Ronda Route 2 News Reported

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. and Grace Dean Bentley motored to Taylorsville last Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eckard.

Miss Dolly and Lawrence Gentry of Burch, visited their sister, Mrs. Bessie Foster, the first of last week.

Mrs. Howard Sebastian, of Martinsville, is spending a week with Mrs. Bessie Foster, calling on old friends and neighbors in the community.

Mrs. Catherine Church Kelly and children, Davie and Patricia, her aunt, Miss Pauline Kelly, all of Yadkinville, early last Wednesday morning came by way of Elkin for Mrs. W. G. and Delight Church and Sara Sappenfeld, and went to Holly Hill to lunch with Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale. Mr. and Mrs. Worth Sale joined the party. A good day for all the relatives.

Mrs. Watson Blackburn cooked dinner last Sunday for forty-three persons—a merry group!

Mr. James Chambers was critically ill last week. Mr. Harvey Greene carried him to Mr. Spurgeon Haynes'. All his children were called to his bedside.

Mrs. Elisha Martin and her son, Walter, were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Vestal Boyd, after nursing Mrs. Henry Boyd, of Elkin, for four weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Miss May Boyd spent the past week with Mrs. Fred Vestal, on Jonesville route.

Mrs. Worth Sale, who has been in poor health all summer, went to Dr. Salmons' office Friday evening for a checkup and prescription.

Mrs. Gertie Gray and little sons, James and Martin, went to visit her parents, "Uncle Chap" and Mrs. Pardue Friday until Sunday.

Rev. Grady Burgess, of Elkin, on his way to Roaring River filled Rev. N. T. Jarvis' regular appointment at Brier Creek at 11 a. m. He read Ephesians 6:1 to 18 and preached on "Christian Warfare." It was a plain, instructive and spiritually strengthening sermon. His mother said when he came to Brier Creek revival, "I tried to pray that he might say the right thing," and no doubt she did the same thing Saturday.

Rev. R. R. Crater, the assistant pastor, on Sunday preached one of his best sermons. He read Ephesians 6:1 to 18. His subject was "Christian Equipment." Although there was much similarity in these sermons, it was a strange coincidence that neither knew what the other's subject was going to be. Brier Creek membership needs much strengthening spiritually and in numbers.

Mrs. Luther Glass and children went home with Mrs. Henry Steelman from Brier Creek, for lunch and to spend the evening, Sunday.

Master Arville Pardue enjoyed a guinea watermelon with Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale yesterday evening.

Mrs. Leah Chambers Welland and husband, of New York, visited her father, Mr. James Chambers, who has been critically ill, during the past week-end.

Miss Susanna Mathis is spending a few weeks in Sparta.

The past few days has been a clan-get-together for this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hayes, of Winston-Salem, visited Mrs. Hayes' mother, Mrs. Vetra Boyd, and her grandfather, Mr. R. S. Walker. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Hayes and three children. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boyd and two little sons joined the party.

Miss Mae Boyd, who spent the past week at Jonesville with her home for the weekend and to be with the family.

Mr. George Matthews, of Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matthews and son, Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. John Snow and little daughter, Miss Ora, and Billie Matthews were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker, yesterday.

Mr. Clark Walker, after spending a week with the Matthews' kin of Sedge Garden, Forsythe, came home yesterday with the group of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Myers, of Sparta, Mrs. J. W. G. and Delight Church and Sara Sappenfeld, of Elkin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sale and Barbara Jeans spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Worth Sale, Misses Mattie and Armisa Sale, at Holly Hill. An unexpected visit, a glad surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pardue called to see their friend, Mr. James Chambers, yesterday. He is not expected to recover.

Miss Lucile Pardue is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Badger Pardue on the bus line, and entering high school at Ronda.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pardue, of Ohio, are expected at the bedside of her father, Mr. James Chambers.

Friends and relatives of the Cheeks clan in Brier Creek community plan to join the reunion at Shepherd's Cross Roads next

Coach Lillen Finds Only Seven Letterman From 1937 Football Team

Coach Bernard Lillen, beginning his first year at North Wilkesboro schools, member of the Western conference, looked over 33 boys who aspired to places on the football team as they reported for practice last week.

Other than saying that the boys were light but had started practice with enthusiasm, Coach Lillen declined comment until he becomes better acquainted.

Among the 33 candidates for the team are only seven lettermen, last year's team having a large number of graduates. The lettermen out for the first practice sessions were McNeill, Hudson and McCoy, backs; Shatley, end; Settle, tackle; Pearson, center; and Steelman, end.

With the schedule not complete, the team will play Wilkesboro, Elkin and Taylorsville in addition to Conference members. Games in the conference will be with Lenoir, Hickory, Newton, Cherryville, Morganton and N. C. S. D. The first game of the season will be on September 30.

