

THE JOURNAL-PATRIOT

For annual subscription...
New York, N. Y., Oct. 13.—A 21-year-old domestic who killed Herbert Winter to prevent him from telling her newest "boy friend" of their illicit love affair, pleaded guilty today to first-degree murder. The penalty is life imprisonment.

Late News of State-Nation Told Briefly

Speeds Guilty Murder

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 13.—A 21-year-old domestic who killed Herbert Winter to prevent him from telling her newest "boy friend" of their illicit love affair, pleaded guilty today to first-degree murder. The penalty is life imprisonment.

Hoey Rape Landon

Louisburg, Oct. 13.—Clyde R. Hoey, Democratic nominee for governor, asserted here tonight any one of the last nine chief executives of North Carolina would have been "ashamed of a name like that of Governor Landon of Kansas."

Potential to Serve

Raleigh, Oct. 13.—H. B. Caldwell, of Greensboro, organization secretary of the state committee for tax reform amendments, announced here today W. L. Poteat, president emeritus of Wake Forest College, would serve as a member of the committee.

Union Party Re-enters

New York, Oct. 13.—The Union Party of William Lemke which a few days ago withdrew all its candidates on the state ticket, late today announced its re-entry with a list of nominees. The nominees announced included: for governor, Joseph F. Connel, of New York city.

Killed in Auto Wreck

Louisville, Ga., Oct. 13.—Rufus Davis, 21-year-old student at Georgia Military Academy, was found dead, and his 19-year-old brother, Melvin, seriously injured on a highway near here today. Close by was the wreckage of their motorcycle on which they were returning to the military school at Milledgeville from their home in Charlotte, N. C.

Will Refund Taxes

Minneapolis, Oct. 13.—In the first voluntary action of the kind since invalidation of the AAA by the U. S. Supreme Court, General Mills, Inc., tonight announced it will immediately offer to make repayments to direct customers of processing taxes collected on flour and other products.

Sponsors Dad Before Court

Washington, Oct. 13.—A youthful, boyish-faced lawyer rose in the Supreme Court today to sponsor the admission of Anthony B. Gunderson, 60, of Vermont, S. D., to practice before the highest court. "I can vouch for this man because he is my father," said the young lawyer, Harvey J. Gunderson.

Laying Crop Insurance Plans

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—Roy F. Green, chief of the finance division of the Department of Agriculture, said today there was a possibility the 2,400 mutual insurance companies in the United States might be the nucleus for forming a Federal crop insurance plan.

Insurance Policies Gain

New York, Oct. 13.—New life insurance production in September was 10.8 per cent more than in September of last year, while the total for the first nine months was 2.2 per cent less than in the same 1935 period, the Association of Life Insurance Presidents reported today.

Fly Before Driving

Rocky Mount.—Found a man who learned to fly an airplane six years before he could drive an automobile. Judge Ben Thomas, Rocky Mount recorder's court, handle the controls of an airplane. He learned while in the military during the World War period and thereafter. "It was a long time," Judge Thomas said, "when I learned to fly. In 1926, I first learned to drive a car."

Roosevelt in Kansas

Kansas City, Oct. 13.—President Roosevelt cut across the State of Governor Landon and into Missouri tonight with declarations that he did not believe that Kansas could have "pulled through" the last four years without Federal co-operation and assistance and that the school "is the last expenditure upon which America should be willing to economize."

Upholds License Law

Asheville, Oct. 13.—Judge F. Donald Phillips in Buncombe county Superior court here today sustained the revocation of George H. Knight's driver's license, and granted the state department of revenue a motion to dismiss the petition of the Asheville man. Knight was arrested here July 6, 1935, after his truck had collided with another vehicle. At a hearing in city police court on July 8, 1935, judgment was withheld at the time.

Jurors Drawn For November Session Of Federal Court

Will Convene in Wilkesboro on November 16; Hayes Will Preside

MANY LIQUOR CASES

Names of Four Colored Men Appear On List of Jurors For the Term

Fall term of federal court for trial of cases originating in Wilkes, Ashe, Watauga and Alleghany counties will convene in Wilkesboro on Monday, November 16, with Judge Johnson J. Hayes presiding.

