BUSINESS BETTER

New York, June 24.—When the closing zong resounded through the big trading hall of the New York stock exchange today, the total quoted value of securities dealt in there was some $4,000,000,000 higher than at the beginning of the week. Not since the spring of 1933, when prices surged upward after the banking holiday, has the marketplace as Broad and Wail streets seen such a sudden and rapid swelling of the prices of the shares of the nation's leading corporations.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Washington, June 24.-In the spirit of Philadelphia. President Roosevelt in his fireside chat tonight re-enlisted for the duration of the war against real or fancied enemies who are charged with resisting acceptance by the public of his liberal policies. He also gave notice that when the tide of battle moves in that direction, he will not hesitate to intervene in Democratic primary contests where liberals and reactionaries are arrayed against one another. Frankly removing from the realm of speculation all doubt concerning his plans and purposes, politically, the President served notice: "As President of the United States, I am not asking the voters of the country to vote for Democrats next November as opposed to Republicans or members of any other party. Nor am I, as President, taking part in Democratic primaries

County Experiences Heavy Loss In Total Valuation For the Year

LOSS OVER $750,000

New Intangible Law Is Biggest Factor In Lower Valuation

Following a full day's work Friday on budget estimates for the coming fiscal year, R. G. Finley chairman of the Wilkes county board, of commissioners, said that the board will endeavor to hold the county tax rate at the 1937 figure of $1.06 on the hundred dollars' valuation of prop-

He said that the new state law ty taxation had resulted in a loss in the valuation of over $750,000 and that that board is basing estimates on a valuation of $14,-500,000. Bluff Park and parkway lands are in possession of the government this year and are not listed for county taxation, this adding to the net loss in property valuation on which the county tax levy is based to meet budget estimated.

Mr. Finley expressed the opinon that balances from the levy of 1937 may enable the board to hold the tax rate at $1.06. However, there is a three-cent additional levy, or railroad bond tax. on North Wilkesboro township. This levy is expected to remain the same as last year and the tax ship is expected to remain at

Vote In Second Primary July 2

C. B. Deane and W. O. Burgin Ask Nomination For Congress

Democratic voters of the eighth congressional district, of which Wilkes is a part, will go to the polls again on Saturday, July 1 to name the nominee for representative in congress. The candidates are C. B. Deane, of Rockingham, and William O. Burgin, of Lexington. There will be no other second primary race to gain attention of voters

Deane was high man in the five cornered race for nomination for congress in the first primary held on June 4. His margin over Burgin was between 500 and 600 votes and the other three candidates polled many votes. George Ross and R. F. Beasley were not far behind Burgin and Deane while Giles Y. Newton was the low man in the voting.

Both candidates and their riends have been busily engaged in lining up supporters since the first primary and while it is not expected that the second primary will attract a large vote, an interesting contest is forecast.

In the second primary Democratic voters will be choosing between two men prominent in public life.

Deane, an attorney in Rockingham, is known throughout the state as a churchman and for the past four years has been recording secretary of the Baptist state convention. He has also spent some time in Washington, where he is compiler of the congressional directory.

Burgin is an attorney in Lexington. He gained state wide attention in the legislature, wherehe served two terms in the senated and was known for his liberal