Coach Lillen is a graduate of Elon College, where he was a letterman in football, basketball and baseball. Since graduation he has been director of recreation at a number of summer resorts and played baseball with minor league teams in New Jersey.

Boomer News Items In Brief

Rev. E. V. Bumgarner filled his regular appointment here Sunday. The pastor, Rev. S. I. Watts closed the meeting at Goshen Sunday with 10 additions to the church.

Miss Merla Spears, of Booneville, has returned home after spending a few days with Mrs. G. M. Earp.

Mrs. Grace Parker and two little girls returned to their home in Mooresville Sunday after spending a few days with Mrs. T. G. Davis.

Mr. H. C. McNeil and son, Woodrow, of Lenoir, were visitors with Mrs. G. M. Earp over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Davis, of Moravian Falls, were visitors among relatives here Sunday.

The Walker reunion which met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hays Walker was well attended with a fine dinner for all. Everyone had a good time. May they all live to meet again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Greer and family have returned home after spending a week at Carolina Beach. They report a good time.

Mrs. Rosa Parsons is spending the week at Dover attending the revival that is in progress there.

Four Club Members Make Talks at Kiwanis Meeting Held Here Friday

North Wilkesboro Kiwanis club enjoyed a 4-H club program Friday in the regular meeting held at Hotel Wilkes at noon.

In the business session President A. H. Casey appointed and elected a committee to report on September 10. Officers for the coming year will be elected on October 7. The committee is composed of J. B. McCoy, F. C. Hubbard, J. C. Reins, Genio Cardwell and E. G. Finley.

Program Chairman R. G. Finley introduced his program by asking the club to sing "There is a Tavern in the Town." He then presented Jesse Giles, assistant farm agent for Wilkes county, who discussed briefly club work in general. Miss Harriet McGoogan, county home demonstration agent, was then presented. She discussed 4-H club work. She stated that it is a part of the extension service under the supervision of the federal, state and county governments. There are now about one million members in the United States, and each one is charged with performing some project during the year. There are now ninety-seven counties in North Carolina that have 4-H clubs, with 32,000 members. The clubs function mainly in rural communities and the members participate in conferences, short courses, summer camps, older youth groups, etc. During the past supper a 4-H short course was held at State college for one week and was attended by several Wilkes county members.

Four club members were then presented, each making a short talk as follows: E. J. Redding, of Ronda. "What I Have Done in Club Work"; Eda Mae Crysel, of Millers Creek. "Our Trip to the 4-H Conference at Raleigh"; Alene Green, of Ronda. "Earn, Learn, Save, Invest"; She stated that she had made the kitchen at her home her project for the year. John Robert Church, of Mountain View. "Six Years Experience in Club Work."

In response to questions by Kiwanians, County Agent Dan Holler explained that 4-H means "Head, Heart, Hand and Health."

The program received spontaneous approval from the members of the club.

Will Open Voice Studio Here Soon

R. T. Cox, of Winston-Salem and Elkin, will have a voice studio in North Wilkesboro once a week. Mr. Cox conducted the Louisville symphony orchestra of 65 pieces prior to 1911. After that time he opened a voice studio in the Fine Arts Building in Chicago, and spent most of his life there. In 1918 he was invited back to Louisville to conduct an orchestra in a new million-dollar theatre. He spent two years there, after which he resumed his private studio work. Mr. Cox now has a class in Greensboro of professional choir singers. He also has a class in Elkin. Anyone interested in joining Mr. Cox's voice class is asked to call Mrs. W. D. Halfacre.

REPUBLICAN CLUB IN REDDIES RIVER MEETS

A crowd of about 300 men, women and children gathered in the grove at the home of Linney Bumgarner at Millers Creek Thursday night for a picnic sponsored by the Young Republicans club of Reddies River township.

Ladies assisted in serving waffles and lemonade to the crowd, after which the Foster Brothers string band rendered music and talks were made by C. C. Hayes, R. Don Laws and Avalon E. Hall, candidate for solicitor of the 17th district. A very enjoyable occasion was reported.

Ivey and Troupe Entertain Lions

Delightful Program is Rendered in Meeting of Club Friday Evening

North Wilkesboro Lions Club enjoyed a highly entertaining program on Friday evening.

Pete Ivey, humorous lecturer who was here on Friday night to stage an amateur show, accompanied by a number of professional radio artists from WSJB, Winston-Salem appeared before the club.

Ivey in his inimitable manner entertained with an address on the "Disadvantages of a College Education." Others on the program were Miss Frances Tucker, Bob Van Camp and the Forsyth Hillbillies, of station WSJB.

Guests at the club meeting Friday evening were Bernard Lillen, high school coach, and Robert Taylor, another member of the high school faculty here.
