Presbyterian Group Conference Held Tuesday

With "Looking, Learning and Living" as the theme an unusually interesting group conference of the Winston-Salem Presbyterian was held Tuesday at Jefferson with an all day session beginning at eleven o'clock in the morning. Mrs. C. C. Faw, of this city, presided at the meeting which was attended by fifty-five delegates from the different churches in the group.

An impressive devotional was given by Mrs. Archie Ogilvie, of North Wilkesboro, on "Looking for Guidance." The second part of the theme "Learning of Our Work" in the foreign fields, was presented by Mrs. D. L. Williamson, of Brassil, who is at home on a furlough, and Dr. McAlpine, of Winston-Salem, a retired missionary of Japan. The work at home was given by Miss Virginia Hart and Mrs. J. M. Wells, of Winston-Salem, president of Presbyterian, who told about the work of the Presbyterian.

For the last part of theme on "Living", Miss Catherine O'Neill, of Lansing, made an inspirational talk on "Living for Him and Others."

A picnic lunch was enjoyed at the noon hour. Those going over from North Wilkesboro were Mesdames T. A. Finley, Dan Carter, Edward Finley, J. C. McDiarmid, W. H. McNeil, A. A. Cashion, H. V. Overcash, C. D. Coffey, Jr., Archie Ogilvie and Mrs. Faw.

Mrs. W. F. Gaddy Is S. S. Class Hostess

The business and social meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Gaddy at her home on Trogon Street. Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. W. E. Shuford, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. A. E. Spainhower. Mrs. Minnie Hunt gave the scripture lesson after which Mrs. Spainhower offered the prayer. A number of important business matters came up for discussion. During the social hour the eighteen members attending were served tempting refreshments.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Met Tuesday Afternoon

The September meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary was held at the church hut Monday afternoon with a splendid attendance of members. Mrs. S. P. Mitchell, the president, held the chair during the business session at which time fine reports were heard from the various secretaries. The devotional was led by Mrs. Archie Ogilvie.

Mrs. Gordon Finley, as program chairman, presented an inspirational program on 'Loyalty.' Special music was a vocal duet "Looking, Learning and Living," the Auxiliary hymn for the year, rendered by Mrs. Gordon Finley and Mrs. T. B. Finley.

A most impressive part of the program was the candle light service that followed the program. All the members lighted a small candle from a large candle placed on the altar table, with the officers of auxiliary forming a wheel, around which were grouped the other members carrying out the idea of loyalty.

North Wilkesboro P.-T. A. Committees Are Named

The first meeting for the school year 1935-36 of the North Wilkesboro Parents-Teacher Association was held Thursday afternoon, Sept. 12, in the school auditorium with the president, Mrs. T. A. YEAR'S SUPPLY RINSO IS FREE WITH WASHER

The Wilkes Electric Company, Westinghouse electric dealer for this territory, made an offer in an advertisement in The Journal-Patriot Monday that is attracting quite much attention.

To every purchaser of a Westinghouse washer. The Wilkes Electric Company is offering a full year's supply on Rinso. Forty eight-ounce boxes of this nationally advertised product goes with every purchase.

This offer will hold good until November 15 but all persons interested are asked to call for a demonstration as early as possible in order not to be without the services of the washer and the forty boxes of Rinso. The local firm invites everybody to visit its store and inspect the new Westinghouse models.

Tuberculosis has been found in 57 different parts of bovine animals.

Funeral Service For Wreck Victim Conducted Tuesday

Funeral services for Fred Daney, 22-year-old resident of the Buck community who was killed Sunday night when a truck he was driving overturned on the Boone Road 12 miles west of this city, were held at Pleasant Grove Baptist church Tuesday afternoon, three o'clock.

The service, conducted by Rev. Ed. Hayes, was largely attended. The young man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daney, of Buck. In addition to his parents he is survived by three sisters and two brothers.

Two-Hour Snipe Hunt

Nath Ford, local colored man, gives an interesting account of taking 18 boys snipe hunting on Monday night.

He said that he stationed the snipe hunters at the mouth of a ditch on Cub Creek, where they waited in vain for two hours while he was supposed to drive the snipes down. Their lights went out near the cemetery, he said, and speed records were broken.

Mrs. Eva Prevette Is Taken By Death

Mrs. Eva Prevette, wife of J. W. Prevette, of Cycle, died Monday afternoon, five o'clock, at her home. Funeral services were held at Shady Grove Baptist church Wednesday with Rev. I. M. Wright in charge.

She was a daughter of J. E. and Geniava Mayberry Roberts. In addition to her husband she leaves six children: Gayle, Dwight, Mary, Eugene, Charles and Willard Prevette.

Roosevelt Is Back; Finds Cupboard Bare

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt arrived home today from Hyde Park to find the cupboard bare.

He had to eat his breakfast aboard his special train in the yards. The White House kitchens still were in the hands of the plasterers and the plumbers, who were installing a new electric cook stove, costing $5,100.

E. Carl Allison of the Cherryfield section of Transylvania county is curing about three tons of fine hay per acre from his Korean lespedeza field.