There is the usual heavy docket of criminal cases involving violations of the federal alcohol tax laws with few cases charging violation of the auto theft act and narcotic laws. Three defendants are charged with robbing postoffices.

The names of four colored men, one from each county in the Wilkesboro circuit, appear on the list of jurors.

(Continued on page eight)

May Register on Saturday, Oct. 17, Saturday, Oct. 24

Registrars Will Be at Polling Places Two More Saturdays Before Election

Saturday of this week and Saturday, October 24, are the only two remaining dates on which voters may register to vote in the election to be held on November 3.

Attention to the remaining registration days was called by J. Milton Cooper, chairman of the county board of elections. Registrars will be at the polling places in the various sections of the county named above and those who expect to vote are urged by leaders in their respective parties to be registered as early as possible in order that no one may be disappointed.

Saturday, October 24, will be the last registration day and the Saturday immediately prior to the date of the election will be challenge day.

The registrars who served in the June and July primaries will also serve for the general election with the exception of two or three who resigned and who have been replaced by the county board of elections.

Other election officials will be appointed within the next few days.

Particular attention is called this year to the fact that under a law passed in the 1935 general assembly there will be no absentee voting for the candidates for county offices in Wilkes except state and federal employees not in the county on election date. However, absentees may be voted on the state and national tickets.

Wilkes Members GOP With Knox

Accompany Vice Presidential Nominee on Trip in State Tuesday

Four leaders in the Republican party in Wilkes county were specially invited guests on the special train Tuesday which carried Col. Frank Knox, vice presidential nominee, on his speaking tour from Chapel Hill to Asheville.

Those from Wilkes on the train for the entire trip were Mrs. John R. Jones, national committeewoman, and Kyle Hayes, candidate for congress. Others who made part of the trip were J. M. Brown, chairman of the county Republican executive committee, Solicitor John R. Jones and J. T. Prevette.

All were very favorably impressed with Col. Knox and his platform and main addresses delivered during the day.

Many other Wilkes Republicans including the county officers and party leaders in several townships, greeted Col. Knox in the crowds which heard him speak from the Train in Statesville and Hickory and were in the parade from Marion to Asheville, where he delivered a major address Tuesday night.

The early settlers no doubt had their troubles, but they didn't have to mow their grass with a dull lawn mower.

Both Parties Push Campaign For Election to Be Held November 3

Democrats Will Wage Campaign In the County

Itinerary of Meetings and Speaking Engagements Will Be Announced

STRESS VOTE CANVASS

Plan of State Organization Being Followed; Campaign Under Way

The Democratic campaign in Wilkes county is actively under way and a special drive for votes will continue until the election on November 3. J. R. Rousseau, chairman of the county executive committee, said today.

The county campaign will be in line with that of the state chairman, J. Wallace Winborne, who is emphasizing a personal canvass of the voters in the interest of national, state and county Democratic candidates in the election.

Mr. Rousseau said an itinerary of meetings, dates and speaking engagements for the various townships will be announced in a few days, meanwhile campaign plans are being carried forward by the county Democratic organization.

District P.-T. A. Meets Here Today

North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro Join as Host to District Meeting

Northwestern district of the Parent-Teacher association in North Carolina is meeting today in annual session at the North Wilkesboro high school with North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro associations joining as hosts.

Northwestern district of the Parent-Teacher association in North Carolina is meeting today in annual session at the North Wilkesboro high school with North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro associations joining as hosts.

The theme of the conference is "Home and School Cooperation" and a number of P.-T. A. leaders, including Mrs. D. S. Coltrane, district president, and Mrs. Charles E. Roe, of Denver, Colorado, national field secretary, are on the program.

Elaborate preparations have been made to entertain the 500 visitors from several mountain and piedmont counties here today.

Lions Drop Game To Elkin Eleven

Opposing a heavier and more seasoned team the North Wilkesboro Mountain Lions dropped the second football game of the season Monday afternoon to Elkin high by a score of 26 to 0.

The game was originally scheduled to be played Saturday but was postponed until Monday because of wet grounds. The game was on Elkin's field.

The Lions were apparently off form as the Elkin team repeatedly ran rough shod through the defense to score four touchdowns.

