

Deadline Set By Roosevelt For Job Relief

Washington, Aug. 28.—President Roosevelt put the $4,000,000 work-relief program on a "must" time table basis today. He set five deadline dates, seeking to slash red tape that had engulfed the drive for 3,500,000 jobs by November 1. The schedule:

Sept. 12: All applications for federal projects aid must be filed.

Sept. 17: All projects must be on Mr. Roosevelt's desk for final approval.

Sept. 24: Funds to pay for the approved projects must be available.

Oct. 22: All force account projects must be under way.

Dec. 15: All contract work must be awarded and ready for construction.

The new rules, announced in identical letters to all program directors, had the effect of turning a major part of the program to Works Progress Administration Harry L. Hopkins.

Hopkins, the new deal's chief spender, will supervise all force account work, financing projects from the $2,000,000,000 of the $4,000,000,000 tentatively allotted WPA for distribution on the basis of job need.

He already has allotted $245,000,000 to states that had lists of projects ready for submission, and has piled up some $700,000,000 in pending applications. Other requests are coming in at the rate of millions every day.

The President's orders were interpreted as a blow to the public works and low-cost housing programs, originally scheduled to have received $1,150,000,000.

The new deal has promised to transfer 3,500,000 needy from relief rolls to payrolls by November 1. Only force account projects can be underway by that time in accordance with the October 22 deadline.

Dellaplane and Roaring River Route 2 News

ROARING RIVER, Route 2, August 27.—Mrs. Blanche Mastin Cothren was taken Saturday of last week to Dr. Trivette's hospital, near Hamptonville. Her husband, Jarvie Cothren, who has also been living at Mr. J. L. Mastin's a short time, accompanied her.

Mr. B. L. Johnson, local expert apiarist, has been busily inspecting bees over the county for American Foul Brood, during the past few weeks.

The nice house of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mathis, near Cranberry, is nearly completed.

Mr. Jay Jarvis, of the Cranberry vicinity, did not stay in Winston-Salem when he went there to work several weeks ago, but is recovering nicely from cuts received in a reputedly playful altercation with his friend, Walter Sparks, during the Cranberry meeting.

The heel of Ray Parks, colored, grandson of Vern and Panay Parks, was less vulnerable than that of Achilles, for he has been convalescing splendidly since being bitten twice on it by a copperhead two weeks ago.

Brier Creek church generously loans its individual communion service to Dennyville, Cub Creek, and other churches. The set was purchased with a part of the Adams endowment fund, as a memorial to Rev. W. F. Adams. It is pointed out that nothing could better please Mr. Adams, who left his property to the old church of which he was so long clerk and pastor, than to have this communion service used in several churches.

Rev. N. T. Jarvis attended the Brushy Mountain Association last week and reported that it was fine. He was particularly delighted with the address on "Missions" by Rev. Mr. Alexander.

Services will be held at Oak Forest in September on the second Saturday afternoon at 2 and on Saturday evening at 8, and on Sunday at 11. It is understood that Rev. C. M. Call will be ordained on Saturday evening.

Many from this side of the river attended the revival last week at White Plains, where as many as four were said to have been converted at each service.

Mr. Jim Mastin's cow was very ill last week, while Mr. Mastin was busily engaged in vaccinating dogs. Apparently, something had stung or bitten her bag.

The Dellaplane correspondent has been sick a few days with perennial headaches and neuralgia, which caused her face to hurt even more than you would expect.

Mr. and Mrs. Judie Johnson and three children visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Poteat, near Union Grove or Osbornville, and Mr. Parks Reed and family, near Hunting Creek, last Sunday.

Two weeks ago, this correspondent, in the Wilkesboros shopping, spent a short time with her aunt, Mrs. D. S. Lane, and delivered a small amount of poplar block money from Mrs. Lane's farm here.

Wilkes and Ashe friends of Mrs. Emma V. Martin, Bluefield, are glad that she is much improved and can write a long letter with her own hand, though she is still unable to walk and has to keep both a registered nurse and a cook.

Mrs. Fisher Joyner spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Childers, near Roaring River. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Hazel Joyner, who had spent several weeks at the home of her grandparents. Mrs. Childers, who had been rather ill, was much improved in health since making a visit in West Virginia.

In July at the old Tilley place, Sukey, very small white kitten scarcely longer than one's hand, though about a year old, found two kittens without bodies, just heads. More recently, she has adopted the two youngest kittens of her mother, who had found 33 kittens in 3 years and four months, and lies in the box with them, cares for them much more constantly than their real mother, and does everything for them except suckle them.

