuesday morning when she entertained for her sister, Mrs. Phillip Robbins, of Durham. Mrs. Robbins is here for a ten days visit with Mrs. Newton and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Horton. Four tables were made up for bridge in bright decorations of mixed summer flowers. Mrs. D. J. Carter was winner of the high score prize. At one o'clock following the game a tempting three course luncheon was served by Mrs. Newton with the assistance of Mrs. W. P. Horton and Mrs. Palmer Horton. Four additional guests came in for the luncheon, two of whom were out of town visitors, Dr. Dorothy Brame, of Charlottesville, Va., and Mrs. J. B. Farmer, of Warrenton, Va. Dr. Brame is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Brame, and Mrs. Farmer is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Genio Cardwell. Mrs. Robbins was presented with a lovely remembrance.

N. W. Methodist Circles In Splendid Meetings

The three circles of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church held splendid meetings Tuesday with Circles No. 1 and Mary Brame Circle meeting in the afternoon and the Franklin Circle at night. Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Faw with Mrs. Minnie Hunt as joint hostess. Nine members and one visitor, Mrs. J. C. Reins, president of Auxiliary, were present. Mrs. Murphy Hunt presided, Mrs. I. E. Pearson gave the devotional, and the Bible study was taught by Mrs. W. E. Jones. Mrs. T. G. Perry and Mrs. S. V. Tomlinson combined hospi-

How One Man Lost 25 Pounds

John Lethaby of Portland, Ore., writes: "Have known Kruschen Salts for years in England, Africa, Brazil. I weigh 190, chest 40, waist 42. After 6 weeks with Kruschen am 165, chest 42, waist 36. It gives me pep and vigor and has kept me young." To lose fat SAFELY and quickly take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water just before breakfast—cut down on fatty meats, butter, cream and rich pastries. For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. Horton Drug Co. and all good druggists will be glad to supply you.

ty to the members of the Mary Brame Circle at the home of Mrs. Perry with eleven members and one visitor, Mrs. Palmer Horton. Mrs. A. B. Johnson was in charge and led the devotional after which the Bible study was taught by Mrs. Horton. Hostesses for the Franklin Circle were Mrs. P. W. Kahlman and Mrs. A. L. Griffing at the home of Mrs. Kahlman. Seventeen were present. The program for the evening was arranged by Mrs. Walter Newton, who opened the meeting by reading the devotional period. Miss Mamie Sockwell told about "Life in Korea" and Mrs. Griffing "The Tropical Charm of Cuba." Mrs. C. B. Lomax, the retiring chairman, presided for the first part of the business session after which she introduced the new chairman, Mrs. Palmer Horton, who took charge. At the close of each of the meetings delicious refreshments were served during the social hours.

Furniture Men At Chicago Show

Representatives of local furniture manufacturing companies have been attending the furniture exposition in Chicago. An optimistic trend is noticeable in furniture markets this year, according to reports coming out of Chicago.

The Home Chair company is represented in Chicago now by Henry Moore and J. M. Quinn, J. D. Moore, Ralph Bowman and F. B. Hathcock attended the opening days of the show. N. O. Smoak is representing the Forest Furniture company and is expected to return the latter part of this week. J. R. Hix and A. B. Johnston, representing the American Furniture company, have already returned.

Parker Says Important Duty Of Bar Association to Clean Profession Shady Lawyers

Los Angeles, July 17.—In its war against crime, one of the most important duties of the American Bar association is to "rid the country of the lawyer-criminals," John J. Parker, United States district judge of Charlotte, N. C., told delegates to the body's national convention here today.

In a session during which the assembled lawyers put crime, taxation, divorce and a whole array of problems into the limelight, Judge Parker scored unscrupulous lawyers. He denounced attorneys of the "vulture type, the ambulance chaser and the police court racketeer, who have presented the lawyer in the role of a mere parasite, preying none too honestly upon the miseries and misfortunes of his fellows."

House Refuses Clark's Plan

Washington, July 17.—The House and Senate agreed today on all compromises to the administration's social security bill but one, again stumbling apart over the Senate amendment to exempt private pension systems. The House refused to recede from its opposition to the Clark amendment to exempt from Federal old-age pension taxes concerns which already have annuity plans.

