"World Day of Prayer" To Be Observed Friday

The "World Day of Prayer" will be observed at the North Wilkesboro Methodist church but Friday afternoon, March 4. The program, which will be led by Miss Mamie Sockwell, will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock and will last for about an hour. Several members of the Methodist Missionary Society will assist with the program.

An invitation has been extended to the members of the Presbyterian and Baptist Missionary Societies to join in the service and it is hoped that a large number from these two churches will attend. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone else who desires to have a part in this hour of worship. The hour is set early so as not to conflict with any other meetings for the afternoon.

Another meeting scheduled for the church is the zone meeting of the Missionary Societies to be held at the church, Tuesday, March 15, beginning at 10:30 in the morning. Just one session will be held and will be followed by a picnic lunch at the noon hour. The new district secretary, Mrs. T. V. Goode, of Statesville, plans to be present. Mrs. B. S. Call, of Wilkesboro, is zone chairman, and she and Mrs. Goode both urge for all societies in the zone to have a large representation at the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Hix Is Wed To Mr. Hendren

In a simple but beautiful ceremony Thursday evening, February 24th, 1938, at seven o'clock, Miss Dorothy Hix and Mr. Hoyt Hendren were united in marriage at the home of the bride. The bride's pastor, Rev. J. C. Gentry officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. Only members of the immediate families and a few friends were present.

Social Calendar

The Young Ladies' Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school will have a supper at the church hut, Thursday evening, March 3, at 6:30. This will take the place of the regular business meeting. Tickets are being sold to class members at 25c each. See an officer of the class for your ticket.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. M. Brame.

The North Wilkesboro Methodist circles are meeting Tuesday as follows:

No. 1, at the home of Mrs. R. J. Hinchaw with Mrs. Atwell as co-hostess. Time: 8:30 p. m.

Mary Brame, at the home of Mrs. I. E. Pearson with Mrs. A. L. Lippard as co-hostess. 8:30 p. m.

Franklin, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reins with Miss Etta Turner as co-hostess. 7:30 p. m.

Gardner, with Misses Christine and Mildred Irvin. 7:30 p. m.

The Presbyterian Circles are meeting Tuesday with the following as hostesses:

No. 1, Mrs. W. J. Eason, 8 p. m.

No. 2, Mrs. H. V. Overcash, 8 p. m.

No. 3, Mrs. A. A. Cashion, 8:30 p. m.

No. 4, Mrs. L. M. Nelson, 8:30 p. m.

candles formed the background for the ceremony.

Miss Elsie Nichols, pianist, rendered the nuptial music and prior to the ceremony, Miss Margaret Hix, sister of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly" after which the bridal couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. During the ceremony Miss Nichols played muted notes of "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and played Mendelssohn's wedding march at the close.

The bride was attired in flowing white chiffon, made princess style; the tight fitting bodice held in with white brocaded girdle. She wore a sholder corsage of Lilies of the Valley and Sweetheart roses.

The bride is the third daughter of Mrs. W. R. Hix and the late Mr. Hix, of Moravian Falls. She attended Wilkesboro high school and now holds a position with a local firm.

Mr. Hendren is the son of Mrs. Effie Hendren, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. He is a graduate of the local schools and Patterson College. He is employed by the Scott Cheese and Butter Company.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hendren will return to North Wilkesboro, N. C., where they will reside.

Johnson-Shumate

Of interest to a wide circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Era Johnson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Johnson, of Abshers, to Laurence Shumate, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Shumate, of Reddies River.

The wedding was solemnized Saturday, February 26, at the home of the bride's parents with T. G. Johnson, Justice of the Peace, and father of the bride, officiating. Only the immediate family and a few close friends were present.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit with white accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Shumate was educated in Traphill high school, and for the last four years has held a responsible position with the Wilkes Hosiery Mills. The groom finished his education at Wilkesboro high school, and for some time has been engaged in the transfer business.

After the ceremony the bridal couple left on a wedding trip to Raleigh, Durham, and other points of interest, after which they will make their home at Reddies River.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Tomlinson Hosts At Dinner Party

An outstanding social event of the week was the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson at their home on Memorial Avenue Thursday evening when they entertained for the members of the Idlewise club, of which Mrs. Tomlinson is a member, the husbands, and several additional friends. The hosts received their guests at seven o'clock and after finding their positions at eight small tables placed about the rooms were served a delicious three course dinner. Mrs. Tomlinson was aided in the serving by her sister and nieces, Mrs. C. G. Poindexter, Misses Nina and Wilma Rose Call.

