N. W. Garden Club In Monthly Meeting

Mrs. C. G. Poindester, Mrs. S. V. Tomlinson and Mrs. E. E. Eller combined hospitality to the members of the Garden department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club in their monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Poindester on E street. Mrs. Chal McNeil, department chairman, presided for routine business.

For the program Mrs. Frank Johnson gave a splendid and most helpful talk on the cultivation of iris. Tempting refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour by the hostesses. Mrs. J. C. Reins, Mrs. J. R. Hix and Mrs. J. E. Johnson were announced as hostesses for the July meeting.

Why Not Club Members Entertained At Picnic

Instead of their regular social and sewing period the members of the Why Not club enjoyed a delightful outing Thursday evening. Members of the club, with their husbands, motored to Finley Hill for a bounteous picnic supper. Around sixteen were present for the occasion.

Mrs. Hill Carlton Is Bridge Club Hostess

With Mrs. Hill Carlton as hostess, members of the Friday Bridge club were charmingly entertained Friday evening at her home on Sixth street. A variety of summer flowers made gay decorations for the room where two tables were placed for the game. Tempting refreshments followed the game.

Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr. Book Club Hostess

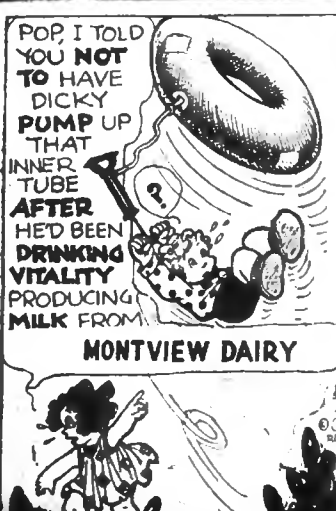

Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., was gracious hostess at her home on Eighth Street Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of her book club and a few other friends. Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, the president, presided while Mrs. Leonard Vyne called.

with current events of unusual interest. Miss Lura Coffey gave a delightful reading on Legends of Flowers and Miss Bert Holman rendered a beautiful vocal solo. The home was artistically decorated in mixed garden flowers and at the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C.

Current Topic Club Enjoyed Theatre Party

Members of the Current Topic club, with a few other guests, were delightfully entertained at a theatre party by Mrs. W. J. Allen Friday afternoon. The group went to the Orpheum theatre to view the picture, "Love On a Bet", afterwards going to the Wilkes Drug Store for an ice cream. Immediately following the picture a short business session was held in the theatre. This is to be the last meeting of the club until the beginning of the new club year in the fall.

Miss Virginia Tomlinson Is Bridge Club Hostess

Miss Virginia Tomlinson entertained at a delightful bridge party at her home on C Street Thursday evening having as guests members of her own bridge club and several additional friends. Three tables were made up for the game in a bright setting of cut flowers.

The count of scores showed Mrs. Frank Allen to be winner of high score within the club and among the visitors Miss Lillian Stafford was the winner. Miss Myrtle Norris assisted Miss Tomlinson in serving tempting refreshments at the conclusion of play. Visitors of the club were Misses Margaret Hubbard, Iris Council, Gertrude Gilliam, Lillian Stafford and Mrs. E. A. Shook.

Mrs. Shook, Miss Irvin Hostess At Bridge

An enjoyable social affair of the week was the lovely breakfast bridge given by Mrs. E. A. Shook and Miss Christine Irvin at the home of Mrs. Shook on F Street Tuesday morning entertaining for a number of their friends. Mrs. Shook and Miss Irvin received their guests at 9:30 and after the breakfast bridge was played at three tables for a couple of hours. Cut flowers were used in profusion about the rooms.

After a series of interesting progressions Mrs. James O'Daniel was awarded the top score prize and Miss Patty Somers the honor prize. Out of town guests included Mrs. O'Daniel and Mrs. Carlisle Ingle, both of Lenoir, and Mrs. Clara Younts, of High Point, who was a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Pope.

Mrs. E. A. Shook Gave Pretty Bridge Party

Mrs. E. A. Shook was hostess at a pretty bridge party at her home on F Street Tuesday afternoon when she entertained at three tables of bridge. Mixed cut flowers made a colorful background for the players. Mrs. Frank Eller proved to be the most successful at cards receiving an attractive award. A salad and sweet courses was served at the close of the game.

Miss Mickie Bryant Is Hostess To Jug Club

Miss Mickie Bryant entertained at a going away party Wednesday evening for Miss Rose Wade Scroggs, having as guests members of the Jug club of which Miss Bryant and Miss Scroggs are members. Miss Scroggs left Thursday to spend the summer at Banner Elk.

