WOMAN IS VICTIM OF MYSTERIOUS ASSAULT

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Victim of a mysterious assault, an attractive red-haired woman who registered early today at a loop hotel as Mrs. R. London, of San Diego, Calif., was found in her room several hours later near death from a brutal beating.

County hospital physicians said the woman, about 30, had suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries. They said she probably would die.

Hotel attaches found the woman lying in a gore-spattered bed. A piece of blood-stained gas pipe lay beside her. One of her two purses was in an area below the window of her room. It contained a round trip bus ticket from San Diego to New York, but no money. Twelve dollars in cash was hidden in a cold cream jar among the victim's effects.

Early frost in eastern Carolina has started Martin county farmers to digging the sweet potato crop. The county has 68 modern curing houses, says farm agent T. B. Brandon.

Kansas Wants Landon to Run For President

Republicans of State Offer Him As Their Candidate

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 25.—Kansas Republicans presented Governor Alf M. Landon to the nation tonight as their candidate for the presidential nomination in 1936.

In a surprise move, 1,000 who had gathered to plan a 1,000 "war chest" drive suddenly turned the meeting into an enthusiastic discussion of the Landon movement. It reached a climax in unanimous adoption of a motion to endorse him for the nomination.

Until today Kansas Republicans had followed the governor's course of taking no cognizance, publicly at least, of the talk in his behalf.

"I'm too busy with affairs here to discuss national politics," has been the budget-behavior executive's reply to all who stand for a statement as to what he stands.

Even after today's development Landon bored into a pile of communications on state matters—and said nothing.

Congressman W. P. Lambertson touched off the oratory which resulted in the endorsement.

"The state headquarters has had inquiries from forty-five states," he said, "seeking information about our governor's political and administrative record and asking authority to launch his campaign in those states."

Plans were laid tentatively for an organization to supply such information.

Announcement was made that Ladies Night would be observed on Friday night, November 1, with J. R. Finley in charge of the program. It was also stated that directors of the club will meet Thursday, seven p. m., at Hotel Wilkes with T. E. Story as host.

NEW OLDSMOBILE IS NOW ON DISPLAY HERE

The new 1936 Oldsmobile, just announced to the public, will be offered at new lower prices, according to T. H. Williams, Oldsmobile dealer in North Wilkesboro. The car is now on display at the Williams Motor Co.

Although every proven feature necessary to safety, comfort, performance and economy has been retained and many new ones added in the new 1936 Oldsmobiles, the prices will be lower, the Oldsmobile dealer said.

"In addition to those advantages which have contributed so heavily to Oldsmobile success... such as knee action wheels, super hydraulic brakes, solid steel 'turbo top' body... many new refinements of motor, body and chassis have been built into the new 1936 models," said Mr. Williams.

"Safety glass is now standard equipment throughout, in all body types. Electric hardened aluminum alloy pistons give increased economy of operation and smoother, livelier performance. Scores of other improvements have been built into the new cars.

"And despite the many additional values in these new cars the new low prices will effect reductions of as much as $57.50 in the delivered price of the Oldsmobile Eight and $17.50 in the delivered price of the Oldsmobile Six."

List prices at Lansing were quoted by the Oldsmobile dealer as follows: Oldsmobile Six business coupe $665; sport coupe $730; five passenger coupe $730; five passenger touring coupe $755; convertible coupe $805; four door sedan $795; and four door touring sedan $820.

Oldsmobile Eight business coupe $810; sport coupe $845; five passenger coupe $845; five passenger touring coupe $870; convertible coupe $935; four door sedan $910; and four door touring sedan $935.

New Dealers Find Comfort In Certain Recovery Signs

Washington, Oct. 27.—New deal chieftains are finding more cheer in scanning the figures which are of paramount interest to the capital-treasury receipts and employment totals.

Both have been trending upward in wake of the rise in business barometers, although not fast enough to make any big dents in the federal deficit or estimates of idle workers.

But the trends, projected months ahead, have stimulated the imagination and hopes of some officials who see rising government revenues and falling unemployment as the goals of their efforts to promote economic recovery.