WANT ADS

FOR SALE—One Harley-Davidson motorcycle; in good condition. Priced to sell; quick.—Yadkin Valley Motor Co. 7-18-11

WANTED—Old English Boxwood, old furniture, book stamps, glassware, etc. Send full description. B. J. Griffith, P. O. Box 924, Plainfield, N. J. 7-22-21

IF YOU ARE AMBITIOUS you can make good money with a Rawleigh Route. We help you get started. No capital or experience needed. Steady work for right man. Write Rawleigh's, Box NCG-164-2, Richmond, Va. 7-18-11-pd

LEARN BEAUTY CULTURE—Your success in beauty culture will be determined by your training. State accredited employment aid. Rates cheap. Instructor six years experience. Mae's School of Beauty Culture, North Wilkesboro, N. C. 7-18-11

FILMS Any size developed and printed, 30c per roll, cash with order. One diamond print free with each roll. Extra prints, 3c each. Tunnell's Studio, Bus Station Bldg., North Wilkesboro, N. C. 8-11-11

Charlotte, N. C. Notice of Sale. Whereas, Chevrolet Coupe, Motor No. 899534, Model 1928, heretofore advertised in this district for three weeks, has not been claimed, the same will be sold as provided by Section 3160, Revised Statutes of the United States at 12 noon, at the Yadkin Valley Motor Company, North Wilkesboro, N. C., on July 25, 1935, as provided by law. T. E. Patton, Investigator in Charge, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue. 7-18-11

FAIRER NEWS

On last Sunday the relatives and friends of Rev. Lee Nichols sought to do him honor as a celebration of his 32nd birthday, which really occurred on Friday of last week, by assembling at his home with baskets of choice preparations for a sumptuous dinner.

A table was prepared in the grove and well laden with delicacies. About 125 persons lined up on either side of the table. On request of "Uncle Lee" (as he is familiarly known) thanks were returned by Revs. A. W. Eller and Jas. T. Nichols, one at one end of the table and the other at the other end, after which an hour of social enjoyment was spent.

After dinner at the request of Uncle Lee preaching services were held in the grove. Rev. Jas. T. Nichols introduced the service. Then followed many short but inspiring sermons by Revs. Lee Beshears, of Parsonville, and Rev. A. W. Eller. Uncle Lee made the closing speech, which resulted in a general old time revival, and the shouting echoed from the mountain side.

In conclusion a collection was taken for Uncle Lee, and $4.60 was turned over to him.

Girl Scouts Camp Will Not Be Held

Organization Cancels Plans Due To Fear of Spread of Infantile Paralysis

Mrs. T. A. Finley, Girl Scout commissioner, announced today that plans for a two-weeks' camp for local Girl Scouts at the Kiwanis camp near Lenoir this summer had been cancelled on account of the fear of spread of infantile paralysis.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT ARBOR GROVE

There will be an ice cream supper on the lawn at Arbor Grove church Saturday, July 20, at 6:30 p. m. It will be given by the Epworth League and the proceeds will go to the pastor to help pay hospital bills. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ex-President Hoover has degrees from 34 universities. Corn is produced in every one of the 48 states.

Fairer News

On last Sunday the relatives and friends of Rev. Lee Nichols sought to do him honor as a celebration of his 32nd birthday, which really occurred on Friday of last week, by assembling at his home with baskets of choice preparations for a sumptuous dinner.

A table was prepared in the grove and well laden with delicacies. About 125 persons lined up on either side of the table. On request of "Uncle Lee" (as he is familiarly known) thanks were returned by Revs. A. W. Eller and Jas. T. Nichols, one at one end of the table and the other at the other end, after which an hour of social enjoyment was spent.

After dinner at the request of Uncle Lee preaching services were held in the grove. Rev. Jas. T. Nichols introduced the service. Then followed many short but inspiring sermons by Revs. Lee Beshears, of Parsonville, and Rev. A. W. Eller. Uncle Lee made the closing speech, which resulted in a general old time revival, and the shouting echoed from the mountain side.

In conclusion a collection was taken for Uncle Lee, and $4.60 was turned over to him.

Girl Scouts Camp Will Not Be Held

Organization Cancels Plans Due To Fear of Spread of Infantile Paralysis

Mrs. T. A. Finley, Girl Scout commissioner, announced today that plans for a two-weeks' camp for local Girl Scouts at the Kiwanis camp near Lenoir this summer had been cancelled on account of the fear of spread of infantile paralysis.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT ARBOR GROVE

There will be an ice cream supper on the lawn at Arbor Grove church Saturday, July 20, at 6:30 p. m. It will be given by the Epworth League and the proceeds will go to the pastor to help pay hospital bills. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ex-President Hoover has degrees from 34 universities. Corn is produced in every one of the 48 states.

Fairer News

On last Sunday the relatives and friends of Rev. Lee Nichols sought to do him honor as a celebration of his 32nd birthday, which really occurred on Friday of last week, by assembling at his home with baskets of choice preparations for a sumptuous dinner.

A table was prepared in the grove and well laden with delicacies. About 125 persons lined up on either side of the table. On request of "Uncle Lee" (as he is familiarly known) thanks were returned by Revs. A. W. Eller and Jas. T. Nichols, one at one end of the table and the other at the other end, after which an hour of social enjoyment was spent.

After dinner at the request of Uncle Lee preaching services were held in the grove. Rev. Jas. T. Nichols introduced the service. Then followed many short but inspiring sermons by Revs. Lee Beshears, of Parsonville, and Rev. A. W. Eller. Uncle Lee made the closing speech, which resulted in a general old time revival, and the shouting echoed from the mountain side.

