Announcement of the meeting, which will be held at Hotel Thes, was made today by John fell, adjutant of the Wilkes post. The meeting will also be Ladies' Night and the invitation to attend is extended to wives of veterans and to all members of the Legion Auxiliary. Posts in the district include Wilkes Post number 125, Statesville, Mooresville, Taylorsville, Sparta and West Jefferson. Each post is expected to be well represented by trict office in the management for a short time. On Wednesday Mr. Anderson began his work and interviewed a number of contractors on the Blue Ridge Parkway, a Public Works project to which the same ployment service assigns workers in this district.

Mrs. Crowell, who last week issued a statement relative to a shortage of labor on some of the Parkway projects, said today there had been quite a number who have registered for the jobs and expressed the opinion that if still others register that it will not be necessary to send out of the district for labor. Only able bodied, mature men, however, need apply for these jobs.

Federal Court Criminal Docket Completed Monday; Civil Cases Will Be Tried

As a result of trials in the present term of federal court and sentences meted out by Judge ohnson J. Hayes, about 35 will bo taken Friday by deputies marshal to the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., and the U.S. Industrial Reformatory at Chillicothe, Ohio.

With the exception of six prisoners convicted of other charges, all of those who will go to prison or to jail for short terms were sentenced because of violations of the federal liquor taxing laws. The longest sentence, five years, was handed down to James Holbrook, of Traphill, who was manch of the Carolina Motor also tried for resisting and assaulting officers who made his arrest.

The criminal docket was completed Tuesday and trial of a civil action begun. The trial under way was entitled Mrs. Phoebe Williams, of Alleghany county, who as administrator of her husband's estate is asking for war risk insurance on her husband. Several other civil cases are calendared for trial, including actions against the Greyhound Bus company for the death of Mrs. Hubert Canter and Miss Wilhelmina Triplett in an automobilebus collison 15 miles west of this city on highway 421 about a year ago.
