

Society

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, Editor
Telephone 215

Baptist Circles In Monthly Meetings This Week

Six circles of the First Baptist church have held their regular monthly meetings this week. At all the meetings after the regular business session a prayer service was held looking toward the meeting that is to begin in the First Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Eugene Olive, pastor of the church, met with a number of the circles and led the prayer services.

Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. A. F. Kilby, who also as leader was in charge. Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. J. N. Shockey and in the absence of the leader, Mrs. J. I. Myers. Mrs. A. C. Dennis took charge. Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., was hostess to Circle No. 3 and also was in charge. Mrs. N. H. Waugh taught the mission study lesson.

Mrs. John Rhodes was hostess to Circle No. 4 with Mrs. W. F. Jones presiding. Circle No. 6 met with Mrs. C. G. Horton with the leader. Mrs. Eugene Olive occupying the chair for the business session. Interesting reports were heard from a recent meeting at Edgecrest and the annual associational meeting. Circle No. 7 met with the leader, Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant. The program was given by Misses Manie Brewer and Lunda Hendren.

Mrs. A. E. Spainhower Is Hostess To S. S. Class
The August meeting of the Wo-

FIRST IN N. WILKESBORO

Each Week
the ORIGINAL CREATIONS of Mirra-Line FROCKS New York

4.98 to 9.90

STRAIGHT from New York, to you—each week—the latest and loveliest creations of Mirra-Line! Casually tailored or smartly sophisticated! New Fall colors! New fared skirts! Be first to wear them!

PENNEY'S
NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

Social Calendar

The garden department of the Wilkesboro Woman's club will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hadley, Mrs. R. B. Hendren and Mrs. W. B. Reins joint hostesses. Blue ribbons will be given for the best vase of yellow flowers, best vase of purple flowers, best vase of mixed flowers and best miniature display.

man's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Spainhower as hostess at her home on Kensington Drive. Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. W. E. Shuford, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Spainhower, the usual routine of business being transacted. Mrs. H. K. King led an impressive devotional period. At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

T. E. L. Class Met With Mrs. E. M. Blackburn

The members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Blackburn on E Street Tuesday evening for their regular monthly meeting. Thirteen members were in attendance. Mrs. A. H. Andrews, president of class, occupied the chair during the business session, several matters coming up for discussion. Mrs. W. F. Jones led the devotional period. After the business session, the meeting took the form of a prayer service in the interest of the series of services that are to begin in the First Baptist church Sunday.

Episcopal Auxiliary Met With Mrs. Underwood

The election of delegates to the convention of the Western North Carolina Diocese of the Episcopal church featured the business and social meeting held by the Episcopal Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. R. Underwood on C Street. The convention is to be held the fifth and sixth of September at Kanuga and those chosen to represent the local Auxiliary are Mrs. H. M. Scott and Mrs. William Barber.

Mrs. Underwood held the chair during the business session and the devotionals were led by Mrs. J. E. Johnson. A pleasant social hour was enjoyed during which time tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. P. W. Eshelman Is Hostess At Bridge Party

Mrs. P. W. Eshelman was hostess at bridge at her home "Locklyn" north of the city Tuesday afternoon, guests being members of her own bridge club and a few extra players. Three tables were made up for the game amid an artistic arrangement of cut flowers. Honor guests at the party were Mrs. Allan Banner and Mrs. Orton Boren, both of Greensboro, who are visiting their cousin and sister here, Mrs. John E. Justice, and other relatives on the Brushy Mountain. Lovely remembrances were presented to the honorees.

When cards were laid aside the hostess served tempting refreshments in two courses.

Mrs. Walter Myers Entertained For Sister

A delightful courtesy was extended to Miss Virginia Sheridan Wednesday afternoon when her sister, Mrs. Walter Myers entertained at a bridge party at her home in Wilkesboro, honoring Miss Sheridan, who has been here on a visit with Mrs. Myers. Amid bright decorations of cut flowers two tables were placed for the game and as a result of play the high score prize went to Miss Wilma Rose Call.

The honoree was presented with a lovely remembrance.

When cards were laid aside a dainty salad course and punch was served.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. J. Sheridan and Mrs. William K. Newton.

Read Journal-Patriot ads.

The Dixie Diner To Open In City

New Cafe Next Door to City Barber Shop Will Open Friday at Noon

The Dixie Diner, North Wilkesboro's newest eating establishment, will open to the public Friday at noon in the building formerly occupied by the North Wilkesboro Paint and Wall Paper company next door to the City Barber Shop.

J. K. Menefee, who has had many years of successful experience, is proprietor of the Dixie Diner, which will introduce a new type of self service in this city.

The Dixie Diner will be newly equipped with the most modern equipment and fixtures obtainable and the best of sanitary conditions are assured at all times by the management. For information as to further news of the establishment's opening tomorrow attention is called to the advertisement elsewhere in this newspaper.

SUMMARY OF ACTS PASSED BY CONGRESS

(Continued from page one)

series of new air bases and ordered hundreds of raw airplanes for army and navy, started -25-ship naval building program.

Neutrality—Places absolute embargo on shipment of all war materials to belligerents up to March 1, 1936; sets up licensing system to regulate arms manufacture; authorizes President to prohibit vessels from Americans ports to deliver men or munitions to belligerent ships at sea.

Gold Clause Suits—Prohibits suits against the government after January 1, 1936, on claims arising from devaluation of the dollar and abrogation of the gold clause in government securities.

Alcohol Control—Sets up new federal administration to replace old FACA which became powerless with downfall of NRA.

