U. D. C. Met With Mrs. C. E. Jenkins

Mrs. C. E. Jenkins was hostess at her home on Memorial Avenue Monday afternoon to the Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter of the U. D. C. in its monthly meeting, having a large number of the members present.

The installation of officers by the retiring president, Mrs. Floyd Jennings, featured the meeting. Following is a list of those to serve with the new president, Mrs. J. E. Johnson. First vice president, Mrs. Minnie Hunt; second vice president, Miss Nell Edgemoor; recording secretary, Mrs. B. R. Underwood; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. C. Grier; treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins; historian, Mrs. J. G. Hackett; and chaplain, Mrs. E. F. Stafford.

Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., was in charge of the program which emphasized the autumn season.

A number of poems were read by different ladies and Mrs. Jennings gave a piano solo. "Married 67 Years" was an interesting article given by Miss Beulah Ferguson. The article related to Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McCotter, of Alliance.

Mrs. J. G. Hackett gave a fine report of the dedication of the House of Memory which she attended at Raleigh October 15. It is interesting to note that Mrs. Alfred Williams, of Raleigh, who was chairman of the committee of the House of Memory, is a sister to Mrs. Hackett.

During the business session a program committee composed of Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., Mrs. J. R. Hix and Mrs. P. M. Williams was named. It was decided to send a check to the Old Ladies Home at Fayetteville for Thanksgiving instead of the jams and jellies as heretofore.

A social hour and tempting refreshments were enjoyed at the close.

First Baptist W. M. U. In Monthly Meeting

With twenty-seven members present the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held a most interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chal McNeil on E Street. The president, Mrs. R. P. Casey presided for the usual business session.

"Our Christmas Offering in Kingdom Building" was the theme presented for study under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, who also led the devotionals. Those helping Mrs. Spainhour with the program were Mesdames E. M. Blackburn, Dewey Minton, N. H. Waugh, and A. F. Kibby. Special music for the afternoon was rendered by Mrs. Eugene Olive, Mrs. Tal Barnes, and Mrs. Tip McNeil, singing "Tell Me The Old, Old Story."

Mrs. William Barber Hostess To Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Episcopal Auxiliary, which was held at the home of Mrs. William Barber Tuesday afternoon, was largely attended. Mrs. C. E. Cowles, the president, occupied the chair for the usual routine of business. Rev. and Mrs. B. M. Lackey, of Lenoir, were visitors at the meeting and during the afternoon Rev. Lackey led a most impressive devotional period. Another visitor was Mrs. Allen Brown, a newcomer to the city.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

Presbyterian Circles In Splendid Meetings

Four circles of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met Tuesday in their monthly meetings with a splendid attendance of the members. Circles 1 and 3 met at night and the other two in the afternoon.

Miss Lucy Shook was hostess to Circle No. 1 with an attendance of ten. Mrs. W. J. Bason presided and the Bible Study was taught by Mrs. T. B. Finley.

Mrs. E. G. Finley, president of the Auxiliary, entertained Circle No. 3, having an attendance of seven. The chairman, Mrs. J. F. McCoy, was in charge with the Bible Lesson being given by Miss Margaret Hansel, a member of the circle.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

the Wilkesboro school faculty. Circle No. 4 was entertained by Mrs. T. B. Finley, who also taught the Bible lesson. Mrs. Archie Ogilvie had charge of the business session. Ten were present.

Hostess for Circle No. 5 was Mrs. P. M. Williams with Mrs. F. C. Forester presiding. Mrs. J. R. Finley gave the Bible Study. The meeting was attended by ten members. Refreshments were served during the social hours that followed each of the meetings.

Williams-Sturdivant Vows Are Announced

Elkin, Oct. 31.—Announcement has been made of the marriage Saturday in Independence, Va., of Miss Eloise Williams, of Wilkesboro, to Ernest Sturdivant, of the Swan Creek community, near Elkin. Rev. Mr. Funk, of the Virginia city, officiated at the nuptial ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams; the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sturdivant, of Swan Creek. He holds a position in Winston-Salem and in that city Mr. and Mrs. Sturdivant will reside.

