Miss Katherine Finley Hostess At Two Parties
Miss Katherine Finley entertained at two delightful parties recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Finley, on E Street to honor her cousin, Miss Katherine Barnes, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is here visiting in the Finley home. Wednesday afternoon a period of games was followed by an ice course at which time about twenty girls of the younger set were present. The honoree was remembered with a gift.
Last Wednesday evening the guests consisted of both boys and girls and during the evening a period of informal entertainment was enjoyed after which water-melons were served.

prize for the ladies was awarded to Mrs. L. M. Nelson and for the men to Mr. C. D. Coffey, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reynolds, of Greensboro, were out of town guests and were given a remembrance gift. A salad course was served at the conclusion of play.

Miss Vania Anderson Entertained At A Dance
An outstanding social event of the week among the younger set was the dance given by Miss Vania Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Anderson, at the Legion clubhouse Tuesday evening. The guests numbering around seventy-five were served punch and cookies during the evening. Chaperones for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Finley.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith Hosts At Card Party
Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith were hosts at a small card party Saturday evening at their home on D Street. Two tables were made up for bridge in which high score

Miss Ella Mae Moore Feted At Birthday Party
Mrs. Clifford Moore was hostess at a birthday party Thursday evening honoring her daughter, Ella Mae. Games and contests were enjoyed throughout the evening and the winners in contests were Doc Wiles, Elizabeth Gashion, and Forrest Church. Around twenty of her friends were present to enjoy the evening with her.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the hostess, who had the assistance of Mrs. Carl Miller and Miss Mamie Bowles. The honoree received many beautiful and useful gifts. The out of town guests were Miss Bronda Holder, of Charlotte, and Mr. Bryan Lee, of Winston-Salem.

Woman's Bible Class Met Tuesday Afternoon
Mrs. H. B. Dodson and Mrs. C. A. Forester combined hospitality to the members of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church in their July meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the former. The president of the class, Mrs. R. M. Brame, occupied the chair during the business session and Mrs. A. E. Spainhower led the devotionals. The sixteen members attending were served tempting refreshments during the social hour that followed the meeting.
