gate the sudden death of Dave Hall, age 32, who fell dead in the hallway of his home.

Coroner Myers said that members of the family informed him that Hall left home Saturday and did not return until yesterday and had been drinking heavily. The coroner said that he attributed the death to alcoholic drink.

Hall was a son of G. C. and Janie Hall. Funeral service was held today, three o'clock, at Darby.

Mountain View Senior Play 12th

The Senior Class of Mountain View high school will present a three-act comedy in the school auditorium, "Under Western Skies", Friday night at 8:00 o'clock.

The story is of a young tenderfoot from the east who went west; also of his adventures with Indians, ghost and bandits, and how "Mustache Pete" sneaked up on that bandit.

The characters are: Barry Boyed, a tenderfoot from the east, played by Edward Pendry; Mrs. Pansy Farmer, his next door neighbor, Ruth Childress; Pete Posy, known as "Mustache Pete," Owen Blevins; Sanderson Trent, another Easterner, Glenn Dancy, Jr.; Diana Taylor, also from the East, Etta Gray Mayberry; Laughing Water, a young Indian girl, Ina Bell Sloop; Sugar Foot and Callie Williams, colored people who add comedy to the play, John Brooks and Grace Yale. Nella, Della, Bella are sisters of the radio fame acted by Arvona Sebastian, Mildred Myers, and Nellie Dancy. Sheriff Crunch is played by Buel Harrold. Len Woodruff, senior sponsor, has served as director of the play.

The public is cordially invited to attend this program which is the opening exercise of the 1940 commencement program at Mountain View high school. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Pre-School Clinic At Mountain View

The annual pre-school clinic at Mountain View will be held on Friday.

In addition to examination by members of the health department of children who are to enter school next year, the children will be entertained by games and every effort will be made to make their visit to the school pleasant.

Parents are invited to accompany their children if possible and bus drivers have been given instructions to look out for the little tots.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN knows what's new!

Men who go places have a sixth sense about clothes. Manhattan Shirts are an almost certain choice, selected for style that's right up to the minute, for quality that never varies in excellence, for comfort that leaves nothing to be desired, for colors that make—never break—an ensemble. Manhattan is the choice of well-dressed men the world over.

If any Manhattan Shirt ever shrinks below the indicated size, we will give you a new shirt. Tested and approved by the American Institute of Laundering.
