Birthday Dinner

ROARING RIVER, June 11.—A memorable event and one that will linger in the minds of both young and old alike took place Sunday at the home of our esteemed and venerable neighbor, Wm. R. DeBorde. His relatives and many friends assembled at his home and spread a bountiful and tempting dinner in the shade on the lawn.

Mr. DeBorde, who was born June 10, 1852, is in excellent health and his memory is as brilliant as it was 3-4 of a century ago. And his step was very elastic as he passed in and out greeting the host of friends, many of whom were from other counties.

Among those who were present were: Mrs. Mary Poplin and Mrs. J. B. Edwards, both of Roaring River.

Master of ceremonies was the Rev. Levi McCann, who gave a pleasing address, after which a benediction was asked and everyone enjoyed themselves to the fullest. After which they exchanged greetings and many took their departure to their distant homes.

Establishes Unique Record on Speedway

Driving a strictly stock car, and using the same Gulf No-Nox Ethyl gasoline and Gulfpride Oil which are available to all motorists at service stations along the highway, Ralph DePalma, 55-year old veteran racing driver, on Monday, May 10, 1937, covered the 500 mile run on the Indianapolis Speedway at an average speed that was 7.6 miles per hour better than the fastest racing car was able to do in 1911.

DePalma's run was part of the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration for the Indianapolis Speedway contests, and the idea was to see how modern stock automobiles and stock gasolines and lubricants compare with racing cars and fuels and lubricants of a quarter of a century ago.

The run was sanctioned and timed by the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association. DePalma's official average time for the run was 82.19 miles per hour. The car was a V-8 LaSalle convertible coupe.

After the first few laps around the famous Indianapolis Speedway course, there was little doubt that DePalma would beat Ray Harroun's championship-winning average of 74.59 miles per hour, made in the race of 1911. Three pit-stops were made during the run for refueling, and despite this loss of time the car held its average speed well above the 80-mile-per-hour mark.

Gulfpride Oil was used in the engine and no oil was added during the punishing grind, as only about one-half pint of oil was used up.

The run proved beyond doubt that modern passenger cars and stock gasolines and lubricants are far and away ahead of everything that the speedway had in 1911. Throughout his 500-mile grind over the Indianapolis bricks DePalma did not experience the slightest trouble with his car, fuel or lubricants, which speaks well for the dependability of modern automobiles and gasolines as well as for their speed and efficiency.

MYSTERIOUS AD MAY BE LINK IN KIDNAPING

Stony Brook, N. Y., June 16.—A mysterious advertisement, published in a New York newspaper, led to belief today that a contact had been established with the person or persons responsible for the disappearance of Mrs. Alice McDonnell Parsons from her Long Meadow farm estate a week ago.

No word came from any member of the Parsons family, however, and investigators reported "no progress" in their efforts to find the 38-year-old society matron. This advertisement appeared:

"M. Sennet. Come home. Telephone Huntington 97."

The telephone number is that of Gerald M. Livingston, of West Neck Road, Huntington, N. Y., near the Parsons' farm. Livingston denied that he had inserted the ad, and said he had no desire to act as intermediary.

Meanwhile, New York police questioned a taxi driver who reported early today that a woman resembling Mrs. Pearson rode with him from midtown Manhattan last night to the Pennsylvania station. The driver, Nat Lewis, said that another woman and a man accompanied the woman he believed to be the missing heiress.

Federal agents took charge of all phases of the investigation today. The official entry of the G-men, who supposedly have been merely assisting local authorities, was based on the Lindbergh law, which presupposes after seven days that the kidnapers have crossed state boundaries with their victim, thus violating federal statutes.

Gilliam Family Reunion Sunday

A large crowd of the relatives, friends and neighbors of the Gilliam family met Sunday, June 13, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam, five miles southwest of Elkin for the eighth consecutive year of the Gilliam reunion. In the morning the crowd began to gather and by noon and immediately after service at the church, the guests had assembled at this hospitable home. A long table had been arranged in the yard under the huge maple trees which furnished an excellent setting for luncheon.

The chairman, J. A. Gilliam, after greetings had been exchanged called the assembly to gather around the table. Mr. Gilliam asked Rev. R. J. Pardue, pastor of Bethel church to the head of the table who introduced Rev. Mr. Myrick, of Greensboro, Prof. Spruill of Mountain View, a friend of the family was introduced by the chairman and all made a few minutes speech. Mrs. W. H. Jones, the secretary, made the announcement in regard to the registration and gave the committee on time and place for the next meeting as follows: J. A. Gilliam, Hays, J. G. Gilliam, Elkin, Mrs. W. A. Stroud, Wilkesboro, Mrs. J. T. Triplett, Ronda, D. S. Gilliam, Ronda, Ford Gilliam, Benham, C. C. Sturdivant, Swan Creek, and Ernest Wall, Elkin. The table was all ready and Rev. Mr. Pardue pronounced the blessing.

Having enjoyed the lunch the table was cleared and the afternoon was spent in conversation and singing. The Castevens brothers from near Yadkinville, were present and sang some with the Jones boys and a quartet from Cool Springs composed of A. C. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman and Ernest Wall. Then all joined the chairman in singing one of his favorites, "Never Grow Old."

The oldest member of the family present was Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Sr., while the youngest was Terry Gilliam Wall, the attractive little son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wall, of near Elkin.

The secretary read from the registration book that outside the home community, relatives and friends were in attendance from the following places: Elkin, Jonesville, Ronda, Sparta, Yadkinville, Winston-Salem, High Point, Greensboro, Lenoir, Statesville, Washington, Charlotte, Fayetteville, and Albemarle. The committee reported that the next gathering would be held at the home place of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Gilliam, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Gilliam, seven miles northwest of Elkin, the second Sunday in June, 1938.
