SNIFFLES EPIDEMIC

Washington, Feb. 10 .- A "mild case" of the sniffles is pestering the nation. Public health service officials said today that while there was no major epidemic, the frequency of cold infections apparently had increased this year compared with last. Capitol victims include President Roosevelt, Vice President Garner, Secretary Hull and Senator Borah, veteran Idaho Republican. Mr. Roosevelt called off his usual Friday press conference and remained in his living quarters at the White House today because of a nose cold and an accompanying slight scheduled conferences with Oswaldo Aranha, Brazilian foreign

The reduction apparently killed the hopes of public school teachers for two more pay increments, a 12th grade, sick leave, and health and pension funds. Tentative adoption of the reduced school appropriation enabled the appropriations committee to complete its study of items in the general fund, and brought the appropriations bill $61.197 below the record general fund budget recommendation of $83,-653,375 for the biennium.