Guffey Coal—Sets up a "little NRA" for the bituminous industry; commission to enforce labor standards, trade practices and minimum prices; "penalty tax" on operators who fail to comply.

Farm Mortgage Moratorium—Replaces Frazier-Lemke act which Supreme Court found invalid; permits bankruptcy proceedings which would stay foreclosures for three years with farmers given right to redeem property after that time.

Utilities—Limits holding companies to not more than two any given integrated system of operating companies; brings holding company affairs under strict control of securities and exchange commission.

Relief—Gave President Roosevelt $800,000,000 for direct relief and $4,000,000,000 for work relief under which the present drive to create jobs for 3,500,000 persons by November 1 is being pushed.

Taxes—Levied new taxes estimated to yield $250,000,000 annually, to be derived from higher income taxes on persons receiving more than $50,000 a year; from higher taxes on estates left by the wealthy; and from higher taxes on the more profitable corporations.

Income Tax Publicity—Repealed last year's "pink slip" law which would have made personal income tax records subject to public inspection.

AAA Amendments—Gives congressional approval to processing tax rates and benefit payments to farmers in effort to protect legality of new deal's crop control program; restrict suits for recovery of processing taxes to those who can prove they did not pass tax burden on to consumers or farmers; prohibit price fixing except in the case of milk; continue Bankhead cotton control act and Kerr-Smith tobacco control act for another crop year; authorize control system for potatoes.

TVA Amendments—Give TVA specific power to sell power, a point challenged in the courts; authorized a $50,000,000 bond issue for TVA expansion; forbade TVA to buy whole existing power distribution systems.

Railroad Reorganization—Simplified procedure for reorganization of financially distressed lines, under ICC approval.

Railroad Pensions—Provided for federal pensioning of railroad employees at age 65 or after 30 years' service, replacing last year's pension act which Supreme Court held invalid.

Spanish War Veterans—Restored full pensions to these veterans at cost of $45,000,000 a year.

NRA Extension—Continued a skeleton and virtually powerless NRA organization until April 1, 1936.

Baby Bonds—Authorized sale of government bonds to small investors in denominations as low as $25.

"Now," said the super salesman, "this instrument turns blue if the liquor is bad—green if it's good."

"Sorry, but I'm color blind," apologized the prospect. Got anything with a gong on it?"

Mrs. David Hamby Claimed by Death

Mrs. Elizabeth Smithy Hamby, wife of David Hamby, of Wilkesboro, died in the Wilkes Hospital Tuesday morning following a major operation.

Death of Mrs. Hamby was an occasion of much sorrow among a wide circle of friends. She was a member of a well known family, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smithy, of Oakwoods. She was an active member of Wilkesboro Baptist church and took a great interest in church and Sunday school work.

In addition to her parents and husband, she leaves two sons, James and Willie, and the following brothers and sisters: Frank and Charles Smithy, Wilkesboro; Will, John and Rufus Smithy, Oakwoods; Mrs. Lindsay Johnson, Oakwoods; Mrs. Chester Lowe, Pores Knob; Miss Maggie Smithy, Oakwoods.

Funeral service was held at Wilkesboro Baptist church yesterday morning with the pastor, Rev. Avery Church, in charge, assisted by Rev. W. E. Linney. Interment was made in Mountain Park cemetery.

Summit News

SUMMIT, Aug. 26.—The revival at Yellow Hill Baptist church closed Sunday. There was a very good attendance each day and a house full every night.

Mr. Toy Mical of Stony Fork, spent Thursday night in the home of Mr. Lee J. Church.

Misses Annie Bell, Ruth and Lillian Fleonor spent a short while with Misses Rosa and Nina Church, Sunday evening.

Miss Veta Church, of Patton's Ridge, spent Saturday night with Miss Hazel Church.

A large crowd from this community attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Mary Ann Phillips at Big Ivy Sunday.

Miss Ruby Blankenship, who has been spending a few weeks in Lenoir visiting relatives, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keys spent Sunday with their son, Mr. Arnold Keys, of this community.

Miss Minnie Watt, of Reddick River, is now spending a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. T. F. Church, of this community.

Mr. Coy McNeil, of Stony Fork, was a visitor in this community Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Phillips and children, of Walsh, spent a few days last week in this community visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Mical.

Birthday Party

On Sunday, August 25, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Triplett gave a birthday party in honor of their daughter Miss Minnie Pae, on her seventeenth birthday. A large crowd of friends and relatives were present.

Chicken sandwiches, cake, lemonade and iced punch were served. All present reported a very good time.

NOTICE!

All Eyes On This Space For Most Important Announcement Soon!

$ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $

New ORPHEUM Theatre

EXTRA!

NEW CAFE SERVICE COMES TO NORTH WILKESBORO

OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE ON MEALS WELCOMED BY EVERYBODY!

THE DIXIE DINER

NORTH WILKESBORO'S MOST MODERN DINING ROOM OPENS

Friday, August 30, At Noon

Opposite Hotel Wilkes

NEW EQUIPMENT...NEW SERVICE
NEW PRICES

Choice of Three Meals for Only 25c PLUS TAX

Meal Hours:

BREAKFAST 6:30 to 8:30

DINNER 11:30 to 2:30

SUPPER 5:30 to 8:30

Self-Service:

NO WAITING

YOUR PATRONAGE IS INVITED

As a member of the NATIONAL RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION we are pledged to operate this business in accord with the higher standards of Restaurant practice and to be ever mindful of our public responsibility.

You Can Always Save On Your Drug Needs at Horton's Drug Store