Picnic Supper and Card Game Enjoyed By Club Members

A most enjoyable evening was spent together by the members of the Young Matrons Contract club and their husbands on Tuesday when the group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lewis for a picnic supper and a game of cards afterwards. The supper was served on the terrace of the Lewis home after which four tables were made up for bridge and one for Chinese rumble. In bridge the high score prize for the ladies was won by Mrs. Harry Pearson and for the men, Mr. A. M. Church, Jr. Low score award was received by Mrs. Rufus Church. Mr. Harry Pearson was the winner in the rumble game.

Bluebird Club Met With Mrs. Willie Felts

A delightful meeting was held by the members of the Bluebird club when Mrs. Willie Felts was hostess to the group at her home Thursday evening. The members of club along with three visitors engaged in a period of sewing and also played some rook. At the close of the evening the hostess served a tempting salad course.

Business Woman's Circle Held Monthly Meeting

The Business Woman's circle of the North Wilkesboro Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. D. L. Crook Monday evening in their monthly meeting with Mrs. A. M. Church, Jr., as associate hostess. An interesting program was given by the G. A. girls under the direction of Mrs. E. S. Cooper. Miss Lillian Stafford, chairman of the circle, was in charge of the usual business session. Around twenty were present and were served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

N. Wilkesboro Methodist Auxiliary In Meeting

The May meeting of the North Wilkesboro Methodist Auxiliary was held at the church Tuesday afternoon with Miss Mamie Sockwell presiding due to the absence of the president. The program was given by the Franklin circle with Mrs. Guy Lillard in charge. Miss Lois Scroggs gave the life story of Mrs. Luke Johnson and the meditation was given by Miss Jean Moore. A short business session followed the program.

Miss He'en Blevins Is Bridge Club Hostess

The members of "Our Bridge Club" were delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Blevins at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. Three tables were arranged for play in a colorful setting of spring flowers with the tallies being in the spring effect. High score prize in the game was won by Mrs. Alene G. Upchurch and the bingo prize by Mrs. Dannie Mae Landis.

Mrs. John Maden, of Johnston City, Tenn., and a sister of the hostess was a visitor of the club. Miss Blevins, assisted by Mrs. Maok Proffit, served a tempting ice course at the conclusion of play.
