School Boy Dies From Injuries In Accident Tuesday

Everett G. Parsons Steps Into Side Of A Moving Truck At Millers Creek

Everett G. Parsons, 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Parsons, of Wilbar, died in the Wilkes hospital at 1:20 Wednesday morning from injuries received when he was hit by a truck at Millers Creek Tuesday morn-

He suffered two skull fractures, brain concussions and severe lacerations. Little hope was ever held for his recovery.

Witnesses told in a hearing Tuesday afternoon before Magistrate R. C. Jennings that the boy stepped from a car driven by Raymond Parsons when it stopped on the right side of highway 421 headed toward this city. The boy ran around the rear of the car and into the side of a pickup going west and driven by Fred Nichols, of Johnson City, Tenn., who was held blameless in the Highly Praised who was held blameless in the accident. The boy apparently was going across the road to the intersection of the road leading to Millers Creek school building

His head was first hit by the Trim and Fixtures Being Inrear view mirror, the door handle and by the front of the pickup

Shotgun Wound Self - Inflicted, Is Fatal To John Faw

ocal Resident Ends Life By Firing Shotgun Into Own Chest On Wednesday

John V. Faw, 44, carpenter and World War veteran, was found dead in his home in this city about 7:30 last night.

Coroner I. M. Myers investigated the death and pronounced it suicide. Death was caused by a shotgun wound in the left side of his chest.

The coroner said that all indications pointed to a clear case of suicide and no inquest was deemed necessary. Faw had aparently used a cane to push the trigger of the gun and discharge the load into his chest.

Death was thought to have occurred about mid-afternoon when neighbors said they heard a noise similar to that of a muffled gun-