The tables were attractively appointed in bud vases of jonquils and place cards carrying the spring motif. Japonicas and other early blooming spring flowers were used about the rooms. After the dinner-bingo and rook was played with a number of prizes being awarded.

In Bingo the high score awards went to Dr. R. P. Casey and Mrs. Andrew Kilby. Those winning out in rook were Mrs. Ray Barnes and Weaver Starr for high. Mrs. Chal McNeil and Frank Tomlinson for low, and Mrs. J. M. Crawford and Ray Barnes for honors. Mrs. G. A. Mitchell, of Coudersport, Pa., who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson, was remembered with a gift.

Miss Cynthia Prevette Is Bridge Club Hostess

Miss Cynthia Prevette was hostess to the members of her bridge club at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Two tables were made up for the game with Mrs. Frank Allen scoring high and Mrs. James Somers low. Mrs. Somers also held the honor prize. At the conclusion of play the hostess was aided by her sister, Mrs. Robert L. Haffner, in serving a salad course followed by sweets.

Current Topic Club Met With Mrs. Ira Payne

Members of the Current Topic club with a number of extra visitors were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ira Payne at her home on Fifth Street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Crawford, president of the club, presided for roll call at which time the members responded with news items of unusual interest. Rook was played at four tables and the traveler's prize was captured by Mrs. Weaver Starr.

Visitors were Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. C. H. Smiley, and Mrs. G. A. Mitchell, of Coudersport, Pa., who is a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson. Mrs. Mitchell received a lovely remembrance from the hostess.

Mrs. W. R. Absher, Mrs. C. B. Eller, Misses Carrie Bell Strayhorn, and Nonie Gordon came in for the refreshments that were served at the conclusion of the game. The George Washington idea prevailed in the appointments. An exchange of books was made during the afternoon.

Business Girl's Sewing Club Entertained Tuesday

Mrs. J. C. Yarborough and Mrs. Presley Myers entertained together at the home of Mrs. Yarborough Tuesday evening for members of the Business Girl's Sewing club. Instead of the usual sewing period the guests engaged in a game of rook in which the top score prize was won by Mrs. Harry Pearson. Three tables were in play.

During the evening an exchange of bluebird gifts was made and as a compliment to Miss Rosa Billings, who is moving into her apartment soon, the club showered her with miscellaneous gifts. Visitors of the club were Miss Harriet McGoogan and Mrs. Maurice Walsh.

The patriotic colors were predominant in the appointment while japonicas, jonquils, and freesias, decorated the living room. Refreshments in two courses were served at the close of the evening.

Music Recital in School Auditorium Wednesday P.M.

The music pupils of Miss Ellen Robinson will give a recital in the school auditorium Wednesday afternoon, March 2. The program will begin promptly at 3:30 and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Food Sale To Be Held Saturday

A Food Sale will be sponsored by the Women's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church Saturday at Spainhour-Spinner's Store. All kinds of goods will be on sale and anyone desiring a special order will please call Mrs. R. M. Brame, president of the class.

Wilkesboro Woman's Club Met Friday Afternoon

Selections of North Carolina literature featured the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Woman's club held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. T. Mitchell with Mrs. W. W. Barber and Mrs. Tom Foster as associate hostesses. Mrs. R. B. Pharr was program leader and presented the program as follows. A reading of one of O'Henry's short stories, "The Ransom of Red Chief," by Miss Elizabeth Faw. An article written by Ray Erwin, "Another O'Henry," telling about Joe Mitchell, a new North Carolina writer, given by Mrs. Barber. A piano solo, Mrs. R. E. Prevette. A poem, "Naming Wild Animals," by John Charles McNeil and recited by Peggy Church. A poem, "My Love Lies Still," by James Larkin Pearson, and given by Mrs. Pharr. The concluding number was a vocal solo by Gail Erwin, being accompanied by Mrs. Prevette.

The president, Mrs. C. H. Cowles, presided for the business session. The meeting was largely attended and at the close tempting refreshments were served by the hostesses. A profusion of spring flowers added much to the atmosphere of the meeting. Miss Myrtle Venable, of Spartanburg, S. C., was a guest of the club, being here on a visit with Mrs. Mitchell.

Neal-Marshall

Mrs. E. L. Hart announces the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Alvah Hart Neal, to Charles Andrew Marshall, at Hillville, Va., January 16, 1938. They are at home at Mt. Airy.

W. H. McNeill, of Moore county, said he received at least $1,000 more for the crops sold from his farm last season because of the terraces that had been built.
