Adams-Kilby
The following announcement which has been issued by the Adams-Kilby family is of much interest: "Mrs. Mary M. Adams announces the marriage of her daughter, Gertrude, to Mr. Clyde D. Kilby on Saturday, the twentieth of November, nine-teen-thirty-seven, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., Wilkesboro, North Carolina."

Niven-Bretholz
Frederic Bretholz and Ruth Forester Niven were married Sunday, November 14, at the home of the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Pruitt, Baptist retired, in Charlotte, in a very quiet ceremony with only relatives and a few intimate friends attending. The couple returning from a short trip spent several days with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bretholz on the Brushies before returning to Charlotte where they will make their home. The groom is well known in Wilkes, having graduated from Wilkesboro high school and later from Duke University. Since his graduation he has been employed by Duke Power Company, with headquarters in Charlotte.

Junior Woman's Club in Monthly Meeting
Mrs. N. S. Forester, Jr., and Mrs. F. D. Forester, Jr., were hostesses to the Junior Woman's club of North Wilkesboro at the home of the former Monday afternoon. The new president, Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant, presided for the business session at which time some work was planned for Thanksgiving. Mrs. J. B. Carter, the welfare chairman, is to be in charge of a basket of food to be given to some needy family at the Thanksgiving season. Program chairman, Mrs. George Forester, presented Mrs. Bill Absher, who gave a paper on colonial

Idewise Club Met With Mrs. A. H. Casey
Idewise club members, with a number of additional visitors which included several of the teachers, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. A. H. Casey at her home Friday evening. Dinner was served at seven o'clock at the dining table and four small ones. The main table, spread with a lace cloth, was centered with a Thanksgiving centerpiece.

Following the dinner guests engaged in a period of handwork while others played bridge. Books were exchanged during the evening. An out of town guest present was Mrs. James E. Tharpe, of Statesville, who was a houseguest of Mrs. C. G. Poindexter.

Mrs. Frank Johnson Tea and Topics Hostess
Mrs. Frank Johnson was hostess at her home on Vance Street Friday evening having as guests members of her Tea and Topics club. An informal hour was spent together in sewing and conversation after which refreshments were served buffet style.

Mrs. H. B. Smith Gave Luncheon-Bridge Friday
Mrs. H. B. Smith entertained at a luncheon at her home on D

Street Friday for the members of her bridge club, also a few other visitors. After the luncheon, which was served at one o'clock, two tables were made up for bridge with the high score prize going to Mrs. Hill Carlton.