This week is an open date for the Lions, who are being put through a number of drills by Coach Barker and assistants in preparation for the game next week and on future dates.

Some people are always demanding new laws, and at the same time the old ones are not used very much.

Wins U. S. Golf Title

New York... This British girl, Pam Barton, 17, of London, has lifted the U. S. women's golf cup and becomes the woman golf ace of the world. She now holds both the British and American titles.

Attorney Cooper Named Chairman Election Board

Succeeds Chief James M. Anderson, Resigned, as Head County Board

James M. Anderson, North Wilkesboro police chief, has resigned as chairman of the Wilkes county board of elections and J. Milton Cooper, prominent young attorney here, has been named as his successor.

Mr. Anderson submitted his resignation to the state board effective yesterday and Attorney Cooper was named as a member to fill the vacancy.

Yesterday the board as now constituted met and reorganized, electing Attorney Cooper chairman and re-electing J. C. Grayson, the Republican member, secretary. J. C. Newman, of Benham, is the third member of the board.

In addition to reorganization, the board transacted a number of business matters pertaining to arrangements for the election on November 3.

Mrs. A. S. Cooper Dies in Wilkesboro

Mrs. Annie Call Cooper, age 73, a member of one of Wilkes county's most widely prominent families, died last night in Wilkesboro at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. S. Call. She had been ill for the past two weeks.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Call, of Wilkesboro. She was first married to Newton Prevette and after his death married A. S. Cooper, of Brownwood. Following his death she made her home with a son, Albert Cooper, at Brownwood.

There are three surviving children, Albert Cooper, Brownwood; C. S. Prevette, Blowing Rock; and Mrs. A. L. Combs, Burlington. She was preceded in death by three brothers and two sisters: Clarence Call, B. S. Call, and I. S. Call, of Wilkesboro. Mrs. I. T. Prevette, of North Wilkesboro, and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Oklaboma.

Funeral arrangements had not been made early today pending arrival of relatives.

Grisson, Dixon, Patton and Others To Visit Wilkes

Republican Campaign to Be Featured By Rally On October 24

DIXON TO SPEAK OCT. 28

County Candidates and Other Party Leaders Have Speaking Dates

Although the Republican party has been quite active in waging its campaign during the past two weeks, the drive for votes on November 3 will be climaxed by a big rally and speaking to be held at the courthouse in Wilkesboro on Saturday, October 24, and an address there on the night of Wednesday, October 28, by Thomas Dixon, famous author and lecturer who is campaigning in the interest of Governor Landon's candidacy for the presidency.

William Grisson, candidate for governor, Frank Patton, candidate for United States senate, Kyle Hayes, candidate for representative, and W. C. Meekins, chairman of the state Republican executive committee, will be on the program for the meeting on October 24 and Republican leaders in the county are expecting one of the largest crowds ever to attend a political meeting in the county.

The speaking on October 24 will begin at 7:30 p. m. Arrangements for the big rally on that date, however, does not eclipse the interest which has been shown by the announcement that Dixon, who wrote "The Clansman" and "The Leopard's Spots," will deliver his lecture, "America at the Crossroads," in Wilkesboro. This speaking engagement is expected to draw a large crowd from all parts of Wilkes and from adjoining counties.

On the same program will be Robert H. McNeill, a native son of Wilkes who is now an outstanding attorney in Washington, D. C. His address in Wilkesboro will be one of three major campaign speeches he is to make for the Republican cause in the state this year.

Meanwhile the county campaign is progressing with speaking engagements in every township by county candidates and other party leaders.

Following are speaking appointments in the county for the next several days:

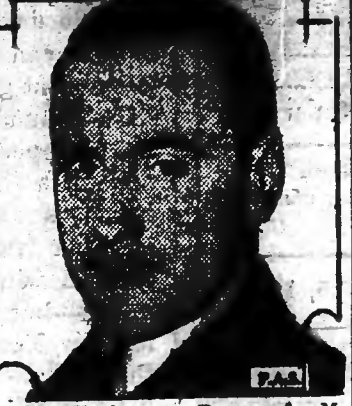

P. E. Brown and R. Don Laws will address the people at McGrady schoolhouse on Friday night, October 16th, at 7:00 p. m. (Mulberry township).

