EXPLAINS REASON FOR WORLD'S CONFUSION

Ridgecrest, Aug. 18. — Dr. James H. Franklin, of Chester, Pa., asserted tonight the world "today is in confusion because of the sins of racial hatred, economic greed and international hostility."

The speaker, president of Crozer Theological seminary at Chester, made the statement in an address to delegates to the southern Baptist Bible and Christian life conference here.

"We do well to ask what is required of us as ambassadors of Christ in dealing with such menacing form of unrighteousness," he said.

It is a foregone conclusion that our prices average lower. Why not? 99 per cent of our goods come direct from the mills and factories. You pay no extra handling charges.—The Goodwill Store.