In conclusion a collection was taken for Uncle Lee, and $4.60 was turned over to him.

Girl Scouts Camp Will Not Be Held

Organization Cancels Plans Due To Fear of Spread of Infantile Paralysis

Mrs. T. A. Finley, Girl Scout commissioner, announced today that plans for a two-weeks' camp for local Girl Scouts at the Kiwanis camp near Lenoir this summer had been cancelled on account of the fear of spread of infantile paralysis.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT ARBOR GROVE

There will be an ice cream supper on the lawn at Arbor Grove church Saturday, July 20, at 6:30 p. m. It will be given by the Epworth League and the proceeds will go to the pastor to help pay hospital bills. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ex-President Hoover has degrees from 34 universities. Corn is produced in every one of the 48 states.

Fairer News

On last Sunday the relatives and friends of Rev. Lee Nichols sought to do him honor as a celebration of his 32nd birthday, which really occurred on Friday of last week, by assembling at his home with baskets of choice preparations for a sumptuous dinner.

A table was prepared in the grove and well laden with delicacies. About 125 persons lined up on either side of the table. On request of "Uncle Lee" (as he is familiarly known) thanks were returned by Revs. A. W. Eller and Jas. T. Nichols, one at one end of the table and the other at the other end, after which an hour of social enjoyment was spent.

After dinner at the request of Uncle Lee preaching services were held in the grove. Rev. Jas. T. Nichols introduced the service. Then followed many short but inspiring sermons by Revs. Lee Beshears, of Parsonville, and Rev. A. W. Eller. Uncle Lee made the closing speech, which resulted in a general old time revival, and the shouting echoed from the mountain side.

In conclusion a collection was taken for Uncle Lee, and $4.60 was turned over to him.

Girl Scouts Camp Will Not Be Held

Organization Cancels Plans Due To Fear of Spread of Infantile Paralysis

Mrs. T. A. Finley, Girl Scout commissioner, announced today that plans for a two-weeks' camp for local Girl Scouts at the Kiwanis camp near Lenoir this summer had been cancelled on account of the fear of spread of infantile paralysis.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT ARBOR GROVE

There will be an ice cream supper on the lawn at Arbor Grove church Saturday, July 20, at 6:30 p. m. It will be given by the Epworth League and the proceeds will go to the pastor to help pay hospital bills. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ex-President Hoover has degrees from 34 universities. Corn is produced in every one of the 48 states.

DEMAND MOTHER'S THREAD . . . Beautiful, Smooth and 13% Stronger.
150 yards 5c

THE BOOK AND GIFT SHOP
MEZZANINE FLOOR RHODES-DAY FURNITURE CO.
Gifts
FOR WEDDINGS AND PARTIES
You will find here something nice, appropriate, Attractive

An Announcement Of Interest To Every Local Business Man

We take pleasure in announcing that we have installed a Night Depository for the convenience of our depositors. This added service of our bank will enable the merchants and other business men of the section we serve to place their money in a burglar-proof safe at any hour during the day or night that our bank is not open, and will give relief from worry due to having a large amount of money in your own safe which might be stolen by thieves.

This Bank is glad to offer its patrons this extra service and extra safety. Come in and let us explain how you may use this Night Depository.

All Deposits Guaranteed to $5,000.00

DEPOSIT & SAVINGS BANK

RESOURCES NOW OVER $825,000.00

OFFICERS:

R. L. DOUGHTON	President
J. T. PREVETTE	Vice President
RALPH DUNCAN	Vice President
C. T. DOUGHTON	Cashier
D. S. HILL	Assistant Cashier
ANNE DUNCAN	Assistant Cashier

NEW ORPHEUM THEATRE SHOWS THE PICK OF THE PICTURES
No-Air Conditioned Theatre Keeps You Comfortable

THURSDAY and FRIDAY July 18 and 19
"G-Men"
Jas. Cagney, Ann Dvorak, Robert Armstrong, Margaret Lindsay.
Cagney joins Uncle Sam's "G-Men" in the only real "G-Man" picture made to date. First U. S. Federal Agent film. The picture you have been asking for is here, and what a picture!
Plus Latest News, Comedy

MONDAY & TUESDAY July 22 and 23
Everybody's Little Girl Back Again in
"OUR LITTLE GIRL"
Shirley Temple, Rosemary Ames, Joel McCrea and Lyle Talbot.
Another big family show for the entire family. Bigger and better than ever. She will steal into your heart more tenderly than ever. On the same program!

Fox 4-Star News Reel, Vitaphone Technicolor Musical and Scrappy Cartoon.
ADMISSION
Matinee 10 and 20c
Night 10 and 25c

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24
10c TO EVERYBODY
"Under the Pampas Moon"
Warner Baxter and Ketti Gallian
Plus Comedy and Cartoon. And what a picture for only a dime!

"Bride of Frankenstein" just around the curve, almost in sight and oh, boy! Will Rogers in "Doubting Thomas" right on her heels