Mrs. Newton, Miss Call Hostess At Bridge

An outstanding social affair of the week was the lovely bridge party given by Mrs. W. K. Newton and Miss Wilma Rose Call at the home of Miss Call on D Street Thursday evening. Yellow chrysanthemums and potted plants made festive decorations for the rooms where eight tables were arranged for the game with the table appointments carrying out the Thanksgiving idea. The count of tallies showed Mrs. Ernest Blackman winner of the top score award with the traveler's prize going to Miss Ruby

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

CARDUI

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Valentine-Stroud Wedding Announced

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Valentine announce the marriage of their daughter, Dessie Jewell, to Rex Stroud, of Oakwoods, on Tuesday, December 25, 1934, at Hillsville, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Clinton A. Bradston, of the Hillsville Methodist church.

This marriage comes as a complete surprise to the many friends of the young couple in North Wilkesboro and the surrounding communities, where they are both well known.

Mrs. Stroud is the attractive and accomplished young daughter of the well known Sgt. and Mrs. I. E. Valentine, of this city. She is a member of the 1934 graduating class of the North Wilkesboro high school and also a graduate of the Hinshaw School of Beauty Culture. She has, for the past several months, held a position with the Vanity

Beauty Shoppe in Emporia, Va. Mr. Stroud is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroud, of Oakwoods. He attended school at Oakwoods and Wilkesboro and, for the past several years has held a position with the Oak Furniture Company, of this city. The young couple will be at home, after November 25, in the attractive brick veneer bungalow of Virginia Johnson Sprinkle, located on highway No. 18.

Wilkesboro Woman's Club Held Meeting Friday

Education Week was observed at the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Woman's club held Friday afternoon with Henry Reynolds, of Greensboro and North Wilkesboro, as the principal speaker. Mr. Reynolds spoke on Education and the large number of club women present heard him with marked interest. Short talks were made by several of the members of the club. Mrs. Pearl Hartley was program chairman for the afternoon. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. T. M. Foster with Mrs. W. W. Barber and Miss Helen Bostic as associate hostesses and at the close of the afternoon they served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. C. H. Cowles was in the chair for the business session at which time the main item of business was the discussion of building the community house and raising funds.

Wilkesboro Missionary Society Met Thursday

Mrs. G. T. Mitchell and Mrs. J. M. Bumgarner combined hospitality to the members of the Wilkesboro Baptist Missionary Society in their monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Mitchell Thursday afternoon. The theme for program "The Christian Conquest in China" was directed by Mrs. Bob Turner with a number of the members taking part. Mrs. J. F. Jordan led an impressive devotional period.

Presiding for routine business was the president, Mrs. W. J. Johnson and Mrs. George Kennedy gave a fine report of the social service work being done by the society. Plans were made for the "Week of Prayer" to be observed at the church December 5. Practically all the members were present and during the social hour a salad course with cake and coffee was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Hosts At Dinner Party

The personnel of the South East Public Service Co. here and at West Jefferson were delightfully entertained Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy were hosts to the group at a turkey dinner at their home in Wilkesboro. Mr. Kennedy is local manager for the company.

A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. A color note of pink and white was effectively carried out in the decorations and appointments. The general manager, Mr. L. D. Densmore, of Charlottesville, Va., was also present.

Miss Wellborn, Mr. Pearson Given Announcement Party

Miss Manie Brewer, Miss Lunda Hendren and Miss Rosa Billings entertained at a delightful party Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Brown House announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Joyce Wellborn and Harry Pearson.

During the evening the guests were presented with ribbons in pastel shades and were told that there was a surprise at the end of the streamer. A small white envelope was found which contained the announcement giving the date of wedding as of December 29, 1935. Miss Wellborn and Mr. Pearson found at the end of their streamer a card of congratulations and a gift presented by the hostesses.

Following the announcement each guest was asked to write advice to the bride and groom, this being presented to them. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at close of the evening.

Mrs. Lottes, Miss Tedder Sewing Club Hostesses

The Business Girls Sewing club met Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. Eller with Miss Luereda Tedder and Mrs. Mable Lottes as hostesses. Potted plants were attractively arranged in the living room where the guests spent an hour in needlework and conversation.
