NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND FOR TOWN TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1934

Under and by virtue of authority conferred by Consolidated Statutes governing the sale of land for taxes, and by virtue of an order passed by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of North Wilkesboro, N. C., I will on Monday, September 9, 1935, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, at the county courthouse door in Wilkesboro, N. C., offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the lands hereinafter described, situated in the Town of North Wilkesboro, N. C., listed in the names of persons hereinafter mentioned, to satisfy delinquent taxes for the year 1934, including delinquent installments and interest due in the year 1934 on street paving assessments, as shown below: (Penalties, costs, etc., will be added to the amounts shown below.)

There have been six revivals—Oak Forest, Briser Creek, Fishing Creek Arbor, Antioch, Cranberry, and Old Fishing Creek—within the past 3 or 4 weeks. The colored people also held one at their church, Union Grove, following their Sunday school convocation.

Mrs. Hazel Johnson has a very sore foot. Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Pervis C. Parks are sorry that their oldest daughter, who is married and living in Winston-Salem, has typhoid fever, according to news received by her parents last week.

Mr. Julius J. Johnson says he is planning to move to Wilkesboro Route 2 and put up a filling station. Jna Adams, little foster daughter of Mrs. B. L. Johnson, was quite sick over last week-end.

A house is being erected for "Boy" Sale, colored. Mr. Jay Jarvis, of the Cranberry vicinity, accepted work in Winston-Salem a few weeks ago. The Oak Forest choir is planning to practice and attend the fifth Sunday singing at Bethel, one of the others, Messrs. G. M. Tucker and Lloyd Richardson, who will train the singers, contemplate importing an expert singing school teacher for one week.

Miss Ida Parks' burnt sore has not yet healed and her sister, Miss Lou, is said to be in somewhat feeble health also. Mr. George R. Johnson, Wilkesboro Route 2, has about recovered from a recent severe attack of sinus trouble, according to his brother, Judie.

Rev. Pervis C. Parks says he assisted Rev. J. N. Binkley in a wonderful revival at Holly Springs last week and that somewhere in the teens, or more, were converted.

Service at Oak Forest last Sunday was postponed until 2:30 in deference to the Antioch baptizing, which was attended by a large throng. Mr. Parks preached at the afternoon hour.

Mr. B. L. Johnson and others who raised some tobacco in this vegetable prevented some household section are curing it now. Canning peaches, apples, and wives and house-women from attending the revivals "ever" day and ever night," as they wished. "Many," however, are attending the interesting revival in progress at Cranberry. Even those who have been giving Cranberry a slight rest are planning to go to a few services.

A second revival at Oak Forest was scheduled Sunday to begin the first Sunday in October, at which time it is hoped that remodeling the church will be completed. Miss Ruth Linney was quite sick a few days the early part of last week and also hurt her head badly on thorns Monday while trying the cow, or a snake bit it, but is in no danger.

Mr. J. J. Johnson was in the Wilkesboro Monday. Revs. Pervis C. Parks and C. M. Call were dinner guests last Sunday at Mrs. Laura Linney's at the old Tilley place.

Mrs. W. G. Harris says her mother, the much-beloved Mrs. R. M. Prevette, of Wilkesboro, is improving in health. Mrs. N. T. Jarvis seemed to be unusually well when visiting in this section August 1 and attending a few services of the Antioch revival last week. She walked nearly half a mile at 10 p. m. August 1; has made 3 or 4 dresses this summer and crocheted a hat, a very large lace bedspread, or tablecloth, and other smaller articles.

Mrs. Laura Linney is having a few repairs made to the roof at the old Tilley place. Manse Parks, colored, excellent amateur carpenter and handy-man, doing the work.

EXPECT METHODIST BODIES TO REUNITE Chicago, Aug. 12.—Methodist leaders tonight expressed confidence that the historic three way rift among American followers of John Wesley would be bridged by drafting of a constitution for unified denomination this week.

A specific plan to effect union of the Methodist Episcopal church (Northern), the Methodist Episcopal church, South and the Methodist Protestant church, 18 months in preparation, will be studied at a four day session of the joint commission on church unity, hearing tomorrow.

Plan Gets Support "Members of the commission are unanimous in support of the plan," said one official of the commission. "We are confident the union constitution will prove satisfactory to all parties. Its ratification by the general conferences would be possible by 1938 but is hardly probably before 1940."

One of the questions which may be settled during the commission's sitting, the official indicated is that of a name for the re-united denomination, which would embrace more than 8,000,000 communicants, making it the largest Protestant church in the United States.