Whether by coincidence or otherwise, they were among the first signs of the times to draw comment from President Roosevelt and Secretary Morgenthau upon their return to the capital last week from vacation trips.

Natural Gain In Workers. The President, in a speech, made special note of bureau of labor statistics estimate of a gain of 350,000 workers in September. Morgenthau soon after his return emphasized in a press conference that treasury receipts were running a little ahead of revised budget estimates, aside from a hole made by the impounding of more than $80,000,000 in processing taxes under injunction suits.

Hopes that these trends may lift revenues and employment next year to levels which would permit reduction and eventual elimination of the federal deficit are based in part upon recognition that they rest partly upon improvement in heavy industry and constructions.

The federal reserve board advanced its September index of industrial production, adjusted for seasonal influences, to 88 per cent of the 1923-1925 average compared with 87 in August and 71 in September, 1934.

Increase Acreage Of Food And Feed Crops

Under the AAA programs, North Carolina farmers are growing this year over 1,000,000 acres more food and feed crops than they did five years ago.

Much of the 870,000 acres taken out of cotton and tobacco cultivation has been put into corn, wheat, oats, hay, sorghums, pasture and other crops for consumption on the farm.

According to the agricultural census taken this year, reported Dean I. O. Schaub of State College, the total land under cultivation has increased from 5,809,754 to 5,965,547 acres since 1930.

The number of farms in the State increased by 21,259, or 7.6 per cent, and the number of acres included on farms increased about 10 per cent. However, the gross value of farm land decreased 26 per cent.

On the farms were found 13,000 full owners, 4,000 part owners, and fewer than 5,000 tenants.

The corn and hay crops were increased by approximately 450,000 acres each, while the wheat crop jumped from 3,500,000 to 5,000,000 acres. Irish potato plantings jumped up 52 per cent, or 32,000 acres, and the sweet potatoes 58 per cent, or 35,000 acres.

With the larger production of corn, hay, oats and pasture crops there was an expansion in the number of cattle by 217,254 head, an increase of 46.5 per cent in five years. Of this number 124,753 were cows and 108,000 were hogs.

FEED CORN TO HOGS FOR BIGGER PROFIT

At current prices, corn fed to hogs will return a bigger income to the farmer through the sale of meat than if the corn were sold directly.

Farmers with a good supply of corn can hardly afford not to raise pigs this year, says W. W. Shay, swine specialist at State College.

Corn fed to hogs will yield, on an average, about $1.30 a bushel, as compared with 75 cents a bushel when sold on the market as corn.

Shay also states that 30-pound pigs sold for $4 each, as is often the case, do not return the farmer any profit, since it costs that much to produce a pig of that weight.

But as the pig gains in weight, the cost of production for each pound steadily diminishes until the hog reaches a weight of around 200 pounds.

Not counting the corn, the cost of producing 100 pounds of meat on a hog is about $3.20. When hogs are valued at $11 per 100 pounds of live meat, there remains $7.80 to cover the cost of the corn.

Six bushels of corn will usually produce 100 pounds of meat, Shay pointed out. Hence the corn may be considered as bringing a return of $1.30 a bushel when converted into pork.

Or if the corn is figured at 75 cents a bushel, there is a net profit of $6.66 on each 200-pound hog sold for $22. A litter of six pigs from a sow should yield a gross return of $264 or a net return of $79.92.

Mussolini Declares War Upon Sanctions

Rome, Oct. 26.—Benito Mussolini lashed out at sanctions in a militant appeal to his fascist followers today and warned that Italy would fight against this "most odious of injustices."

His warlike words were in his annual message to the black-shirts as a salute to the 14th year of fascism, opening Monday on the anniversary of the march on Rome.

"Those who are ready to consummate against us the most odious of injustices will perceive that the Italian people is capable of heroisms like those of the soldiers who avenged Aduwa with glory and carried civilization to the soil of Africa," he said, referring to sanctions.

"This is an epoch in which one must feel the pride of living and of fighting. This is an epoch in which a people measures upon a base of hostile forces its capacity of resistance and victory."
