News From Ronda Route 2 Section

RONDA, Route 2, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pardue had as their guests Mrs. Polly Brandon Ireland, and Mr. Harve Cook and family of Coaster, July the Belle Heazle entertained their twenty-eight.

Misses Male, Lizzie and Julia friends in and about Clinchman Saturday afternoon, July 27, had "a good time."

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Killy, of Yadkinville, took supper with their uncle, Worth Sale last Sunday evening.

Mr. Arthur, Uncle Bud, Morrison, has recently built a porch for Mr. Luther Pardue.

Rev. W. T. O'Conner, of Alexander, was called home from Brier Creek reviving the fourth Sunday evening on account of the illness of his fourteen-year-old son who was suffering with symptoms of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, and Master Bill Norman visited Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale July twenty-eighth. It was a delightful surprise to have these good friends drop in unexpectedly.

Mr. Will Walker and family, of Boonville, recently visited his uncle, Richard Walker, and his cousin, Vetra Boyd, here.

Rev. R. R. Crater preached an interesting and thrilling sermon at Brier Creek on Sunday night, the twenty-seventh, from the text "It is finished."

Rev. W. A. Myers, familiarly known in this community as "Uncle Billie," preached his farewell sermon on this terrestrial world at Brier Creek. Mr. Crater is a salutary reminder of his grandfather to those who held the old preacher dear.

Miss Ruth Boyd, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Gaither Gentry in Winston-Salem, is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Vetra Boyd and attending Brier Creek revival. Her many friends have a warm welcome for her.

Mr. Gus Myers, of Cycle, was very ill last week. His numerous friends are glad to know he is much improved at this date.

Mr. Fayette and Miss Lizzie Pardue, of Clinchman, visited their relative, Mrs. T. J. McNeil, of Roaring River, last Sunday. Mrs. McNeil has been in bad health for several weeks. Both relatives and friends are keenly anxious about her.

Miss Minnie Sue Jarvis, who is in training at Davis Hospital, Statesville, ran up and made her parents a short visit last Monday evening. Her father, Rev. N. T. Jarvis, was pleased to have his daughter at home on his return from services at Brier Creek. Her mother has been a semi-invalid for the past twenty years and is now on the decline.

Miss Minnie Sue reported that Rev. W. T. O'Conner's son was operated on for appendicitis at Davis Hospital last Sunday night and is getting on nicely.

Rev. R. R. Crater, surpassed himself Tuesday night at Brier Creek, preaching from the text, "O Sleeper, Arise, Call Upon Thy God, it so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not."

Last Monday night the storm came to Mr. John Ford's and left a ten pound girl with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pardue. He isn't quite so generous with all his visits as this particular one.

Mrs. Sam Gray expected to have her mother, Mrs. Dicy Goforth Roberts, spend this week with her and attend Brier Creek revival. When she went for her mother she found her in bed sick. So far she has been unable to come to see her daughter.

Miss Edith Crater spent Tuesday with her friend, Miss Mary Kate Sale, attending two services at church.

Mrs. Ransom Hickerson, familiarly known as "Aunt Charity," who has been an invalid for a number of years, hasn't been able to retain any nourishment for nearly two weeks. She has been tenderly cared for these years she has been bedridden by her daughter, Mrs. Neal Henderson at the old homestead.

Mrs. Nellie Jarvis, of Cranberry, who seldom visits, especially in hot weather, visited her sister, Mrs. Laura Martin Linney at the old Tilley place last Thursday. Rev. N. T. Jarvis drove by there and left Mrs. Jarvis on his way to Brier Creek, then returned that way after the night service and carried Mrs. Jarvis home. These devoted sisters are much comfort to each other. No one can entertain Mrs. Jarvis quite so well as Mrs. Linney.

Mrs. Dicy Roberts was able to visit her daughter, Mrs. Sam Gray and attend services at Brier Creek Thursday night.

Mrs. Mary Mathis and Ella Mae Blackburn went home with Mrs. Mary's "Grandpa," Rev. N. T. Jarvis, from church last Tuesday.

92-Year-Old Lady Is Taken By Death

Mrs. Nancy Candill Succumbs at Home on North Wilkesboro Route Two

Mrs. Nancy Candill, one of the oldest residents of Wilkes county, passed away at the home of her son, John E. Candill, on route 2, North Wilkesboro, Thursday evening at five o'clock. She had been ill with heart disease for several days.

She was the wife of the late Abner Candill, member of a well known Wilkes county family, and had reached the age of 92 years.

She leaves seven children, T. I. Candill, Burkeville, Va.; Mrs. Mary Wood, Hays; Mrs. Janis Brown, Mrs. C. H. Warren and John A. Candill, North Wilkesboro; Mrs. A. L. Hutchinson and A. Candill, Hays; also one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Lanier, Scottville.

