Miss Wilma Rose Call Entertains At Bridge

Miss Wilma Rose Call entertained at a charming dessert-bridge at her home on D Street Thursday evening having guests sufficient for three tables. After-dinner coffee cups filled with sweet peas made attractive centerpieces for the tables, while about the rooms other arrangements of bouquets were placed making a festive setting for the players. The high and low score awards were won by Mrs. Presley Myers and Mrs. Lloyd Turner. Mrs. Jack Spainhour, of Hickory, who prior to her marriage about two weeks ago was Miss Mary King Mallonee, of Murphy, was remembered with a gift.

Miss Ellen Robinson Is Sewing Club Hostess

The members of the Wednesday Sewing club were graciously entertained by Miss Ellen Robinson at her home on E Street Wednesday afternoon, also a limited number of visitors. Practically all the members were present and the group enjoyed an informal hour together, after which the hostess, assisted by her niece, Miss Janie McDiarmid, served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Jack Spainhour, a bride of the month, was a special guest of the club. Mixed garden flowers made lovely decorations for the home.

Hill Top Club Met With Mrs. Floyd Coffey

With Mrs. Floyd Coffey as hostess the members of the Hill Top club were delightfully entertained at her home north of the city Friday evening. The group was entertained informally, some playing rook while others sewed, and at the close of the evening they were served an ice course by Mrs. Coffey. The home was attractively decorated with a variety of cut flowers.

Estes-MacBride Marriage Vows Are Announced

Cards were received here last week announcing the marriage of Miss Anne Estes, of this city, and Mr. J. P. MacBride, of Linden, which was solemnized at Chapel Hill in the Presbyterian church there Tuesday, June 11, at five o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. MacBride, daughter of Mr. Ben F. Estes, of North Wilkesboro, and the late Mrs. Estes, is a graduate of Eastern Carolina Teachers College at Greenville. She has been teaching in the public schools of Eastern Carolina, this past year teaching at Chapel Hill.

Following a wedding trip the couple will be at home at Chapel Hill where Mr. MacBride is working towards his doctors degree at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Estes and son, Mr. Billy Wade Estes, went down to Chapel Hill for the ceremony.

Walnut Grove S. S. Class Enjoys A Picnic Friday

The Young Ladies Sunday school class of the Walnut Grove church held their monthly meeting Friday evening on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Meadows' place at Pores Knob. During a short business session which was presided over by Mrs. Meadows, plans were made for an ice cream supper to be held there at the same place on Friday evening, June 21, beginning at eight o'clock. Ice cream, cake, and lemonade will be for sale, and the public is cordially invited to attend. Around twenty were present for the meeting including some visitors and enjoyed a picnic supper during the evening.

LIGHT

The number of farms served by electric light and power companies in the United States increased 98 per cent during the 1932-38 period, or from 710,000 to more than 1,400,000 farms.

More than 6,000,000 farmers, operating 82 per cent of the cropland in the United States, are participating in the 1940 AAA program, announces the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

THEIR LOVE TORN ASUNDER

Robert Young pleads with Margaret Sullivan not to break their engagement in this scene from "The Mortal Storm," powerful drama of a house divided by political dissension, which opens Thursday on the Liberty screen. Based on the sensational novel by Phyllis Botome and directed by Frank Borzage, the picture has an outstanding cast featuring Miss Sullivan, James Stewart, Young and Frank Morgan.

Miss Harriet McGoogan Honored In Greensboro

Miss Elizabeth Person Cooke, member of the home economics faculty at Woman's college, and Miss Harriet McGoogan, of North Wilkesboro, former member, were entertained last night because of their approaching nuptials when Mrs. Norman W. Kirkman had a buffet dinner to her home on Springdale court.

Miss Cooke, who is to be married July 29 to Charles S. Schofield, of Florence, S. C., makes her home with Mrs. Kirkman, who is a cousin of Miss McGoogan, home demonstration agent for Wilkes county. Miss McGoogan is to be married in August to Dan F. Holler, of Raleigh. Both are Woman's college graduates.

The buffet table was centered by a reflector on which a miniature white lattice decorated with white star jasmine. The delicate jasmine also trailed down the table, which was spread with a drawnwork cloth and lighted by ivory tapers in crystal holders. Gift for Miss Cooke was a set of breakfast china and for Miss McGoogan a spun aluminum hors d'oeuvres tray.

In the after-dinner entertainment Dr. Lyda Gordon Shivers, who teaches a course in marriage at Woman's college, conducted an information please program with Miss Cooke, Miss McGoogan and Miss Rachel Stone, another home economics specialist whose engagement is announced today, as the board of experts.—Greensboro Daily News, Sunday.

Says Fifth Column Guard To Be Strict

Washington, June 14.—Attorney General Jackson pledged "greater strictness" and "increased vigilance" in the treatment of aliens today, and called also for a registration "of all non-citizens who are in our midst."

Addressing the Immigration and Naturalization Service employees, who came under the Justice Department's control today, Jackson said that the doctrine that any person may come to the United States:

"Unless it is shown that he is a menace must at least temporarily yield to the policy that none shall be admitted unless it affirmatively appears to be for the American interest."

He cautioned, however, against "hateful or unjust treatment of loyal non-citizens" lest it "have the result of making them the prey of those who would organize a 'Fifth Column' here."

INCOME TAX INSTALLMENT OF ONE CENT TO BE PAID

St. Louis.—A one-cent Federal income tax payment is among those the internal revenue collector expects to receive before the deadline for the second quarterly.

Last March a man computed his total tax as four cents and elected to pay it quarterly.
