Mr. and Mrs. Horton Feted At Bridge Party

A delightful courtesy was extended to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Horton, of Carpinteria, Calif., Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nelson were hosts at bridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., on Memorial Avenue. The Hortons, former residents of the city, are here on a visit with Mr. Horton's mother, Mrs. W. P. Horton, and during their stay are being frequently entertained.

Six tables were arranged for the game in a Thanksgiving setting while the same idea was carried out in tally cards and other appointments. The count of scores showed Miss Elizabeth Finley to be the winner of the top score award for the ladies and W. D. Halfacre for the men. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of play. Mr. and Mrs. Horton were remembered with gifts.

Miss Mable Topping Entertained For Visitors

As a courtesy to her week-end visitors Miss Mabel Topping, member of the city school faculty, entertained at a bridge party and tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Halfacre Friday evening and Saturday afternoon. The visitors were Miss Alice Hackett and Miss Virginia Cooper, both of Knoxville.

Friday evening at the bridge party seven tables were made up for the game at the close of which Mrs. J. D. Moore, Jr. was found to be holder of high score prize for the ladies and R. G. Finley for the men. Both of the honorees received remembrances from Miss Topping.

When cards were laid aside a salad course was served. The color scheme for the decorations and appointments featured yellow, green, and brown. Out of town guests besides the honorees were John Warlick and Thad Russell, of Granite Falls.

An informal tea feted the visitors Saturday afternoon and around forty guests called between the tea hour from four to five. Miss Topping received at the door and tea was poured by Mrs. Halfacre while Miss Betty Halfacre assisted with the serving. Yellow candles added to the decorations of the home.

Benefit Card Party Given By Woman's Club Monday

The benefit card party sponsored by the North Wilkesboro Woman's club Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson on Memorial Avenue proved to be a most successful affair as well as a most delightful one. Seven tables were made up for cards in the afternoon with prizes being awarded to Mrs. George Forester, Mrs. Lila Rousseau, and Mrs. Bryan Higgins, in bridge for high, second high, and low. Those receiving awards in rook were Mrs. Joe Cook for high and Mrs. Ralph Duncan for low.

Monday evening ten tables were in play with Miss Ruby Blackburn and Mrs. Nell Hendren winning high and low score awards in bridge. Mrs. J. D. Schaffer and Mrs. C. L. Sockwell high and low awards in rook, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kilby high and low in setback.

Ten with sandwiches and cakes were served following play in the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Robert L. Huffman, Jr., who before her marriage was Miss Lacie Provette, of Wilkesboro, was presented a gift in the afternoon. The home throughout was attractively decorated in chrysanthemums.

Fide's Class Met Tuesday Evening

Forty-three were present, including six visitors, for the monthly meeting of the Fide's class which was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Tomlinson Tuesday evening with Mrs. Dewey Minton, Mrs. Wade Wallace, Mrs. Buren Yates, and Mrs. Mable Lottes, as associate hostesses. Mrs. R. P. Casey led the opening prayer after which Mrs. Nell Hendren presided for the business session with a number of matters being transacted.

Mrs. C. E. Jenkins gave a most interesting talk on Thankful women of the Bible. Mrs. Ruth Longmire led the group in several contests and at the close of the evening delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ralph Reins Is Hostess To Book Club

With members of the Wilkesboro book club and a few other visitors as guests Mrs. Ralph Reins entertained at a delightful party at her new home on E Street in North Wilkesboro Tuesday evening. Two tables each of bridge and rook were made up and resulted in the high score prize in rook going to Mrs. J. M.

Crawford while Mrs. Edith Hemphill held the honor award in bridge. Delicious refreshments followed the game.

Mrs. Bon Perkins Entertained Her Club

Mrs. Bon Perkins entertained the members of the Wilkesboro bridge club Thursday evening at which time two tables were made up for the game. After a series of interesting progressions Mrs. Gordon Forester was found to be holder of the top score prize. At the conclusion of play Miss Helen Winkler, sister of the hostess, assisted in serving tempting refreshments.

Inscore-Mitchell

A quiet and beautiful wedding took place on Saturday evening, November 6, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Wright, when Miss Ethel Inscore became the bride of Mr. Earl Mitchell, both of the Cycle community. Mrs. Mitchell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Inscore, Mr. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell. Their many friends will wish them much happiness. Only a few friends were present to witness the ceremony, Rev. J. M. Wright officiating.

Miss Roena Bullis Is Given Surprise Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bullis delightfully entertained at a surprise birthday and Halloween party in honor of their daughter, Roena, on October 27. Around twenty-five guests were met at the door by Miss Goldie Erickson, who was dressed in Halloween costume. Miss Bullis had gone to the theatre and upon arriving home, she was greeted by her guests. Several games and contests, led by Misses Charlotte Harvel and Goldie Erickson, were enjoyed by the group, the winners being Miss Ernestine Mitchell and Mrs. J. F. Jordan. When the games were over the group was led into the dining room by Miss Bullis and all enjoyed a hearty laugh as she blew out the sixteen pink candles held by white rosebuds on her huge white cake. The Halloween idea was carried out in the dining room and throughout the home white chrysanthemums were used in profusion.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Bullis with Mrs. J. F. Jordan and Miss Leola Eiler assisting. Miss Bullis received many beautiful gifts in remembrance of the occasion. — Reported.