Twelve guests were present for the affair and for amusement engaged in a series of interesting games, after which dainty refreshments were served. Miss Scroggs received a lovely remembrance from the club.

Wilkesboro H. S. Class Held Reunion Friday

The reunion of the class of 1935 of the Wilkesboro high school proved to be a most delightful occasion for the large number of members attending when Miss Helen Bumgarner and Miss Kate Ogilvie were hostess to the members at Miss Bumgarner's home in Wilkesboro Friday evening.

The affair took the form of a lawn party and a number of tables were placed on the lawn attractively decorated in the class colors, green and yellow, the accepted motif being carried out in other appointments throughout the evening.

A number of games and contests were engaged in and in the autograph contest Miss Pauline Kinlaw was awarded a prize as the winner. Others winning prizes in relay games were George Wall, Annie Lou Ferguson and Paul Ferguson.

At 10:30 a tempting salad course was served by the two hostesses with the assistance of Mrs. J. M. Bumgarner, mother of Miss Bumgarner. After refreshments the guests engaged in a period of progressive conversation.

Guests present besides the class members were Miss Lillian Stafford, home room teacher of the class, and Mrs. J. M. Brown. The thirty members present out of an enrollment of forty-two decided to make the reunion an annual affair.

Pool-Miller

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized Saturday afternoon, June 13, when Miss Sarah Elizabeth Pool became the bride of Warner Miller.

The marriage took place at Hiddendale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bunton. Mrs. Bunton being a sister of the bride, with Rev. A. E. Watts officiating. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride was becomingly attired in a blue lace dress with white accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of fern, lilies and sweet peas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pool of Alexander county and has made a host of friends in North Wilkesboro where she completed the high school course with the class of 1936.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller, of Call postoffice and holds a position with the Wilkes Hosiery Mills Company.

After a bountiful dinner served to the wedding party by Mrs. Bunton, Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Kilby, Mrs. Pope Entertain At Bridge

Mrs. Rex Kilby and Mrs. Fred S. Pope were charming hostesses at bridge at the home of Mrs. Kilby in Wilkesboro Wednesday evening.

The entire home was lovely with larkspur, sweetpeas and other flowers. Bridge was played at 5 tables with Mrs. Watson Brame winning two dainty linen handkerchiefs as high score prize and Mrs. Frank Blair, Jr., a corsage as second high winner.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. P. A. Transon, of Winston-Salem, sister of Mrs. Pope, served delicious refreshments to the following: Mesdames Bill Absher, Frank Blair, Jr., Claude Dougherty, Julie Deans, Herbert Forester, Clara Younts, W. K. Sturdivant, Gordon Forester, Richard Bason, F. D. Forester, Frank Eller, Watson Brame, James Hauser, J. D. Moore, Jr., Edith Brown, Henry Moore, Misses Ruth Brame, Lois Scroggs, Thelma Laws, and Rose Laws.

MERCHANTS RENAME DOWELL SECRETARY

Raleigh, June 18.—The board of directors of the North Carolina Merchants association today re-elected Willard Dowell of Raleigh as executive secretary and informally discussed the sales tax and political questions now current.

Dowell said after the meeting many subjects came up for informal discussion including "political matters, the recent primary, House and Senate nominees, the Democratic platform, sales taxes and other taxes, the Supreme Court decision on the "use tax" on out-of-State automobile purchases, social security legislation" and the like.

The secretary said no action was taken toward indorsement of either Dr. Ralph W. McDonald or Clyde R. Hoey for the gubernatorial nomination.

The State convention indorsed candidates opposed to the sales tax, Dowell pointed out. McDonald has been favoring complete elimination of the levy with Hoey promising modifications in it.

R. B. Tomlinson was re-elected field representative of the association with Miss Lyda Baucum continuing as office secretary and I. M. Baffey of Raleigh as attorney.

Nancy Hart's HOME NEWS

"It is easy for a woman to develop her chest and fill out hollows in her neck," says a prominent health specialist who has taught hundreds of women to gain as well as to reduce. According to him, a few simple exercises, practiced regularly, will do the work.

Here is one example that is particularly recommended: Stand erect with feet together. Clench your fists, making the muscles in your arms quite tense and stretch them at shoulder level out in front of you. Now, keeping the muscles in hands and arms still and uncomfortable slowly force your hands up over your head and down toward the back as far as they will go. Then try to force them down and back a few more inches.