N. W. Methodist Auxiliary Observed "Week of Prayer"

With Mrs. J. C. Reins in charge the November meeting of the North Wilkesboro Methodist Auxiliary was held at the church Tuesday afternoon in connection with the observance of "The Week of Prayer." After singing of a hymn Mrs. W. P. Horton gave the devotionals. Mrs. R. B. Templeton led the prayer.

"The Week of Prayer" was observed both Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons with the program for Tuesday being given by Miss Mamie Sockwell, who told about Hiroshima College in Japan and Japanese Womanhood. The study for Wednesday on Home Missions was given by Mrs. Jack Brame and Miss Ruth Colvard.

The attendance award for the afternoon went to the Franklin Circle.

Baldwin-Ward

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the marriage on last Thursday of Mr. William Ward, of Hays, to Miss Annie Sue Baldwin, of Roaring River. The bride was lovely in blue crepe with matching accessories. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Baldwin, of Roaring River, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ward, of North Wilkesboro route 2. They will make their home at Hays where the groom holds a position. Their friends wish them a long and happy life.—Reported.

Matching Jobs And Men In the State

The North Carolina employment service has issued a pamphlet describing its service and how it can be of value to the people of the state. Under the title of "What the Employment Service Does and What It Cannot Do" are stated the following facts:

The Employment Service does not lay any claim to being the solution for the unemployment problem. It does help matters by getting as complete information as possible about local job opportunities and referring qualified workers to these openings. The Employment Service is not an agency to create jobs for the jobless. Nor is it in any sense a relief agency. Its purpose is to conduct a modern, efficient system of public employment offices for the mutual benefit of employers and those seeking work. In its own sphere it performs and will continue to perform a public service as important to a community as public-health clinics and schools.

In addition to being of service to individual job seekers and employers, the Employment Service plays an important part as an impartial, effective recruiting agency for public-works projects. About 11 3-4 million workers in the past 3 years have been referred to Government works projects through public employment offices.

As unemployment-compensation laws are passed in each State, the Employment Service will be called upon to perform many new functions. Benefits will be paid through the public employment offices, and they will be called upon to determine not only the fact of unemployment but also the fact that no suitable employment is available to the benefit claimant.

Marriage Licenses

Licenses to wed were issued during the past week by Old Wiles, Wilkes register of deeds, to the following couples: Samuel Baldwin, Roaring River, and Maggie Johnson, Traphill; Grover Cleveland Wood and Mary Emaline Brooks, both of Thurmond; Glenn Hall, Halls Mills, and Thelma Wyatt, Roaring River; Odell Wyatt, North Wilkesboro route 2, and Della Walker, Absher.

Extent Of Sweep Surprises F. D. R.

Hyde Park, N. Y.—Franklin Delano Roosevelt expected to be re-elected President of the United States but he was surprised by the extent and sweep of his landslide. Early Wednesday, a highly elated President retired to his room and went to bed. He seemed grave to his house guests, a man who realized the responsibility that went to him with his overwhelming mandate.

A few minutes later, a particular telegram appeared in the thousands pouring in over special wires for which presidential secretaries had been waiting. It was from Gov. Alf M. Landon, the Republican standard bearer, conceding his defeat and congratulating Mr. Roosevelt.

McIntyre, in the President's name, replied:

"I am grateful to you for your generous telegram and I am confident that all of us Americans will now pull together for the common good. I send you every good wish."

This ended a pleasant, sociable evening at the Roosevelt manor house overlooking the Hudson River. Had it not been for the clicking news printers set up in the smoking room and a torchlight parade soon after the first returns came in by Hyde Park villagers, there would have been little to indicate that the head of the house was receiving one of the greatest honors ever bestowed by Americans collectively.

Lutheran Services

MT. AIRY FAIR BABY BEATEN BY NEGRO MAN

Mt. Airy, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Henry Wood, middle-aged white woman, was critically beaten and believed criminally assaulted and her husband was severely beaten by a Negro who entered their home on Haymore street here shortly after midnight last night.

Tom Madden, 24-year-old local negro, was arrested a few hours later and held in jail here as a suspect. A cap similar to one which Mrs. Wood said was worn by her assailant, was found between mattresses in Madden's house, police said.
