To honor her two sisters, Mrs. T. P. Cridlebaugh, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Carl Sechler, of High Point, Mrs. D. L. Crook entertained at bridge and took at her home on Memorial Avenue Wednesday evening. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations, and the refreshments which preceded the game. The hostess was assisted in the serving by Miss Mattie Ruth Wilmoth and Mrs. Pressley Myers.

Three tables were made up for bridge with the high score prize going to Mrs. Frank Tomlinson and the traveler's prize to Mrs. Ethel Moore. The top score award in the rook game, which was played at two tables, was won by Mrs. Murphy Hunt. Both of the honorees were remembered with gifts.

Mrs. Charles Howard Is Bible Class Hostess

An interesting meeting of the El Holman Bible class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held with Mrs. Charles Howard having seventeen members and six visitors present. The meeting opened by singing "Help Somebody Today" after which Mrs. R. L. Wellborn gave the devotionals using as her theme "Some of the Ways of Higher Living."

For the program Mrs. J. B. Doughton gave a reading "Somebody Needs Your Sympathy," Mrs. F. T. Colvard gave "Life Is What We Make It," Mrs. Tom Foster's "Life's Lesson," and Mrs. J. W. Neal and Mrs. A. G. Brinegar talks on "Judging." Miss Cynthia Rhodes of Winston-Salem, and a niece of Mrs. Howard, gave a reading "He Is the King of Love."

In contests held during the social hour Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Doughton were winners of prizes. In serving refreshments and hostess was assisted by her daughters and Miss Rhodes.

Mrs. Bob Turner presided for the business session.

S.S. Class to Have Swimming Party and Picnic Supper

The Philathea class of the North Wilkesboro Methodist church will have a swimming party and picnic supper at the swimming pool of Mr. C. P. Walter at the tannery Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. All who want to go in for a swim come at this hour. The supper will be served at 6:45. The party is being sponsored by the loosing side in an interesting contest, which has been running in the class since Easter Sunday.

Phipps-Jones

A wedding characterized by dignity and simplicity was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Methodist church in Wilkesboro when Mrs. Eileen Phipps became the bride of Mr. Jay Franklin Jones with only a small group of most intimate friends attending.

The pulpit was attractively decorated with floor baskets and vases of white and pink gladiol and tube roses with Maiden Hair fern. White cathedral tapers on seven branched candelabra shed a soft light over the nuptial scene.

Prior to the ceremony a musical program was rendered by Mrs. Verne Blackwelder of Lenoir, consisting of Romanje by Schuman, Venetian Love Song by Neveln. To A Wild Rose by McDowell was softly played during the ceremony. The wedding march from Wagner's Lohengrin was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. The bride and groom entered the church together unattended and were met at the chancel by Rev. W. A. Lynch, the bride's pastor, who officiated. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue and white chiffon with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Blackwelder wore an ensemble of blue and white with a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal tea was held at the home of the bride. The house was decorated with baskets of summer flowers. The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of mixed flowers. Sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served. Shortly afterwards the bridal couple left for a trip through the Mountains of Western North Carolina.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Calloway Hubbard. She is a graduate of North Wilkesboro high school and Draughon's Business College in Winston-Salem. For the past two years she has held a position of trust in the office of Lenoir Furniture Corporation, Lenoir, N. C.

Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, of Oakwoods, N. C. He received his education in the Wilkesboro high school and holds a responsible position with the Oak Furniture company.

Miss Eleanor Trivette Feted At Lovely Party

Miss Eleanor Trivette, popular bride-elect of Greensboro, was honored at a lovely bridge party here Thursday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. Charles E. Jenkins, Sr., and Mrs. Charles E. Jenkins, Jr., at the home of the former on Memorial Avenue. The honoree is to be wed to William Robert Kuenzel, Jr., of Detroit, Michigan, on Saturday evening, September 9, at seven o'clock in a formal ceremony at the West Market Street Methodist church in Greensboro, and is having Mrs. Jenkins, Jr., as one of her bridesmaids.

