Blanche Ellodge, Whittington Honored At Birthday Fete
 Mrs. L. D. Whittington, Mrs. Blanche Ellodge, Mrs. R. E. Whittington, and Miss Lillian Dyer entertained at a birthday luncheon Sunday honoring Mr. James Ellodge on his thirty-eighth birthday and Mr. L. D. Whittington on his sixty-eighth. The luncheon took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Whittington, near Furlow.

Pink and yellow roses made pretty decorations for the dining room while the dining table was centered with a three-tiered birthday cake. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Ellodge, Mr. and Mrs. Rommie Whittington, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Whittington, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whittington, Mrs. D. G. Dyer, Misses Claudine, Bobbie Jean, and Audrey Lee Whittington, Jewel Dean Ellodge, Wanda Lee Dyer, Robert Pearson, Bruce Ellodge, Bryan Ellodge, and Kermit Whittington.

Community clubhouse with Mrs. George Kennedy and Mrs. W. E. Reins acting as hostesses. An interesting program was given by Miss Harriet McGoogan, Wilkes county home demonstrating agent, and Mrs. L. B. Dula. Mrs. Dula, quite an artist herself, spoke on "Art in the Home and the Art of Living."

Mrs. C. H. Cowles, the president, presided for the usual business session at which time fine reports of the different activities of the club were heard. The club room was attractive with spring flowers forming a colorful scene for the club members and a number of visitors attending.

At a previous call meeting officers for the new club year were elected as follows; president, Mrs. J. B. Henderson; vice president, Mrs. Cowles; treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Hulcher; and recording secretary, Mrs. O. K. Whittington. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Woman's Bible Class Met Tuesday Afternoon
 With the president, Mrs. R. M. Brame, occupying the chair the monthly meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Hix. Hostesses with Mrs. Hix were Mrs. A. B. Johnston and Miss Lizzie Hixle and at the close of the afternoon they served the fourteen members attending tempting refreshments during the social hour. The devotionals were given by Miss Hixle and Mrs. J. C. Smoot.

SPRING SONG

Sing a Song Of Ex-pense
 A Crankcase Full Of Grit,
 Adding Extra Quarts of Oil
 Will Not Help A Bit,
 When The Case Is Opened,
 And Cleaned Of Everything,
 Fresh Oil Is A Tonic That

the Brown Boarding House, also a limited number of other guests. An array of spring flowers made a pretty setting for the group who were entertained with amusing jokes and riddles as well as interesting news items. Mrs. W. E. Jones, the president, presided while the roll was called by Mrs. W. P. Horton.

Mrs. J. E. Spainhour read a number of jokes after which several were related by the guests and Mrs. Coffey asked the riddles. At the close of the afternoon the party was invited into the dining room where a delicious salad course was served followed by sweets. Mrs. Harvey Church, of Ronda, was an out of town visitor of the club.

Mrs. Eugene Trivette Entertained Her Club

Mrs. Eugene Trivette was hostess to the members of the Current Topic Club also four additional visitors at her home on Eighth Street Wednesday afternoon. The first part of the afternoon was given over to roll call and news events after which ruck was played at four tables. High score among the visitors went to Mrs. J. E. Spainhour and for the club to Mrs. J. D. Schafer.

Jonquills and other flowers of the season made a festive background for the guests. When cards were laid aside a salad course was served. Those present other than club members were Mrs. Spainhour, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., and Mrs. Walter Newton.

LARGE ATTENDANCE IS ASKED AT CHURCH

A capacity congregation is expected to be present Sunday morning at the North Wilkesboro Methodist church at the 11 o'clock hour to hear Rev. A. L. Aycock, the pastor, preach. An effort is being made as far as possible to have the entire Sunday school to be present for the service.

Each teacher with his or her class is requested to sit together in a body, and it is hoped especially through the primary, junior, intermediate and young People's departments, that the attendance will be 100 per cent. The parents are asked to cooperate with the teachers and see that their children remain for the service.

One real "trail-blazer" is worth more than a whole army of hood-winked trailers.
