2 YOUTHS ARRESTED FOR EXTORTION PLOT

Statesville, Sept. 10.—An extortion plot and kidnap threat on which local police officers had been working for several days, reached a climax today when Grady Mullis, 18-year-old employe of the Statesville Cotton mill, allegedly confessed writing a note to C. F. Campbell, card room foreman at the mill, demanding that he produce $2,000 in cash.

Raeford Barnes, 17, also an employe of the mill, and Mullis had been in custody for investigation since yesterday.

The threatening note, left in the back screen door of Campbell's home in the Statesville cotton mill community, demanded that Campbell get the money from his friends and leave it in front of the high school building.

The letter said, "You have a pretty little girl and you would not want anything to happen to her, would you?" The note closed with "Take your choice, money or death."

Police officers, hiding in front of the school building, allegedly saw the two boys come to the appointed place near the midnight hour and walk away without picking up the match box in which a small amount of money had been left.

The actions of the boys puzzled the officers who did not make arrest until other evidence developed.

The purported confession came today while officers were questioning the boys. Both are confined in default of bonds in the sum of $1,000 each.

Publicity Offices of Both Parties Busy

Washington, Sept. 9.—Opening salvos of the 1936 campaign have quickened the activities of Democratic and Republican publicity experts.

Neatly-mimeographed sheets of partisan opinion already have started to flow from their typewriters. The streams of material clipped from newspapers and other sources go to party workers and officials as well as to the press.

Bennett Gordon and Harry Brown are in charge of public relations for the Republican national committee, while Charles Michelson continues to direct publicity for the Democratic national committee.

Supplemental publicity efforts are made by Warren Wheaton, formerly of The Philadelphia Public Ledger, for the Republican congressional and Senatorial campaign committees, and Charles (Buck) Hayden for the Democratic Congressional campaign committee.

Doughton Family Reunion

Sept. 11.—Members of the Doughton family gathered at the home of former Governor R. A. Doughton recently for a reunion.

Members of the immediate family present were the three Doughton brothers, former Governor R. A. Doughton, Congressman R. L. Doughton, and W. F. Doughton, and Mesdames F. Miller and T. J. Carson. Mrs. Myrtle Fender, of Washington, D. C., was unable to be present.

With just enough fall tang in the air to whet appetites the more than seventy persons present enjoyed the hospitality of former Governor and Mrs. Doughton at an old-fashioned Southern dinner.

After luncheon, Judge J. C. Padgett, of Independence, Va., addressed the crowd, reciting interestingly some of the notable achievements of these bearers of the Doughton name. The judge is a gifted after-dinner speaker and did the occasion ample justice.

Dr. G. A. Martin, pastor of most of the family, was called upon for an expression and spoke feelingly and tenderly of the mother "of these giants," who lived to be almost ninety-six years old before she passed away about a year ago.

The pastor spoke of the gathering as the "home-coming of the giants. Giants physically as befits a race grown great in the top of the Blue Ridge. Giants morally as becomes worthy descendants of noble ancestors. Giants mentally by reason of which they stand in the front rank of the best men.

Giants spiritually because of the evidences of God's handiwork as seen in the towering peaks and the nearby stars at night."

The occasion was brought to a happy close with fitting words by the two distinguished brothers, Rufus A. and Robert L., both of whom are near idols to a great host of good and sensible people.

Long's Forces Charge Murder Was Conspired

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 11.—Huey P. Long's allies turned away from his coffin tonight, vowing to seek indictments against any person suspected of participating in an alleged plot which ended in the United States senator's death.

While the high and the humble were streaming past Long's coffin in the rotunda of the State Capitol, Earl Christenberry, the senator's secretary, was pressing an investigation into charges that Long's murder was decided weeks ago at a secret meeting at which lots were drawn to determine who would do the shooting.

Prepare to Bring Charges
Long's friends will not hesitate to file the accusation of conspiracy to murder against any person, it was said, and they are prepared to go before a grand jury to do it.

Christenberry said sufficient evidence already had been found to point to a conspiracy, but he refused to indicate the nature of it.

"There is no doubt that there was a plot to kill the senator," he said. "We already know some things about it. You can bet your last dollar that as soon as we get some more evidence there is going to be action around here."

All this was going on back of the heavy bronze door in the Capitol where Long's political allies have their offices. Out in the vast rotunda of the Capitol the people of Louisiana were enacting another drama as they filed past the coffin where Long's body, clad in a tuxedo suit, was lying.

Funeral Today
That scene was almost a summation of Huey Long's life—a blend of noise, drama and crowds. The mourners' line curled into the front door and past the coffin. As they departed they had to go past a half-dozen carpenters who had opened their kits and spread their tools on the expensive marble floor of the rotunda. They were building two wooden fences to keep in line the crowds that will move slowly past the coffin until 4 p. m. tomorrow when the funeral will be held. Outside there was a clang of picks and shovels. Grave diggers were hacking away at the turf in the sunken garden outside the Capitol.

Triplet Hearing To Be Held Friday

Man Accused of Killing Negro To Be Tried Friday Morning in Wilkesboro

Preliminary hearing for Dr. Triplett, charged with the fatal shooting of Charlie Barton, colored, on Friday evening, will be before Magistrate P. L. Londerman in Wilkesboro Friday morning at ten o'clock.

It will be brought out by eye witnesses in the hearing, it was said today, that the colored man went to the home of Mr. Triplett, in Elk township, started a fight with another colored man who was working there and assaulted Mr. Triplett by throwing stones at him when he tried to stop the fight. He surrendered to Sheriff W. B. Somers after he had shot the colored man and is in jail awaiting the hearing.

MARTIN COMPLETES HIS STATE SERVICE

Raleigh, Sept. 9.—Leroy Martin, executive secretary to the state school commission, wound up his work today and will go to his new home in Winston-Salem where he begins in a few days his duties in the trust department of the Wachovia Bank and Trust company.

Mr. Martin, who has been with the school administration eight years has seen the complete change in educational organization under which the county system gives way to the state and the entire burden of the eight months school term falls upon the commonwealth. That service in the schools has been varied with the seasonal duties as principal clerk of the senate, which duties may not be assumed again since the big bank of Forsyth county takes him entirely away.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rinin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get rid of the cause. The reason for your discomfort is lying in your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food won't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Acid often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes three good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't take liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Present a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