Feel the muscles in your neck and shoulders stretch and pull. Keep head up and chest expanded. Inhale as you force your arms from front to back. Exhale as you bring them forward again. Repeat twenty times.

The breast stroke you used when you learned to swim is excellent for a flat chest and hollows in the neck. Hold arms at shoulder level in front of you—palms facing each other. Then slowly bring them backward as far as you can. Keep on forcing them back until your shoulders actually hurt a little.

A movie actress noted for her lovely hands, reveals how she keeps them smooth as satin and white as snow. She says she never fails to rinse them in very cold water after each washing and that, after careful drying during which she pushes back the cuticle around her nails, she always applies hand lotion. "In addition," she added, "once a week I go to bed wearing rubber gloves into which I have put damp bran or moist corn meal. Either of these tends to remove cigarette and other stains from my fingers."

To help mold the chin into a slimmer line, here's a good night routine: After washing your face and neck with warm soapsuds, rinse in warm water and dry your skin. Apply cold cream, and then pick up the soft flesh under your chin, kneading and rolling it firmly between your forefinger and thumb. This will help to chase away the fat cells. Remove the cold cream, splash on cold water and dry your skin. Then apply your favorite astringent lotion or skin freshening tonic to your neck and chin. In the morning bathe your face and neck again with cold water.

An exhibition of recently discovered letters from Elizabeth Barrett Browning to her poet husband have attracted considerable attention. These letters were written on thin note paper like the familiar "onion-skin" which was in vogue in the 40's. This same type of crisp, sheer notepaper is sold at many of the stores now for personal letters and especially for air-mail purposes. And the envelopes are lined in the foreign manner in dark blue or gray tissue.

If you like something with a little more body than taffeta to trim your coat, grosgrain is a good choice. It's especially good for stand-up collars and to border the pockets and front of a coat. One of the shops has such a coat in black, which is swagger cut, with patch pockets, and it's the new seven-eighths length.

Household hint: A few tiny pieces of ginger, grapefruit or orange peel or candied fruit will give an added flavor to fruit salad or fruit cup.

EXPLAINS WHY STILLS HARDER TO FIND NOW

Columbia, S. C., June 18.—It's harder to find illicit liquor stills at this season, Chief J. Henry Jeanes of the State constabulary says. His reasons:

Corn whiskey drinking decreases in the summer due to the heat. Underbrush is thicker, shielding stills more completely. Mosquitoes drive distillers from work, officers from lying in wait.

Lenke Is Head of Third Party Move

Washington, June 19.—The banners of a new political party—the "Union" party of the United States—were hoisted tonight by Representative William Lenke, of North Dakota, who announced himself its presidential candidate.

Standing on a 15-point platform, labeled as intended to "save democracy and put a permanent end to the so-called depression, the North Dakota farmer who was elected to Congress as a Republican announced his drive against "the reactionary elements of both of the old parties."

"The issue is slavery—economic slavery," Lenke said. Thomas Charles O'Brien of Boston was designated as his running mate.

Immediate speculation was stirred as to the support that would be gathered behind the new "Union party."

Father Charles E. Coughlin, of Detroit, declined to comment. In Chicago, Dr. Francis E. Townsend said the Townsend convention in July at Cleveland would consider and decide whether his old-age pension movement would support Lenke. It was immediately recalled, however, that Father Coughlin was an ardent supporter of the $3,600,000 new money bill to finance farm mortgages, of which the short-statured, sandy haired Lenke was co-author. Significance also was attached to the fact that the Detroit priest had set today as a deadline for a new presidential candidate, unnamed, to enter the field.

Dorus Ballard of the Balls Creek 4-T club, Catawba county, won first prize for writing the best story on the Jersey Cow in a contest arranged by the Jersey breeders association of the county.

To My Friends In Wilkes County:

I wish to take this means of thanking my loyal friends who gave me their support and vote in the primary held June 6th for Sheriff of Wilkes County on the Republican ticket. I wish it were possible for me to take every friend who voted for me by the hand so that I might personally show my appreciation.

In giving me such a splendid vote, you have again demonstrated your confidence in me, a confidence that I shall strive to protect in the future, as in the past, doing the best I can to serve all the people of Wilkes County to the very best of my ability.

I wish further to state that now we must look forward, as a united Republican party, to the election in November with the one aim in mind of rolling up an old-time Republican majority in Wilkes County. If you voted for my opponent in the primary, I want to say that was your privilege, and I hold no ill will toward you, and will appreciate your support in the coming election.

It is needless to say that I will be in the ranks, as usual, fighting for the Republican cause and a big Republican victory in the November election.
