

New Plymouth Dodge On Display

At Wilkes Auto Sales Company; Heavy Improvements In New Models

The Wilkes Auto Sales company, located in the F. D. Forster building on the corner of B and Fourth streets, now has the 1936 models of Dodge and Plymouth automobiles on display.

These two popular makes of automobiles have come out with several 1936 models that are destined to win favor with the motoring public.

Wagon for the 1936 Plymouth, carrying many new features over previous models, is "The Peak of Perfection."

In order to really get a conception of what the new Dodge and Plymouth looks like, Wilkes Auto Sales company invites everybody to visit their establishment and get first hand information on appearance and performance.

A new law in Japan requires that 51 per cent of all Japanese automobiles must be owned by the Japanese.

Orpheum Theatre Has New Screen

Will Rogers' Last Picture To Be Shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

The New Orpheum Theatre, managed by W. J. Allen, has completed the installation of a new screen, which adds materially to the excellent manner in which talking pictures are projected and shown.

The announcement that Will Rogers will be seen in his last picture before his tragic death will be shown at the New Orpheum Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week has created considerable interest.

In order to accommodate the crowds which are expected to see this picture a Sunday midnight show has been arranged to start at 12:01. Showing hours for the remainder of the picture's run will be 1.3.5.7 and 9.

A special matinee is announced for stenographers, bookkeepers, clerks and secretaries to see Claudette Colbert in "She Married Her Boss." This matinee will be on Thursday morning, Oct. 24, at 6:45 a. m.

'Cicero Steps Out' On Tuesday Night

Is Play To Be Presented Here By Local Parent-Teacher Association

People both young and old will forget their troubles—dull care will fly out of the window when "Cicero Steps Out" comes in. This is the promise of the P. T. A., who plan to present this hilarious two act musical comedy at the North Wilkesboro high school auditorium on Tuesday night, October 22, at 8:00 o'clock.

"Cicero Steps Out" is not just another "home-talent play," but a delightfully written artistically staged production introducing ten new characters, besides ten well-trained choruses, whose performances, introducing a number of the latest song hits, will amaze and delight you.

Packed with amusing situations, moving with thrilling speed from start to finish. An intimate knowledge of the defects of the average 'home-talent play,' brought about the request for something different—something which would not only lend itself readily to amateur productions, but stand out as the entertainment high-light of the year—"Cicero Steps Out" was the result.

"After you have forgotten lesser entertainments, you'll remember Cicero, Miss McWhiffle, Dr. Bohumpus, and others.

"Even though you may have forgotten the people who enacted the roles, you'll remember the suspense, the thrills, and the laughs you had, the tunes you hear will continue to haunt you—pleasantly—for weeks.

"Don't forget the time and place... treat yourself to a real treat when 'Cicero Steps Out' appears."

The cast is as follows: Miss McWhiffle, an old maid school teacher. Miss Sarah Poole; Cicero Socrates Smith, a janitor by necessity. Howell Gabriel; Simpson, a crook appearing as hutter. Joe Brame; Gora, a young girl who has trouble with her speech. Elizabeth Calhoun; Peter, devoted to Dora. Grady Church; Polly Stanton, a popular young student at Hillandale Seminary. Mickey Bryant; Ruth Ryley. Polly's roommate. Marcella Pendley; Dr. Henry Bohunkus, President of Hillandale Seminary. Andy Shook; Mrs. Bohunkus, wife of Dr. Bohunkus. Louise Vyne; Charles S. Smith, a professor by proxy. John Blackburn.

Funeral Service For H. E. Miller Held On Tuesday

H. E. Miller, age 52, resident of Charlotte, died in a Statesville hospital Sunday morning.

Mr. Miller was visiting his brother, Mayford Miller, when he was suddenly taken ill Friday night. He was carried to the hospital Saturday night and died early the following morning.

He was 52 years of age, a son of L. R. Miller, of the Straw community. In addition to his father he leaves his wife, Mrs. Treva Cates Miller, five children, Raymond, Bronah, Carlton, Sarah and Calvin Miller, and the following brothers and sisters: Mayford and Shirley Miller, Mrs. Carl Canter, Oakwoods; Mrs. C. M. Tevepaugh, North Wilkesboro; Mrs. W. H. H. Waugh, Oakwoods and Miss Florence Miller, North Wilkesboro.

Funeral services were held at Forest Lawn Burial Park in Charlotte Tuesday.

Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Thrift Package

School Children May Obtain Needed School Supplies At Coca-Cola Stores

The Coca-Cola Bottling Company, one of the city's leading and most progressive business firms, is now busily engaged in distributing what is known as Coca-Cola Thrift Packages among its many dealers in this community.

This Thrift Package which contains two pencils, two tables, one ruler, and two blotters, sells for only ten cents where Coca-Cola is sold locally, this low price having been made possible by the Coca-Cola Company on account of the advertising obtained by the unusual offer.

A large number of Thrift Packages were received this week and are now on sale, however, the demand is expected to be so great that repeat orders will have to be mailed by the Coca-Cola Company in order to keep the school children supplied during the present school year.

The management of the Coca-Cola company is anxious for every school child in the county to have one of these Thrift Packages. Wherever you see Coca-Cola sold, ask for one. If the dealer does not have any on hand he can get a supply promptly.

Wilkesboro high school's Ramblers will play Taylorsville at Taylorsville Friday afternoon. The team showed remarkable power in defeating Mocksville 13 to 0.

You Can Always Save On Your Drug Needs at Horton's Drug Store

THE NEW MILLER I.E.S. SIGHT SAVING LAMPS. THEY WILL HELP YOU SEE BETTER

If you imagine you don't need to—or that your children don't—get this (findings of Science): 20 per cent of children in grade schools—40 per cent of college graduates—75 per cent of all people over 50—have impaired eyesight. Due in large part to inadequate lighting of homes and schools. That shouldn't be—you know it!—because good seeing is a fundamental factor in the acquiring of knowledge, in the doing of good work, in health, in happiness. These new Miller sight-saving lamps will change all that. They give you the amount of light, and the quality of light Science says is necessary for good seeing, and for long, full use of the eyes. Happy the children who play, study, and grow up in homes lighted by the new Miller lamps! One big thing you can do for them and for yourself is to have in your home the wonderful light of these new lamps. NOT ONLY perfect to see by—but delightful to look at. AND—they're especially low priced—and you may buy one or several on very convenient terms. COME AND SEE THEM TODAY! The cross-section sketch shows the inside construction of the lamp. The shade rests on an open top diffusing glass reflector which prevents glare and harsh shadows. In addition, it throws a generous portion of light below in proper balance. The authorized tag illustrated certifies that the floor and study lamps have been tested by the Electrical Testing Laboratories, and have been found to meet all requirements of the Illuminating Engineering Society. 42,000,000 advertisements in leading American magazines this Fall feature this tag. It certifies that the lamp bearing it has passed the test of the Electrical Testing Laboratories, and is approved by the Illuminating Engineering Society.

Our annual Mazda Lamp sale is now in progress. Drop by our store or telephone and have one or more cartons sent out. No down payment—you pay with your electric light bill on December 1st and January 1st.
