SHOPPING Holiday Trade "HIS DAYS WILL BE BAIGHTER. Season Opens In North Wilkesboro

Merchants Well Prepared But Early Shopping Is Advisable

North Wilkesboro's streets in the business section will be attractively lighted Tuesday night.

By cooperative effort the funds for the beautiful decorations, which brilliantly inform all comers that the holiday season is here, were contributed by the merchants of the city and workmen have been busily engaged in placing the decorations on the streets today.

North Wilkesboro merchants are prepared as never before to supply the holiday shopping needs of the people of Wilkes and adjoining counties and large stocks of holiday merchandise were purchased before the recent price rise.

For this and other reasons it is pointed out that holiday shopping should be done early because if it becomes necessary to replenish present stocks prices will be definitely higher. Predictions all over the country point to an unprecedented volume of trade during the next four weeks.

Many Places To Be Closed Here On Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving To Be Observed in North Carolina On Traditional Date

Thursday, November 30, the last Thursday in November, will be observed as Thanksgiving Day in North Carolina as proclaimed by Governor Clyde R. Hoey.

On last Thursday about half of the states observed the date set by President Roosevelt but many governors followed the old traditional date of Thanksgiving as November 30.

In North Wilkesboro it is expected that business houses generally will be closed Thursday and that the day will be observed as a holiday.

The postoffice will be closed on that date, although the rural carriers had their holiday on November 23. The banks state highway office and the office of the Unemployment Compensation office will also be closed that day.

Following the usual custom it is expected that the stores will be closed all day Thursday. Schools will end their work for this week on Wednesday afternoon and resume work on Monday morning, December 4.

The WPA offices and projects will observe Thursday as a holiday because sponsors will not be working that date. The WPA also observed the national Thanksgiving date on November 23.

Water System For Wilkesboro Town

WPA Workmen Begin Digg-ing Ditch For 20,000 Feet Of Water Main

Work on a water works aretem for Wilkesboro has begun, # was learned today from C. M. Crutchfield, area WPA engineer

The project, to be carried out by the WPA with the town sponsor, calls for piping water from springs on the Brushies & distance of approximately 20,000 feet and erection of a storage tank within the town. The water will flow by gravity.

Engineers have made a comprehensive survey of the plan and. the springs from which the town will derive its water supply are on and near what is known as the old Hackett estate on the Brushy

Total cost of the project is estimated at approximately $60,000 with the sponsor's contribution about $32,000, which will be provided by a bond issue already approved in a special election. Town officials have stated that water revenue will be used to retire the bonds and pay interest.

WPA workmen have begun the task of clearing right of way and digging the ditch for the six-inch water main.

Wilkesboro's present water supply is purchased from North Wilkesboro.
