Senator Borah ls Candidate In Ohio Race

Formally Announces Intern tions to Enter Fight For Delegates

Washington, Peb. 4 .- Senator Borah, of Idaho, formally flung down the gauntlet to the Republican organization late today by announcing he would campaign in Ohio for delegates pledged to his presidential nomination.

"After a thorough survey," be said in a statement, after conferring for hours with Ohio independent leaders, "I am convinced the people of the state should be given an opportunity to express their choice in the primary of May 12.

"Under the so-called 'favoriteson' plan, this privilege is denied them.

"To obtain an expression entative Doughton said he popular will, it is my intention house and home." The house was to place at least eight candidates about d resorts. His committee for delegates-at-large in the church. field."

"I shall make a number issues as I see them."

It was the first formal declaration of candidacy by an outstanding possibility for the Reed his personal hope that publican nomination. It came after some doubts had been express ed that Borah would "follow through." Unless conditions on indicated yesterday that change, it means he will directly glad to learn. It seems probable nulation of any policy on tax- oppose the plans of the regular would await Representative party organization in Ohio.

His disinclination to seek pledged delegation in Massachusetts had become known shortly before, raising questions whether his field was being narrowed rather than expanded. Explaining himself there, he wrote to Robert M. Washburn-president of the (T. R.) Roosevelt club of Boston -"I had not thought at any time that it would be a practical thing
