Chevrolet People Hold Enthusiastic Meet Friday Night

One of the greatest selling drives in the history of the Chevrolet Motor company was launched Friday night in the southeastern region, which includes the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Florida, Georgia and Alabama, when approximately 150 retail salesmen and dealers of the company met in the ballroom of the O. Henry hotel in Greensboro.

Plans for the "All American" selling drive were outlined by T. D. Hunter, zone manager, of Charlotte.

Mr. Hunter has charge of the Charlotte zone for Chevrolet, which comprises all of North Carolina and the greater part of South Carolina, and from a volume standpoint the Charlotte zone is third in the United States.

Several members of the zone organization assisted Mr. Hunter in his presentation and gave explanations of different phases of the proposed campaign. J. E. Foote, zone truck manager, outlined the truck market available to Chevrolet salesmen for the balance of 1935; M. E. Patterson, parts and accessories merchandising manager, offered helpful suggestions toward used car merchandising; E. C. Atkinson, sales promotion manager, discussed the reappraisal of the Master DeLuze model, which has been given the name "The Aristocrat of the Low Priced Field," and he also presented the program entitled "Ride America," which fully outlined the plans for the month of August, when an endeavor will be made to have every possible person ride in a Master DeLuze car.

He stated that Chevrolet will act as host to the American public in August, in an effort to ride everyone in a Master DeLuze car, without the prospect feeling under any obligations whatsoever to purchase an automobile. This new feature, he said, stands out as a highlight in Chevrolet's program of good-will building throughout the United States.

Toward the conclusion of the program Mr. Hunter announced that during August and September which months represent the duration of the southeastern region "All America" selling campaign, every man in the Chevrolet organization will have an opportunity to win many valuable prizes of every type and description, based on his ability to produce new and used car sales for his dealer. Emphasis was placed on the fact that the campaign is to be the greatest of its type since the previous campaigns sponsored by the company from 1927 to 1931.

Gaddy Motor Company, local Chevrolet dealer, was represented by W. F. Gaddy, R. R. Church, J. D. Wellborn, A. L. Prevette and J. H. Somers.

The meeting was opened with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock, accompanied by music furnished by the hotel orchestra, and a number of Chevrolet songs were sung. Mr. Hunter pointed out that, with the present "wonderful economic condition" in North Carolina and South Carolina, sales of automobiles should possibly equal those of the fall of 1934.

RUSH ORDERS ON FURNITURE FOR P. O.

some of the tables or desks have not been received. Before our furniture factories could have made this furniture and delivered it to the building, it is actually growing up in snags. Will you investigate this regrettable condition and advise?

"P. W. EBELMAN, J. R. HIX, CHAS. McNEIL, JOHN E. JUSTICE, ANDREW KILBY."

"Dear Ward:

"I have your telegram relative to post office building situation in North Wilkesboro and have taken this matter up with the Post Office Department. I am informed that the contractors who are to provide furnishings for the building have been wired to rush the order. The Post Office Department has also wired Mr. J. C. Which... Do You Prefer? THIS... OR THIS... Frankly, this advertisement was created for the sole purpose of drawing comparisons between our modern sanitary laundry and other laundry services available locally. An appropriate heading would have been—"What Kind of Company Does Your Laundry Keep?" We wonder, sometimes, if parents of small children who fail to take advantage of our clean, sanitary laundry service, realize the danger from disease germs when they send the children's clothes just anywhere for laundry? When sent to the Wilkes Laundry, your laundry is washed in the most modern method—in individual nets. Can you be sure of as much when it goes to the washerwoman? No! Here your clothes are protected by every possible means of sanitation. They are boiled and completely sterilized. Can you be sure of as much when they go to your washerwoman? No! Be sure your clothes are kept sanitary. Think it over. Even though you may save a few pennies by sending the laundry to someone's home for washing, is it wise economy? Are you positive your clothes are not mixed in with those of someone else? Are you positive they are washed under absolutely sanitary conditions? If not, you are risking the health of your entire family! Is that wise economy? THINK OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS THAT IS PREVALENT IN THE STATE!