Funeral service was held at Liberty Grove church on Saturday afternoon. Rental checks amounting to $16,852.32 have been received and delivered to cotton growers in Bertie County who signed adjustment contracts last year.

Checks for 1935 signers are expected within a few days, says County Agent B. E. Grant. dinner for Mr. Lewis Privette's family last Tuesday. Mrs. Privette was hastily rushed to Wilkes Hospital that day and underwent an operation.

Her friends wish her a speedy recovery. Rev. J. B. Ray has been visiting friends about Brier Creek this week, assisting in the services at church. His sermons have been delivered appropriate to the occasion.

Mrs. Amanda Morrison and her friend, Mrs. Gaye, of Roaring River, have attended two services at the revival at Brier Creek this week. Mrs. Morrison fosters her old time interest in church work. Mrs. Gaye is a daughter of Mr. Isaac Martin, of Roaring River, formerly of Millers Creek. Mrs. Gaye's home is at Danville, Va. She came to her father's for her health and is much improved her friends are glad to learn.

Pleasant Grove and Cranberry have swelled the congregation here this week. Always welcome visits at this sacred old church from any and everywhere.

Baseball Results

Home Club Baseball team broke a losing streak of four games Sunday by returning to winning ways and setting down the High Point all stars team by a score of five to three after leaving the previous Sunday's game 3:20 P. M.

Rogero was again on the mound for the locals and pitched a good game, allowing only five hits. Three errors by members of the home club aided High Point in the scoring. Crook's holding was of a high order while Rogero and Icenhour, with two for three each, led in the hitting.

Score by innings: R.H.E. H. Chair 000 000 00—3 3 3 All-Stars 000 010 110—3 5 1 Rogero and Icenhour; Willard, Clark and Green.

On Friday afternoon here the locals lost the second game of the series with the Hickory rebels and were eliminated in the Charlotte Observer's semi-pro tourney. Hickory sluggers pounded Ball and Rhoades for a total of 14 hits, including two homers by Randleman. However, loose playing on the part of North Wilkesboro's infield aided the rebels in the scoring.

Score by innings: R.H.E. Hickory 000 045 003—10 14 1 H. Chair 200 000 001—3 10 4 Mullins and Jones; Ball, Rhoades and Icenhour. On Saturday afternoon the Home Chair team went to White Oak, Greensboro, for an exhibition game and lost seven to five in a very interesting contest featured by heavy slugging. Thompson hit a homer and a triple while Icenhour contributed one homer. Carmichael and Ball hurled for the North Wilkesboro team with Hunter, of the Proxi-

Hubbard Clan In Re-Union Sunday

About seventy members of the Hubbard clan gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hubbard Sunday, and held a most enjoyable reunion. Shortly before the noon hour, the Hubbards as well as the Carltons, began to gather in for the occasion.

One of the features of the occasion was the bounteous dinner that was spread on a long table in the yard, this being fitted to capacity with fried chicken, sandwiches, cakes, pies, and many other good things to eat, with plenty of ice water and punch extra. Rev. J. C. Gentry pronounced the blessing, and then everybody joined in eating the many good things that had been prepared. After this pleasant part of the program, some of the young folks present enjoyed singing while the older ones carried on pleasant conversations.

Those present for the happy reunion from a distance were: Mrs. Sidney Carlton and son, Luther Carlton, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. George Laxton, King Creek; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Scroggs and son, Chas. Jr., of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. H. Hubbard and son, H. C. Jr., of Salisbury; Mrs. Gus Boldin, of Lenoir; Misses Annie and Minnie Chatham, of Elkin; Mrs. W. S. Surratt, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bynum Banner, of White Oak. Score by innings: R. N. Wilkesboro 100 110 020—5 White Oak 003 022 000—7

Galax, Va. The last Hubbard reunion took place at the home of the late Mrs. Alfonsa Hubbard, near Mountain Falls, N.C. July 23, and it is believed that on other similar occasions will be held next year.

Quarterly Conference Fourth quarterly conference of the Moravian Home church will be held at Mountain Falls, N.C. Sunday, August 13. This will be an all-day service beginning at 11 o'clock and dinner will be spread on the grounds at noon. Every official of the charge is urged to be present. Rev. J. O. Gentry, pastor, stated today.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Mrs. J. W. Walker, deceased, late of Wilkes County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of the said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at West Side Station, High Point, North Carolina, on or before the 1st day of August, 1935, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This the 3rd day of August, 1935. M. G. WALKER, Administrator of Mrs. J. W. Walker, deceased.