Illinois Farmers Organize To Rout Band of Thieves

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 26.—In automobiles, but every whit as determined as the horse mounted bands of the old west, 100 Will county farm vigilantes tonight began a patrol to last "until every rustler is caught and convicted."

Well armed and deputized by Sheriff Michael J. Breen, they toured the byways of the county, one and two men to a car, grimly determined to end the depredations which authorities estimated cost them and their neighbors of Grundy, LaSalle, and Kankakee counties $20,000 this summer.

One Kankakee county man, John Blievernicht, was slain Saturday while investigating a mysterious truck on a farm there.

The sheriff's office said the 100 vigilantes will be joined in their patrols by similar groups in Grundy and La Salle counties within a few days. The Will county vigilantes were made up by leaves from each township of the county after John R. Butler reported this morning that two sleek calves were stolen from him during the night.

Senator Reynolds Plans 9,000-Mile Trip

U. S. Senator Reynolds and Trailer

Washington, Aug. 28.—Prior to embarking September 2 on his nation-wide tour to speak before civic organizations on "True Americanism and Peace-time Patriotism" under the auspices of the United States Flag Association, Senator Robert R. Reynolds has announced the acceptance of invitations to deliver two addresses in the Carolinas.

His first address will take place at the annual convention of the North Carolina State Federation of Labor at Durham, August 29. The second will be before the annual convention of the Loyal Order of Moose of North Carolina and South Carolina, September 1, at Spartanburg, S. C.

While on this cross-country trip, Senator Reynolds will act in the capacity of North Carolina's ambassador of good will by distributing in the visited cities thousands of pieces of literature, folders and pamphlets sent to him by chambers of commerce of the Tar Heel state. In addition, he will include in his talks before the civic clubs, an invitation for his hearers to come to North Carolina and view its scenic grandeur from ocean to mountains, as well as its gigantic industrial enterprises.

The itinerary for the tour mapped by Colonel James A. Mues, president-general of the U. S. Flag Association, of Washington, D. C., covers about 9,000 miles and embraces 35 states.

Senator Reynolds has been invited to address principal civic organizations in the east, New England states, southwest, and the far west.

Washington, Aug. 28.—North Carolina farmers co-operating in the crop adjustment programs of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration received $14,733,147.53 during the fiscal year July 1, 1934, through June 30, 1935, for curtailing their cotton, wheat and tobacco acreage and their corn-hog production. It was revealed today.

Broken down in payments by commodities, this additional income represents $8,015,330.21 in rentals and benefits to tobacco farmers; $5,945,844.43 to cotton producers; $719,385.30 to corn-hog farmers, and $351,559.67 to wheat growers.

In the United States as a whole, the AAA during the fiscal year expended a total of $807,836,184.47 from available funds of $860,854,320.63; thus carrying a

HOLD TWO INDIANS ON MURDER COUNT
Waynesville, Aug. 26.—Walker Calhoun and Allen Long, Indians residing at the Cherokee reservation, today were ordered held without bond for federal court action in connection with the death of Wesley Driver, 64-year-old Indian.
Police quoted Driver as saying just before his death on Aug. 17, that Calhoun struck him in the head with a rock after Driver had defeated Calhoun and Long in an archery contest.
Excited Lady: "My husband has disappeared. This is his photo. I want him found at once."
The sergeant looked up from the photograph: "Why?" he asked.

REVOLUTIONARY SUPER QUALITY Greater Than Great

This Oil speaks for itself

ESSO MOTOR OIL
35¢ per gal.
ANOTHER CONTRIBUTION TO Happy Motoring!

CLAIMS, CLAIMS, CLAIMS! What remains to be said, when motor oils shout themselves hoarse with every word in the dictionary? Well, here's the simple story of Esso Motor Oil. Read it—judge for yourself if it is worth trying—then make the oil do its own talking.

This oil was put on sale at our stations and dealers without a word of advertising. No claims. No ballyhoo.

We knew what it would do. As the world's leading petroleum organization, we knew we had produced an oil that would hold its body better than any other oil.

We knew it would thin out less in hot weather, and thicken less in cold weather, than any other oil.

We knew it would hold its level in the gauge longer, protect your motor more completely, than any other oil.

But we made no claims. We put it out at 35¢ a quart to see if motorists would buy it—and then tell their friends.

In a few months, over a quarter of a million motorists tried this oil, and liked its performance so well that its sales exceeded estimates by 288%. We had our answer. Esso Motor Oil had told its story.

Esso Motor Oil had succeeded—on its own—by its own character—without a word of advertising.

That's the way we want it to succeed with you. We ask you to give Esso Motor Oil a thousand-mile trial to test its outstanding performance. This oil speaks for itself.