Solicitor John R. Jones, Mrs. John R. Jones, national committeewoman, and Kyle Hayes, candidate for congress, will address the people at Pleasant Hill schoolhouse Friday night, October 16, at 7:00 p. m. (Edwards township).

Solicitor John R. Jones and Mrs. John R. Jones will address the people at Friendship schoolhouse (Union township) Saturday at 4:00 p. m. and at Shepherd's Schoolhouse at 7:00 p. m. Saturday.

Columbus county growers report an excellent crop of sweet potatoes this fall. The season has been unusually favorable for the sweets, they say.

Learn He's an Earl

New York... Raymond M. O'Brien, 31 (above), of New York, has been acknowledged by the British Crown as the rightful Earl of Thomond and will attend the coronation of King Edward in May. O'Brien did not learn until 1932 that the late J. D. O'Brien of Pittsburgh, was his stepfather.

N.Y.A. is Aiding Over Hundred Pupils in County

Part Time Work is Given Needy Students to Defray School Expenses

The National Youth administration is aiding more than 100 students of high and elementary schools in Wilkes county, it was learned today from a report of NYA activities in the office of C. B. Eller, county superintendent of schools.

The students were selected on a basis of need from the many applications at the beginning of the term. Through the NYA the students receive part time employment on work projects, thus receiving funds which will enable them to properly continue their education.

As a general rule the students are given work on beneficial projects in connection with the schools in which they are enrolled. Each one is allowed a maximum number of hours per month and are paid on a wage scale according to the type of work carried out. Applications were approved for as many students as the county allotment would permit.

The work is under the supervision of Miss Ila Holman, director of the women's division of the Works Progress administration at the branch district office here.

Survey of Blind Begins in Wilkes, WPA is Sponsor

Survey is Under Direction of State Commission For the Blind

FIELD WORKERS NAMED

Miss Janie McDiarmid Assigned to Wilkes; Complete Next Month

The State W. P. A. has put into operation in the various districts of the state, a Survey for the blind for North Carolina, sponsored by the State Commission for the Blind.

Federal funds in the sum of $14,484.00 have been allotted for the work in the state. Dr. Roma S. Cheek, Executive Secretary of the Commission, is supervising the project and Mr. William C. Smithson is directing the field supervision and tabulation.

The study itself will assemble in unit form all records which are filed with the public and private agents within the county of persons with defective sight. From these records future follow up work may be continued by rehabilitation workers for the Commission of the Blind.

The project has gotten underway in District Six in the past two weeks, and is making rapid progress. Mr. T. P. Apperson, Jr., of 834 Jersey Avenue, Winston-Salem, is directing the work in District Six. This project falls under the supervision of the Women's and Professional Projects.

There are thirteen (13) field workers, one in each county, in this district who are endeavoring to do a thorough piece of work for the WPA and for the state.

Miss Janie McDiarmid is field worker for Wilkes county and the work has been under way for two weeks. The survey will be completed within the next month.

The work is under the supervision of Miss Ila Holman, director of the women's division of the Works Progress administration at the branch district office here.

Legion Officers Installed Here

Wilkes Post Very Active With Increasing Membership; Plan Meeting

At a recent meeting of Wilkes post No. 125 of the American Legion officers for the coming year were installed as follows: Frank E. Johnson, commander; John W. Hall, adjutant; Charles Porter, sergeant at arms; A. F. Kilby, service officer; W. G. Gabriel, chaplain.

Plans were discussed for a joint meeting with the Auxiliary to be held in November, at which time there will be an oyster supper. All ex-service men, regardless of whether or not they are members of the Legion, will have a public invitation to attend this joint meeting.

The post here is very active with the membership steadily on the increase. Being more fully aware of the helpfulness of this organization and the many services it has rendered veterans, and its broad principles of Americanism, leaders in the Legion are asking that every veteran join and take a part in the organization's activities.

Fire Department To Be Organized

For Town of Wilkesboro; Meeting Called For Friday Night, Oct. 16

The citizens of the town of Wilkesboro are requested to meet in the Mayor's office, Friday night, Oct. 16th, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a fire department, and discussing plans to raise money to purchase a fire truck. Due to the rain and inclement weather the meeting called for last Tuesday night was postponed.

