Late News Of State-Nation Told Briefly

RAIL IS FATAL

Waynesboro, Ga., Nov. 6.—A 21-year-old North Carolinian died near here today of a broken neck 30 minutes after he had fallen from the back of a mule on which he was riding with a friend. The young man, Ralph Chappie, of Lincolnton, N. C., and a companion were attempting to overtake another youth, riding ahead of them on a horse. The companion received only slight bruises and scratches.

BACKS NEW DEAL

Chairman John L. Lewis of the C. I. O. urged labor's millions yesterday to vote for "proven friends" of the new deal's social legislation. He spoke while the national political campaign entered its final phase. Tomorrow the nation will choose 35 senators, all but three members of the house of representatives, and 32 governors. In the outcome, many expect to find important signs—indicators of what the people now think of the Roosevelt administration and hints of what may happen in 1940, when a President will be elected.

PROTECT AMERICAS

Washington, Nov. 6.—Sumner Welles, under secretary of state, gave the world fresh notice tonight that the United States was preparing not only to defend itself but to aid in keeping the entire western hemisphere safe from any threatened attack. In an address prepared for broadcasting over a nation wide network and to South America, the state department official appealed for inter-American solidarity at a time when "the doctrine of hatred is threatening civilization."

GALLUP PREDICTIONS

New York, Nov. 6.—Nation-wide studies of political sentiment by the American Institute of Public Opinion indicate that Tuesday's election will register an important and dramatic shift toward the conservative viewpoint in national politics. This trend, which will be reflected in Democratic losses in congressional, senatorial and gubernatorial races began more than a year and a half ago with the sit-down strikes and the Supreme court proposal, according to institute studies, and was intensified by the business recession of the past year. The institute's final survey made during the last few days indicates a Republican gain of at least 50 seats in the house of representatives with a greater likelihood that the G. O. P. may gain as many as 75 seats. Tuesday's voting will show that the Democrats have lost about half of the majority registered in the 1936 election.

Clingman School, Wilkesboro City Hall Are Started

WPA Workmen Start Work Today On Two New Public Buildings

Workmen employed by the Works Progress Administration in Wilkes county today began construction of two public buildings.

One of the structures is the city hall in Wilkesboro, located opposite the courthouse square on the northwest corner on what is known as a part of the old Wilkes jail property. Workmen for the town have been placing materials on hand during the past several days.

The building will have three floors, including a spacious basement, street floor and top floor. All departments of the town's government will be housed in the building.

The cost of the city hall building is estimated by the WPA at approximately $16,000, with the cost shared about equally between the town and the federal government.

The other public building for which ground was to have been broken today was a school building at Clingman.

The Clingman building, to be of brick veneer construction, will consist of four classrooms and an auditorium.

The cost of the school building was estimated by the WPA at $8,864.75, divided about equally between the federal government and Wilkes county. However, materials salvaged from abandoned buildings will be applied as a part of the county's share of the construction cost.

This lioness mother at Chicago's Lincoln Park zoo carries her three-week-old cub to safety when the photographer appears. It looks dangerous for the youngster but mother is mighty careful not to scratch her offspring in transit. An intruder would find the same jaws merciless.

Motion Picture Cooking School Nov. 15, 16, 17th

Cooking School In Movie Form Will Provide Aid and Entertainment

The Journal-Patriot has scored again!

This newspaper has just begun successful in securing the new Motion Picture Cooking School, "Star in My Kitchen," which will be presented at the New Orpheum Theatre on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday November 15, 16 and 17.

Mark the days on your calendar because every woman—and man—in the community is hereby extended a cordial invitation to see, absolutely free, this fascinating picture which weaves helpful, intelligent lessons on cooking and home-making into a humorous and romantic plot.

The Motion Picture Cooking School is a brand new idea. First conceived last year, it has met with acclaim from women throughout the country, who like the happy combination of sparkling entertainment and close-up cooking instruction. Seats in the back row are as good as those in the front row—the motion picture permits everyone to hear and see every trick in frosting a cake, making a pie, or cooking bananas.

"Star in My Kitchen" was produced in Hollywood, and the audience will recognize many of the stars, actresses and actresses who take part in it. Women young and old will appreciate the humanness of the romantic story, in which home problems are approached from an entirely new angle.

The Motion Picture Cooking School has graduated beyond the demonstration course in the wide variety of household equipment assembled in clear view of the audience. All of the practical equipment is seen in active use, and because "seeing is believing," the audience will soon learn that pies and cakes, and salads can make them "stars in their kitchens."

Experienced housekeepers will thrill to the adventures of the young Dedee Abot, who suddenly finds herself with a large home to manage and several mouths to feed—as well as a handsome young movie actor to impress.

What happens when she tries to make a fluffy lemon meringue pie or a marshmallow chocolate cake? What happens when the "man of the hour" drops in for dinner?

To unravel the mystery in advance would be to rob this clever tale of its novel approach. However, the audience is due to share in a rollicking good story and to learn much about home-making at the same time.

Every listener will find a harvest of practical ideas among the suggestions for more efficient home-making, covering such dainties.

Barns Burn At Traphill Sunday

Dean Burgess and Major Richardson Are Held For Destruction of Property

Barns at the homes of A. P. Bauguess and Jack Richardson in the Traphill community were destroyed by fire Sunday night about seven o'clock. The fires were of incendiary origin, people of the community told officers who were called to investigate the report last night.

The barn, together with feed and tools at Bauguess' home burned first and the fire at Jack Richardson's home was a few minutes later. A horse was stolen from the barn at Bauguess' farm. With some difficulty the livestock was removed from the burning structures but the loss at both places was estimated at about $2,000.

Deputy Sheriff R. C. Jennings and Carlie Ingle, state highway patrolman investigated the fires and on information obtained Bret Cochren, a deputy sheriff in that community, made the arrest of Dean Bauguess, a nephew of A. P. Bauguess, and Major Richardson, a nephew of Jack Richardson. They were alleged to have left the scene of the fires on the stolen horse.

Officers said today that Major Richardson had confessed to the charge of setting the fires and is also said to have implicated Dean Bauguess. Both are being held in jail at Wilkesboro.