Roses and other cut flowers made a festive setting for the guests at six tables of bridge and one of ruck, while the tallies were in bridal and wedding bell designs. Winners for the top score prizes were Mrs. Joseph Whiteker, Jr., in bridge and Mrs. Joe E. Johnson in ruck.

Honor gift for Miss Trivette was a Sheffield tray and to Mrs. Whiteker, a bride of July, the hostesses presented individual sterling silver salt containers. Mrs. Whiteker is the former Miss Miriam Durrett, of Greenwood, Miss.

Refreshments in two courses were served at the conclusion of play with the ices in a green and white heart motif.

Mrs. Bryan Gilreath Entertained For Bride

Mrs. Bryan Gilreath entertained at a delightful bridge party at her home on E Street Friday night announcing the marriage of her niece, Miss Bessie Chloé Rhodes and Shoun Kerbaugh, which took place a year ago today.

Four tables were arranged for bridge in a colorful setting of marble flowers, which the place cards bore the initials of the bridal couple and the date of their marriage, which was August 21, 1938. An ice course followed play.

Miss Gwendolyn Hubbard was the winner of the top score prize, and to the honoree the hostess presented a lovely gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerbaugh are on their wedding trip this week, which includes places in Western North Carolina and Tennessee.

THE INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP OF TROOP 35

The summer membership of Troop 35 is better than it has ever been. In the summer there are many other activities that take some of the boys' interest away but regardless, 30 regular members are written in the troop books as Boy Scouts of Troop 35. At this same time last year only 20 members were registered. The leaders of Troop 35 expect the membership to pick up towards fall and Troop 35 will undoubtedly be larger in the winter of 1940. There are several boys who have honorable discharges, to work this summer who will rejoin when school starts. Troop 35, the Flying Eagle Troop is divided into three patrols—the Flaming Arrow Patrol, the Bob White Patrol and the Senior Patrol. Following are the members of Troop 35: Scoutmaster Isaac Duncan and Assistant Scoutmaster Effner Eller.

Flaming Arrow Patrol: Patrol leader Billy Wade Estes, First Class Scout; Assistant Patrol leader Billy Wade Estes, First Class Scout; Assistant Patrol leader Bon Blakewood, Second Class Scout; Palmer Horton Jr., Tenderfoot Scout; Tal Barnes, Jr., Tenderfoot Scout; Hill Carlton, Jr., Star Scout; Thomas Gilreath, Second Class Scout; Joe Hunt, Tenderfoot Scout; Alvin Stoudivant, First Class Scout; Harold Sturdivant, Tenderfoot Scout; Curtiss Welbourne, Tenderfoot Scout; David Welbourne, Tenderfoot Scout.

Senior Patrol: Patrol Leader Wayne Caudill, Life Scout; Lomax Crook, Life Scout; Wayne Gentry, Star Scout and Ralph Whittington, Star Scout.

Schools At Millers Creek Open 28th

Change Made In Bus Route To Accommodate Greater Number Of Children

The Millers Creek central school and district schools will open Monday, August 28.

There will be a teachers' meeting held Saturday, August 26, at 8 a. m. in the Millers Creek school for both the central school and district teachers.

Patrons of the Millers Creek district are requested to please start all children of school age to school the first day. The co-operation of parents in this matter will enable each child to get an even start with other members of his or her class.

This co-operation on the part of parents will also help principals and teachers to make certain necessary adjustments in the enrollment classification and transportation of students which should be made as early in the first week of school as possible.

Extensions on school bus routes have been made as follows: Bus number 12 makes a loop from the Rendezvous Mountain road westward by C. C. Hayes' residence and back to Purlair postoffice.

Bus number 38 leaves highway 421 just west of North Wilkesboro and goes by Tomlinson's brick yard to Union School.

Bus number 39 will operate on the Tumbling Shoals road on the north bank of Reddies river between the short-turn bridge and the Whittington bridge above.

Contract lines will extend to Sherman school and Oak Grove School.
