Of Tilson Byers, 23

A reward of $800 has been offered for the capture and return county resident fishing license, of Spencer Parsons, who is wanted for the murder of Tilson Byers, 28, in Stanton township on December 18, 1935.

Parsons, a young man, is said to have gone to the home of Forest Yates, a neighbor, and there held up a member of the nearby C.C. camp at the point of a gun, which snapped on an empty chamber. Byers approached about that time and Parsons whirled and stabbed alm in the back, according to reports of the affair gathered by officers. Byers died a few days later.

Parsons fled from the community and officers so far have been unable to locate him. Half the reward of $200 is offered by the county and half by the state

Wilkesboro on Priday, April 10, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon. At ten o'clock on the morning of the same day the county and community committees will meet at the courthouse. The county committee, which will serve temporarily until a county organization is perfected, is composed of J. M. German, Coy Durham and H. C. Roberts. Dates of meetings in counties adjoining Wilkes are as follows: Yadkin, April 7; Surry, April 8; Alleghany and Caldwell, April 9; Alexander, April 11; Watauga, April 14.

Many have been inquiring to A. G. Hendren, county farm agent, about the new plan and its provisions and every farmer who is interested in the new plan or who wants to learn more about it is asked to attend the meeting. County Agent Hendren and W. J. Hanna, assistant agent, were in Raleigh last week attending a conference with State College and extension service men who have given the new farm act quite much study.

The biggest payments under the new farm program will be for diverting land from soil-depleting crops into the production of soilconserving or improving crops.

For taking land out of cotton the rate of payment will be around $18 an acre walle the rate will be determined in the near future, and will probably vary with each farm according to its fertility, said Dean I. O. Schaub, of State College.

The maximum diversions on which payments will be made are 35 per cent of the cotton base, Protector 30 per cent of the tobacco base, (Continued on page eight)
