Miss Harriett McGoogan Honored At Party

To honor Miss Harriett McGoogan, a bride-elect of the summer, and home demonstration agent for Wilkes County, Mrs. F. C. Johnson and Mrs. Claude Johnson entertained at a miscellaneous shower at their home Thursday evening, having as guests members of the Mountain View Home Demonstration club.

After the guests had written in the bride's book, "Perpetuation of the Honeymoon," they were ushered into the dining room, where to the honoree's surprise, she found a display of lovely gifts on the table, in the center of which was arranged an altar with a miniature bride and groom. Queen Anne's lace and white candles were used for the decorations.

After returning to the living room the guests enjoyed several bridal contests, in which prizes were awarded to Miss McGoogan and Mrs. Lester Gregory. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Mur-why Hunt and Mrs. Paul Church in serving a salad course.

Mrs. Ed Dancy Is Hostess To Her Club

The members of the Hill Top club were delightfully entertained Friday evening in their fortnightly meeting by Mrs. Ed Dancy at her home north of the city. The group enjoyed an informal hour together in sewing and conversation after which delicious refreshments were served. At their meeting Friday the club decided to disband for the summer. Summer flowers attractively arranged made a gay setting for the guests.

TYPICAL SCENES IN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION PAGEANT

This shows a general view of the stage for the presentation of "On Wings Of Time," headline attraction for North Wilkesboro's 50th anniversary celebration tonight through Thursday night at the fairgrounds.

Days of the "Old Spinning Wheel" are vividly portrayed in "On Wings Of Time," which is being staged here each night through Thursday night.

Wilkes county patriots played a big part in the American Revolution for independence and the above scene is typical of the history of that era as portrayed in "On Wings Of Time."

This "Heap Big Chief" of a Cherokee tribe which once roamed the hills of what is now Wilkes county is in the anniversary celebration pageant.

Mrs. Weaver Starr Entertains At Bridge

Mrs. Weaver Starr was hostess at a lovely bridge party at her home on Ninth street Wednesday afternoon having guests sufficient for five tables. A variety of summer blossoms made a colorful background for the players. Mrs. J. A. Rousseau and Mrs. J. B. Carter were winners of the high and low score awards, each receiving attractive prizes. A salad course with sweets was served at the conclusion of play.

Mrs. Jack Spainhour Is Feted At Charming Tea

An outstanding social event of the week was the charming tea given by Mrs. J. E. Spainhour and her daughter and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Bason and Mrs. Lincoln Spainhour, at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon Street Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. Jack Spainhour, of Hickory, who before her marriage the third of June was Miss Mary King Mallonee, of Murphy.

Sharing honors with the lovely bride were Miss Harriett McGoogan, who is to wed Dan Holler in August; Mrs. Eugene Olive, who will leave soon to make her home in Wake Forest where Rev. Mr. Olive has accepted work; Miss Bert Holman, of Phoenix, Arizona, who is spending the summer here with her father, Mr. F. G. Holman; Miss Kate Finley, of New York City, and her sister, Mrs. S. P. Mitchell, of Portsmouth, Va., both of whom are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Finley. Others receiving with the hostesses and the honorees were Mesdames Watt M. Cooper, J. W. White, Eugene Spainhour, of Elkin, Dan Carter, Clarence Call, A. B. Johnston, F. C. Forester, and Miss Ruby Pearson.

A large number of guests from the Wilkesboros called between the hours of 3:30 to 5:30 to meet the young bride, to greet the other honorees and visitors, and to enjoy the gracious hospitality of the hostesses.

Greeting the callers at the door for the first hour were Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Sr., and Mrs. E. G. Finley while for the second hour they were extended welcome by Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., and Mrs. J. A. Rousseau. Mrs. Claude Doughton and Mrs. J. B. Carter directed the guests to the tea table and those serving were Mesdames J. H. McNeil, William Carlington, W. C. Grier, William Barber, Frank Blair, Palmer Horton, Gordon Finley, Watson Brame, Carl Coffey, Harold Smith, James Somers, and E. H. Helms, Miss Frank Somers and Miss Gwendolyn Hubbard.

Beautifully appointed in every detail, the tea emphasized the nuptial scheme of green and white. In the spacious reception room where the receiving group stood, also where the guests were served tea with accessories, which furthered the accepted motif, quantities of white gladiol, rhododendron, and Queen Anne's lace was artistically arranged. The tea table, at which Mrs. R. M. Brame and Miss Ellen Robinson alternated with Mrs. Ward Eshelman and Mrs. John E. Justice, was spread with a handsome Italian network cloth and graced with a silver bowl of white flowers, about which four white candles in the silver holders made a frame.

Mrs. Joe Barber presided at the guest register and good-byes were spoken to Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson Hosts At Cake-Cutting Party
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson entertained the Shoaf-Johnson bridal party at a cake-cutting party Friday evening at their home on North Street. The party followed the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Alma Elizabeth Shoaf, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson, and Gorman Atlee Johnson, who were married in a formal ceremony at the First Baptist church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Guests numbering about thirty, consisted mostly of family members and members of the bridal party. In the dining room a green and white color note was carried out while elsewhere about the home bouquets of mixed flowers were used with pink being the predominant color.

The bride's table, spread with a green organdie cover over white satin, was centered with a huge tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple, and flanked with four crystal vases filled with white flowers. Crystal candelabras holding white candles and crystal compotes, in which were green and white mints, were arranged diagonally on the corners of the table. The cake was cut to discover the traditional tokens of fortune and served with delicious punch.
