Legion Auxiliary Met Monday Evening

The June meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening with the following hostesses, Mrs. E. N. Phillips, Mrs. Gordon Hodge and Mrs. T. A. Finley at the home of the latter. Summer flowers attractively arranged made a bright setting for the group who attended. The president, Mrs. W. R. Absher, presided while interesting reports were given by the chairman of the various auxiliary activities.

An important part of the business session was the election of officers for the new year. All were re-elected except the president and the second vice president and the complete list is as follows: President, Mrs. J. A. Mac J. B. McCoy; second vice president, Mrs. E. N. Phillips; Mrs. W. D. Halfacre, recording secretary; Miss Toby Turner, treasurer; Mrs. Ed Dancy, Chaplain; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jack Quinn; historian, Mrs. Charlie Porter; and sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Nell Hendren.

Delegates to the Legion and Auxiliary Convention to be held in Durham were named too at the meeting with Mrs. T. A. Finley, Mrs. Andrew Kilby, and Mrs. J. A. Rousseau as delegates and alternates are Mrs. Nell Hendren, Misses Lillian Stafford, and Toby Turner.

June being Fideac month the program was given by Miss Lillian Stafford, who made an interesting talk on Fideac. A pleasant social hour was enjoyed during which time delicious refreshments were served.

Fidelis Class Held Meeting Tuesday Evening

With Mrs. J. I. Myers, Miss Rosa Billings, Miss Manie Brewer, and Miss Lunda Hendren as hostesses the members of the Fidelis Class of the First Baptist church were entertained in their monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Myers having sixteen members present, and three visitors. Mrs. R. S. Shoaf, Mrs. B. J. Robinson, and Mrs. Warner Miller.

The meeting opened with prayer which was offered by Mrs. C. B. Eller, and Mrs. Nell Hendren in charge of the business session. Mrs. J. Q. Adams gave the devotionals and told in a most interesting manner the story of Lydia. During the social hour Miss Lillian Stafford directed contests and those winning out were Miss Lunda Hendren and Mrs. J. G. Shipman. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Miss Hallie Waugh Is Hostess At Two Parties

Miss Hallie Waugh was hostess at two delightful parties at her home on E Street Saturday afternoon and Monday evening, entertaining for a number of friends each time. Larkspur and other blossoms of the season made festive decorations for the home.

Saturday afternoon five tables were in play with Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant winning high score prize. Mrs. Harold Burke, a bride of the winter, who was the former Miss Grace Dean Forester, was remembered with a gift. At the conclusion of play Miss Waugh had the assistance of Miss Myrtle Norris in serving tempting refreshments in two courses.

Three out of town visitors were present, Mrs. Frank Parker and Mrs. James O'Daniel, both of Lenoir, and Miss Frances McLeod, of Cheraw, S. C., who was here on a visit with her sister, Mrs. H. B. Smith.

A dinner-bridge was the occasion for Monday evening with a two course dinner being served at seven o'clock. Following the dinner bridge was played at three tables with the top score prize going to Mrs. Melvin Kenerly.

Bible Class Met Monday Evening

Mrs. W. F. Gaddy and Mrs. Thurman Kenerly combined hospitality to the members of the Young Ladies Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church in their business and social meeting for the month at the home of Mrs. Gaddy on Trogon Street Monday evening. Miss Ruth Colvard, the president, occupied the chair during a brief business session.

It was voted to change the time of meeting of class from the second Monday evening until the fourth Tuesday evening to avoid a conflict with one of the civic organizations. To open the meeting Mrs. Stokes Hunt led the devotional period after which the program was presented by Mrs. Walter Newton, being assisted by Miss Colvard, Mrs. W. H. Duhling, and Mrs. Murphy Hunt. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close.

Y. W. A. Has Meeting With Mrs. Clark

The Y. W. A. met with Mrs. H. T. Clark, Councilor, Monday night. The subject for the meeting was "Italy, Yesterday and Today." The entire topic was discussed by Miss Jean Bare, Miss Dovie Pardue having had the devotional. Mrs. Clark gave a talk on "Rebuilding old North Gate Church, Shanghai, China." This part of the program was the Heck Memorial Missionary program. An offering was taken after the program for the Heck Memorial Fund.

Junior League Club Is Meeting Tonight

The second meeting of the Junior League club which has been organized by Mrs. Ruby Pendley as a WPA project, will be held at the armory this evening at 8:30 o'clock. The meetings are to be held each Thursday evening with dancing as the main recreation. Age limit for the club is from 16 to 20. All charter members of the club are especially invited to be present tonight.

Baldwin-Dula

Ansonville, June 16—The wedding of Miss Mary Grace Baldwin and Harry Louis Dula was solemnized Monday, June 14, here at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Baldwin, with Rev. Mr. Baldwin officiating. Mrs. Dula was graduated from Duke University and is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. They will make their home in Mountain Park.

Anderson-Taylor

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Anderson, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Blanche Estelle Anderson, to Teddy John Taylor, of Chilhowie, Virginia. The wedding took place March 28, 1937.

Mr. Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Taylor. He holds a position with his father in Taylor Motor Co. The happy couple will make their home in Chilhowie, Va.—Reported.

Presbyterian Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

With Mrs. E. G. Finley presiding the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary was held at the church last Tuesday afternoon, having an attendance of twenty-three members. During the business session the usual reports were heard which showed much activity.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. M. A. Vickery while Miss Clara Ogilvie gave the program using as her theme, "Teaching the Bible in the Public Schools."

Lillard's Receive On Anniversary of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lillard celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at a charming reception given by their daughter, Mrs. Carlton M. Schoonover, and Mr. Schoonover, at their home at 246 Fenton Place, Eastover yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Lillard prior to her marriage was Miss Mamie Gwyn of Elkin. Eight members of the wedding party were present at the celebration yesterday: Judge and Mrs. T. B. Finley of North Wilkesboro, Mrs. R. L. Hubbard and Mrs. Van Poindexter of Elkin, Mrs. Ada Penn Coffey of Marion, Va., and Paul Chatham of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillard have two children, Mrs. Schoonover and Gwyn Lillard of Memphis, Tenn., and one grandchild, Carlton M. Schoonover, Jr.

Receiving in the living room were Mr. and Mrs. Schoonover, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lillard, Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Lillard and members of the wedding party.

The home was arranged with a profusion of yellow flowers. The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth and in the center was a large white bowl filled with shasta daisies, marguerites and larkspur. White candlesticks held gold-colored tapers. An ice-course and accessories were served. Later the guests went to the beautiful garden in the rear of the home and punch was served there.

One hundred or more guests called to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lillard, who have made their home in this city for many years. Mr. Lillard was a native of Ashe county but went to Elkin to live after his marriage, later moving to Charlotte.

Among the guests yesterday were relatives from North Wilkesboro, Elkin, Lenoir, and Newton.—The Charlotte Observer, Wednesday.

Among those going over from North Wilkesboro were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gwyn and two sons, Messrs. Dick and Blair Gwyn. Mrs. P. M. Williams and daughter, Miss Mary Gwyn Williams, M. G. Finley, Jr. and Judge and Mrs. T. B. Finley. Mrs. Lillard is a sister of Mr. Gwyn.
