Government To Spend Billions

Washington, June 17.—Administration aides busily tuned up the gigantic federal spending machine today for the distribution of the billions appropriated by the departing Congress.

At the public works administration, officials said they were ready to allot projects totalling $500,000,000 as quickly as President Roosevelt signs the $3,753,000,000 lending-spending bill.

The works progress administration was occupied with arrangements for increasing the relief rolls from their present level of something more than 2,600,000 to an estimated peak of 3,100,000 to be reached during the winter months.

Haste Is Sought
These and other agencies involved in the lending-spending drive to stimulate recovery had been making their arrangements for weeks, throughout the period that the bill was under consideration in Congress. They explain that to be most effective in alleviating the business recession, the money must be distributed with reasonable haste.

When Mr. Roosevelt would sign the bill was unknown. Not only this measure, but a big folder of other completed legislation awaited his attention, including the wage-hour bill. He intends to return to Washington next Friday, but meanwhile can sign the measures at his home in Hyde Park, where he will spend most of next week.

Wage-Hour Head Sought
The spending problem was not the only summer-time legacy left by Congress to the executive branch.

The administration of the wage-hour bill must be provided for soon by the appointment of an administrator. In view of the row within the ranks of organized labor, the selection of that official was expected to prove no easy task.

The securities exchange commission was left the big job of regulating the far flung over-the-counter market in securities, the volume and ramifications of which far exceed those of the organized exchanges. It will be done through voluntary associations of dealers, under the SEC's supervision.

The navy department was given the task of getting work started on a huge new rearmament plan, involving the eventual construction of 72 new war ships of various types. A billion dollars was voted toward this purpose.

Nearly every agency of the government found it had been given some new task to perform. Or had had the scope of an old one broadened, at the same time, Congress provided some summer-time committee work for its own members.

One job of this category combined Congress and the executive departments in a broad investigation of monopolistic practices, requested by President Roosevelt. Senators Borah, Republican, Idaho; O'Mahoney, Democrat, Wyoming, and King, Democrat, Utah, and Representatives Summers, Democrat, Texas; Eicher, Democrat, Iowa, and Reece, Republican, Tennessee, were named to the committee. It will be brought to a roster of 12 by the addition of representatives of the treasury, justice, labor and commerce departments and the federal trade and securities exchange commissions.

Other committee work laid out for the summer involved a continuation of the investigation of TVA, a survey of the nation's phosphate resources—to be begun tomorrow with Chairman Harcourt A. Morgan of TVA as the first witness—and investigation of the use of campaign funds in the coming elections.

Home Agent Gives A Canning Budget

As the canning approaches, it is interesting to calculate the amount of canned food which is necessary to provide for the nutritional needs of the family. It is always necessary to adjust any food budget to the individual likes and dislikes of the family, but the following food budget will serve as a starting point in estimating the amount and variety of canned foods necessary for a varied diet during the months when fresh fruits and vegetables are not always available.

The amount of canned vegetables and fruits needed for one person is given below. Multiply this amount by the number in your family and you will have your own family budget.

There are at least eight servings in one quart.

Canned Vegetables	No. Qts.	Per Person
Asparagus	2	2
Beets	2	2
Corn	1	1
English Peas	2	2
Kraut	1	1
Lima Beans	1	1
Okra	1	1
Soup Mixture	5	5
String Beans	5	5
Tomatoes	12	12
Total	32	32

Canned Fruits	No. Qts.	Per Person
Apples	3	3
Blackberries	3	3
Cherries	3	3
Fruit Juices	1	1
Huckleberries	2	2
Grapes	2	2
Peaches	4	4
Pears	4	4
Plums	2	2
Total	24	24

If all the above varieties are not available, can more of those that are grown. Be sure to have at least 32 quarts of vegetables and 24 quarts of fruits canned for each member of the family. Twelve pounds of dried fruit and twelve pounds of dried vegetables per person are recommended to supplement the canned supply.

For each member of the family provide 2 quarts of preserves and jam, 1 quart of jelly, and 1 quart each of pickle and relish.

Gives Recipe For Plain Canned Beets

Select small uniform beets. Cut with a long stem so that there will be no danger of bleeding. Wash thoroughly and cook in boiling water until the beets are 3-4 done or until the peeling slips off. Pack into sterilized jars. Add 1-2 teaspoon salt per quart and cover with the water in which the beets were cooked, leaving a space of about 1-2 inch at the top of the jar. Put on rubbers and partially seal jar. Place in a steam pressure cooker and process at 10 pounds pressure for 35 minutes. If using a hot water bath, cover the jars with hot water and boil for 2 hours and 15 minutes—counting the time from the minute that the water begins a rolling boil.

These beets are delicious if served with a hot butter sauce or Harvard style. They may also be pickled when opened if desired.

Urges Growers Keep Watch Over Gardens

Outbreaks of disease and insect infestations will do less damage to the garden if the grower keeps a close watch over his vegetables so that control measures can be started as soon as possible after the plants are attacked.

Applications of three-fourths of one per cent rotenone dust will destroy leaf-eating insects such as bean beetles and cabbage worms. Plant lice and harlequin bugs also die when covered by this dust, said H. R. Niswonger, extension horticulturist at State College.

A distinct advantage in using rotenone is that this material does not have any harmful effects upon human beings, and plants may be dusted right up to the time they are to be harvested without danger of making the consumer sick.

Poisoned Bordeaux dust is recommended for eradicating flea beetles feeding on tomato and pepper plants. Bordeaux mixture will control the leaf spot diseases of tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers, and cantaloupes, Niswonger added.

Kidnap-Slayer Is Sentenced to Die In Florida Chair

Miami, Fla., June 14.—Franklin Pierce McCall was sentenced to death today for the kidnaping of Jimmy Cash, a crime the president judge called "the most cold-blooded thing I ever heard of."

Cold-blooded, too, was the 31-year-old prisoner's mien as he stood erect with clenched fists resting on a desk and heard his doom without a word or change of expression.

There was no sound in the crowded courtroom when white-haired Circuit Judge H. F. Atkinson rose to his feet, recited that McCall had pleaded guilty to kidnaping for ransom, and asked: "What have you to say why judgment should not now be rendered and sentence imposed upon you?"

McCall, a farm laborer and minister's son with no previous criminal record, only shook his head. The judge then directed that McCall be electrocuted at Raiford state prison at a time to be set by the governor, and concluded, "May God have mercy on your soul."

Jackson Sheriff Is Shot to Death

Revenge Then Turns Gun On Self to End Life—Witness Tells of Shooting

July 6, June 16.—James S. Aycock, 64-year-old sheriff of Jackson county, was shot and instantly killed this morning near Sylva, by Donald Ashe, 47, a rebel, who then ended his own life, according to Deputy Sheriff Homer Turpin, who said he witnessed the shooting.

Turpin said that Ashe, believed to have been insane, fired upon the Sheriff with a .12 gauge automatic shotgun from a window of his home.

Ashe, the deputy said, had been acting queerly for several days and members of the family had obtained papers for a sanity hearing. The papers were given to Sheriff Mason and he, with Deputy Turpin, went to Ashe's home to serve them. They were within 12 feet of the house, Turpin said, when there was a shotgun blast from a window, the lead striking Sheriff Mason in the chest.
