

Discuss Rural Lighting Plans

Matters of Policy Studied by State Authority Prior to Conference

Raleigh, Aug. 13.—Matters of policy to be followed in planning for construction of lines in North Carolina were discussed here today by the State Rural Electrification authority.

Dudley Bagley, chairman, and J. L. Horne, Jr., of Rocky Mount, a member of the group, will leave here tomorrow night for Washington to take up these plans with Morris L. Cooke, Federal rural electrification administrator, and exchange views on procedure in filing applications with the REA.

The authority did not attempt to pass definitely on points in the State program, but did formulate what may be taken as a plan for the future. Cooke's views will be sought before the points are announced, Bagley said.

Bagley revealed a letter he received from Cooke in which the administrator now apparently favors completion of the survey in North Carolina aimed at determining feasible lines. Last week the administrator wrote advising that some surveys being conducted through the Emergency Relief administration be suspended.

At that time the State authority had secured an allocation of $6,500 to complete the survey in seven counties. Bagley said 78 counties were included in the original check, and of the 32 remaining, 15 are in the Tennessee Valley authority area in western North Carolina and probably will be taken care of there. Cooke apparently favored continuation of the survey to present a full picture of the State situation, and this matter will be discussed with him Wednesday, Bagley stated.

Soil Erosion

Second Deficiency Bill Is Signed by President

Washington, Aug. 12.—Total appropriations since Congress met on January 3 were boosted today to $8,153,208,000 when President Roosevelt signed the second deficiency bill.

As the chief executive put his signature on that bill, two other significant things were happening: Chairman Buchanan, Democrat, Texas, of the house appropriations committee was talking about a "balanced budget" at the next session, and the last appropriation bill of the session—the third deficiency measure—was beginning to take shape.

BORAH LEADS G. O. P. POLL

Washington.—Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, was favored as the 1936 Republican presidential nominee today in a nation-wide poll of Republican county chairmen and other local Republican leaders.

The poll was taken by Robert H. Lucas, former executive director of the Republican national committee. He sent letters to 2,400 Republican county chairmen, 300 city leaders and 500 "young Republicans."

Lucas asked for a vote on 11 possible candidates listed. He received 1,565 replies, representing 1,036 counties throughout the nation. Those polled were asked to indicate first and second choices.

Borah, a liberal Republican who has supported some new deal measures, was named as the first choice by 247 and as second by 121. Colonel Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, was ranked second and Governor Alf Landon of Kansas, third.

Former President Herbert Hoover was sixth. Some wrote in the names of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Governor Winant of New Hampshire, former Governor Caulfield of Missouri, Governor Merriam of California, former Senator Otis Glenn of Illinois, and Representative-Elect Risk of Rhode Island.

Senate Turns Down 30-Hour Week Measure

Washington, Aug. 12.—The Senate late today rejected the Black 30-hour week bill by a vote of 61 to 23 and then passed an administration measure compelling all industries holding contracts with the federal government to observe labor and wage conditions embraced in NRA codes.

There was no record vote. The action is effective for two years. It bans child and convict labor and freezes maximum hours and minimum wages at the peak fixed in codes under which industry operated before the agreements were suspended.

The measure now goes to the House where action is expected before adjournment. An attempt may be made in that body also to substitute the 30-hour-week bill which the Senate turned down today.

Urge To Wander Trait Of Boones Of Present

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 12.—The urge to wander still seems to be part of the heritage of descendants of Daniel Boone, says E. E. Boone, of Hibbing, direct descendant of America's famous frontiersman.

Both Boone, a painting contractor here, and his wife are descendants of the Boone family. Mrs. Boone traces her ancestry back to the wife of Daniel Boone. Boone worked all over the United States before settling in Hibbing.

"I have a cousin who follows right in the footsteps of Daniel," he said. "He's been all over the world, working his way as a sailor and at present is in America's latest frontier—Alaska."

YOU DON'T HAVE TO "BREAK IN" THE FORD V-8

You can drive it 50 miles an hour the day you buy it

THE FORD V-8 is ready for normal driving when you buy it. There is no tedious period of breaking-in for 500 or 1000 miles. You can drive it up to 50 miles an hour the first day. And after the first hundred miles you can drive it as fast as you desire.

That means greater motoring enjoyment for every motorist. It is especially important to motorists who are thinking about a new car for a vacation trip — to physicians, salesmen and all those who use a car for business. Instead of dragging along at slow speeds for days, you can make good time from the start.

The reason for this is as important as the result. The Ford V-8 needs no breaking-in because of unusual accuracy in the manufacture of moving parts and the smoothness of bearing surfaces. Clearances are correct when you buy the car. It is not necessary to depend on a long wearing-in period to eliminate tightness and insure smooth running. Longer life, greater economy and better performance are bound to result from such precision methods. The Ford V-8 gives you fine-car construction, along with fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty.
