Farley Scoffs At Chances Of G. O. P. In 1936

Believes Neither Borah Nor Hoover Will Get Nomination; Democrats Face Battle

Washington, Dec. 30.—Chairman James A. Farley of the Democratic National Committee asserted tonight the Republicans would nominate neither Herbert Hoover nor Senator Borah for President.

In a radio address he called other G. O. P. possibilities mentioned to date "political lightweights" who may as well "shake dice" for the nomination.

Leading a parade of politicians who brought out their New Year horns early, Farley also trumpeted for the first time a reply to opposition charges of "extravagance" against President Roosevelt.

The Democratic leader declared the "ordinary" budget had been cut by "hundreds of millions" and the government was well able to "take care" of the present deficit.

As chief of the new deal political high command, Farley spoke after Senator Lewis of Illinois, former chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, had predicted a controversy in the Democratic national convention over framing a platform, but foresaw Roosevelt's renomination by "acclamation."

Other developments in a day that fairly sizzled with 1936 campaign talk included:

1—A press conference statement by Senator Borah that he had given authority to a Cleveland trio to enter his name in the Ohio presidential primaries May 12.

2—An announcement at Boston by former Governor Joseph B. Ely of Massachusetts that he would support Alfred E. Smith for the Democratic presidential nomination, if Smith should be a candidate.

3—A proposal by George W. Kline of the Nebraska progressive league to draft Senator Norris (R), Nebraska, to head an independent Roosevelt-for-President campaign committee in six Midwestern states. Norris, who has come out for Roosevelt's reelection and who has announced he would not be a candidate himself in the senatorial primaries, would not comment.

4—A statement by John H. Kirby, of Houston, chairman of the Southern committee to uphold the Constitution, that Senator Lewis sees a prospect of "bolting" of "Jeffersons"

"G-man" Awarded

ELLIOT NES (above), 32, is a former "G-man" who "broke" the Al Capone beer racket a few years ago. Today he is the new safety director here, in charge of Cleveland's police and fire departments, the youngest man ever to hold the job.

OLD URGED TO KEEP IN STEP WITH YOUTH

Raleigh, Dec. 30.—The youth of today must "tell the old man to catch step and march with him into a new order and a new day," Ambassador Josephus Daniels said in an address to the Raleigh Rotary Club today.

"It is the duty of young men—and old men to help them—to so chart the new day that we shall hold fast to private initiative and private property without the evils they have brought upon the world," said Mr. Daniels, who is vacationing in Raleigh from Mexico.

crats" in opposition to Roosevelt's re-election.

5—A suggested Senate investigation of the American Liberty League, made by Joseph L. Kaplan, of Boston, general counsel of the National Support Roosevelt League. Kaplan, at Boston, said he and Leo D. Walsh, league president, would arrive here tomorrow and propose such an inquiry to a Senate committee, presumably the lobby committee headed by Senator Black (D), Alabama.

6—Representative Hope (R), Kansas, returned to the capital and reported possibility for the Republican presidential nomination.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because it has helped me." ... If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.