The members of the board of commissioners as well as the representatives of the companies writing fire insurance in the town will be present. This meeting will be to the interest of every citizen and property owner in the town and all are requested to be there.

Plans for raising the necessary money to purchase the fire truck are already underway, these include liberal donations by subscription and a street dance is planned for Friday night, Oct. 23rd, at which time it is hoped considerable funds can be raised.

WILKES FARMERS, ORCHARDISTS AND POULTRYMEN TAKE FIRST PRIZES AND SWEEPSTAKES AT N. C. STATE FAIR

Wilkes county farmers, orchardists and poultrymen took top honors on exhibits at the North Carolina state fair this week, assuming the leadership in three major branches of agriculture in the state.

D. S. Broyhill won fifteen first prizes, sweepstakes and three seconds on apples and H. M. Broyhill took first honors in one class and ten seconds in others.

In the 4-H corn club Wilkes won both first prizes on 100-ear displays of white one-ear and prolific, although Yadkin county made an excellent showing by winning both seconds on white displays and both firsts on yellow. Wilkes boys won fourth on yellow.

Sweepstakes was awarded to a ten-ear exhibit by Don Nichols, Jr., of Purlear and first prize on prolific to Leon West, exhibiting Wilkes County White and Nichols' Prolific.

Sherill Gregory, of Hays, took wheat honors by winning first on Fulcaster and Leap's Prolific wheats.

Wilkes poultrymen made almost a clean sweep of chicken prizes in all the major classes. Exhibitors included C. C. Gambill, James Ponnell and John W. Nichols. A detailed report of the winnings were not available today.

Detailed list of prizes won by

C. C. Gambill on utility barred rocks at the state fair was learned early today. He won first and second on cockerel, first on hen, first and third on old pen, first and third on cockerel, second on pullet, first and third on young pen.

The apple prizes won by D. S. Broyhill included firsts on commercial display, best five trays, best tray Bonums, best tray Delicious, best tray Golden Delicious, best tray any other variety, plate Delicious, plate Bonums, plate Golden Delicious, plate Grimes, plate Staymens, plate Wilkesap, plate any other variety.

Total amount of prizes won by D. S. Broyhill was $127.50 while H. M. Broyhill's winnings were $53.50.

Win At Chicago

At the International Horticultural exposition held recently in Chicago D. S. Broyhill won a prize of $11.00 on 49 apples, special diamond shaped compartment and five plates.

Staymens, second tray Winesaps. H. M. Broyhill won first on tray Staymens, second on commercial display, five trays, tray Bonums, tray any other variety, plate Delicious, plate Bonums, plate Grimes, plate Staymens, plate Wilkesap, plate any other variety.

Plans for raising the necessary money to purchase the fire truck are already underway, these include liberal donations by subscription and a street dance is planned for Friday night, Oct. 23rd, at which time it is hoped considerable funds can be raised.

Staymens, second tray Winesaps. H. M. Broyhill won first on tray Staymens, second on commercial display, five trays, tray Bonums, tray any other variety, plate Delicious, plate Bonums, plate Grimes, plate Staymens, plate Wilkesap, plate any other variety.

Plans for raising the necessary money to purchase the fire truck are already underway, these include liberal donations by subscription and a street dance is planned for Friday night, Oct. 23rd, at which time it is hoped considerable funds can be raised.

Association Meeting Held

Primitive Baptists Closed Splendid Session Sunday at Cross Roads

Annual session of the Roaring River Primitive Baptist association closed Sunday at Cross Roads church.

A splendid session was reported, there being 14 ministers present and an unusually large crowd from the Cross Roads community and from many other churches in the association.

Elder J. M. Cronse, of Austin, was elected moderator and J. A. Miller, of Laurel Springs, clerk.

DR. ROBERT S. MOORE ON KIWANIS PROGRAM

Dr. Robert S. Moore, of Providence, R. I., who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Robert Moore, will have the Kiwanis program Friday noon for C. B. Eller, program chairman for the day. An inspiring program is anticipated.