News Of Dellaplane And Roaring River

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, August 6.—A revival has been going on all the week at Antioch church.

The protracted meeting closed recently at Brier Creek. Attendance at the revivals is good, particularly at night. But the weather has been too boiling and perspiration flows in too great torrents to trudge six or eight miles, the round trip, to church.

Much popular in this vicinity was found to be seriously "teched in the head" and had to be rushed to Morganton in Mr. Charlie Johnson's truck.

Numerous white as well as colored people attended the colored Sunday school convention over last week-end. Rosa Parks, colored, of Pittsburgh, Pa., came home for it.

Rev. W. T. Comer, of Stony Point, visited the Mathises and other friends in the Cranberry section week-before-last, prior to assisting in the Brier Creek revival. Mr. Comer and Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Jarvis were the dinner guests one day of Mrs. Bertha Mathis.

Mr. Charles Johnson, Wilkesboro, Route 2, popular block man, sold ice cream at the colored church last Sunday.

Eight were received into the church at the close of the Cub Creek revival July 28, according to the pastor, Rev. N. T. Jarvis, of this vicinity.

The boiling heat caused this neighborhood to belie its fame as a cool region. Apparently, the skinnier you are the hotter you get and the more you perspire. Perhaps most people are so fat the heat can't penetrate far inside in the course of one summer.

Electric lights have been installed at Cranberry in preparation for the revival there, August 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim P. Jarvis and three small children, Miss Lucy "City" Billings, and Mr. "Red" Clark, all of Winston-Salem, visited at Rev. N. T. Jarvis' Sunday-before-last. Miss Billings and Mr. Clark also visited Ronda, Elkin, the Wilkesboros, and elsewhere.

Mrs. Emma Mastin went to the Wilkesboros last Saturday to see a doctor.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis, the pastor, will hold a revival at Fishing Creek church, Wilkesboro, Route 2, all the week following August 11.

Mr. Julius J. Johnson, generally known as "Judie," was among those in Elkin on business Monday of last week and in the Wilkesboros Tuesday and Saturday.

Miss Minnie Sue Jarvis and a girl friend, both student nurses at Davis Hospital, Statesville, spent Monday of last week with Miss Jarvis' parents, Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, of the Cranberry settlement, hiking a small portion of the way. They were accompanied back to Statesville that evening by Mrs. Lois Jarvis Roberts and Mrs. Noah Jarvis, Jr.

Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, of the nearby Cranberry community, spent the day and evening last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Laura Linney.

Mr. Millard Foster has been operating his sawmill on the old "Garner place" sawing lumber to build a handsome new house for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mathis. Since their nice new house was destroyed by fire some months ago, Mr. and Mrs. Mathis have been living in outbuildings.

Mrs. Lois Roberts and mother, Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, attended a matinee in North Wilkesboro a recent afternoon.

Revs. J. B. Ray and R. R. Crater assisted, Rev. N. T. Jarvis in the Brier Creek revival. Rev. W. T. Comer, also assisting, was called home to Stony Point at the first of the meeting because of the serious illness of a young son with appendicitis. Another son, Mr. Comie L. Comer, had just returned to his home following an appendectomy.

Though part of the threshing in this region was completed a month or two ago, some threshers were in this vicinity and the Brier Creek and Cranberry communities last week. A hot and merry time was enjoyed by all paying due respect to Ceres and Pan, the goddess of harvests and god of rural sports, and not entirely ignoring Bacchus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Byrd are living in a house on the hard-surfaced road instead of visiting relatives. Mr. Byrd, World War veteran, was formerly with the veteran's CCC.

Valdosta, Ga., Aug. 5.—Opening week prices in the Georgia bright leaf tobacco belt were reported at 30.84 cents a pound at 34 to 46 warehouses today as sales were resumed after the week-end holiday, with offerings heavy.

Scattering reports from various markets in the belt said prices were holding all well, despite the tremendous volume.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY AND RESPECT

Whereas, on June 27, 1935, the Great Supreme Ruler of the Universe in His infinite wisdom removed from among us one of our worthy and loyal fellow brothers, William J. Bradley, and whereas, the long and intimate relations held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this order makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore,

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability which he exercised in the aid of our society by sincere loyalty and contributions will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all members and friends of this order, and will be a serious loss to the community and public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved family and relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to all of us may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Council, a copy be printed in the county paper and a copy sent to the bereaved family.
