

Women's Church, Civic And Social Activities

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL, Editor—Phone 215

Wallace-Hart Marriage Vows Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wallace, of Pines Knob, announce the marriage of their daughter, Alma Elizabeth, to Albert G. Hart, of Elizabethton, Tennessee, on January 21, 1939, Boone, N. C.

The couple were united in a ceremony of beauty and simplicity at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Canipe.

The bride entered the beautiful flower decked living room, attended by the Canipe sisters, she was met by the groom before a natural arch of clinging ivy and flowers, where Rev. C. A. Canipe performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in her wedding dress of white satin and lace, with a sweetheart neck, short puffed sleeves with bolero jacket, and floor length skirt. Her floor length veil with finger tip and train was caught with a double halo of orange blossoms, she wore elbow length, white gloves and her bouquet was of white roses and fern tied with double bows of satin ribbon.

Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom. The bride, the attractive and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wallace, is a graduate of Wilkesboro high school.

The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Hart, of Tampton, Tennessee, received his education in Dayton, Ohio.

The couple will make their home at present in Hampton, Tennessee.—Reported.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Held Meeting Tuesday Afternoon

Thirty some women were present for the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary which was held at the church hut Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. J. Bason, the president, was in charge of the usual business session and also led a short devotional to open the meeting.

For the program Mr. Rhodes, a teacher in the Glade Valley School, made a splendid talk about the school, telling of its condition, accomplishments, and needs. The speaker was presented by Mrs. W. C. Grier.

Fulp-Anderson Marriage Vows Are Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fulp, of Oakwoods, announce the marriage of their daughter, Audrey Mae, to Mr. Oliver Ford Anderson on Tuesday, Sept. 3rd, 1940, in Mountain City, Tenn.

Mrs. Anderson, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fulp is a graduate of North Wilkesboro high school, class of 1937, and is very popular among the younger set of North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall M. Anderson, of Wilkesboro, attended Wilkesboro high school, and is employed by Lineberry Foundry and Machine Co., North Wilkesboro.

After a short trip through Tennessee and Western North Carolina the bride will make her home with her parents on the Oakwoods road, while Mr. Anderson, who is a member of North Wilkesboro unit of the National Guard, is encamped at Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C.

Miss Arlee Gilliam Is Hostess To Her Circle

Miss Arlee Gilliam was hostess to the Business Woman's circle of the First Baptist church at her apartment on Ninth street Monday evening, having around twenty members present. Miss Lillian Stafford, the chairman, was in charge of the business session.

"The Jews First" was the theme of program arranged by Mrs. A. M. Church, Jr., and in presenting it she was assisted by Miss Manie Brewer, Mrs. Alice Stafford, Miss Edith Crater, and Miss Pansy Ferguson. The devotional period was led by Mrs. Mable Lottes. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Miss Manie Brewer Is Bridge Club Hostess

Miss Manie Brewer was hostess to the members of the Young Matrons Contract club at the home of Mrs. M. L. Gilreath Tuesday evening. Four tables were arranged for play in a colorful setting of fall blossoms. Mrs. Harry Pearson was the winner of the top score prize while the low score award went to Mrs. W. Bryan Collins. A dessert course preceded play.

Mexico Celebrates Independence Day

Festivities in every Mexican city and village will mark the 130th anniversary of Mexico's declaration of independence from Spain on September 15. Special tribute will be paid to Hidalgo, martyred village priest who led the first uprising. Military parades and the ringing of the liberty bell will be among other events on the program. Above is shown the National palace in Mexico City, with President Cardenas in inset.

Senior Woman's Club Met Monday Afternoon

The first regular meeting of the Senior Woman's club of North Wilkesboro for the current year was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chal McNeill with Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. J. M. Crawford, and Mrs. C. B. Eller as associate hostesses. Twenty-two members were present. Mrs. F. C. Forester, the retiring president, presided for the business session after which Mrs. Chal McNeill, the incoming president, took the chair and appointed all of her committees for the year.

During the business session plans for a cleaner North Wilkesboro were discussed, or rather community beautification. The town board, the boy and girl scouts, and the school are cooperating with the club in this much needed project. The district meeting is to be held in Boone on Saturday, September 23. It is hoped that a large number of the club women from here will attend.

Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, finance chairman, distributed small boxes to each of the members in which to put money that they can raise for the club, at the end of a month boxes to be collected at which time Mr. and Mrs. McNeill will double the amount in the five highest boxes up to fifty dollars.

For the program Mr. McNeill gave a movie of distinctive flower arrangements. Tempting refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Woman's Club Activities

Due to lack of time a few items of Mrs. F. C. Forester's report of the North Wilkesboro Senior Woman's club activities were omitted in the last issue of the paper and are as follows:

The members of the Junior Woman's club have cooperated in a fine spirit in every way with the work of the senior club. They bought the rock for the club building. Presidents for the past two years were Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant and Mrs. W. F. Ahsber, the present president being Mrs. Emmett C. Johnson.

Mrs. W. E. Jones is chairman of the entertainment committee. Anyone wishing to have any social affairs in the building will please see her, and with her committee she will make arrangements for same.

Much has been done for the T. B. hut under the leadership of Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr.

Mrs. Boyd Stout's name was omitted as a member of the club.

The Spainhours, Mrs. White Honored On Their Birthday

On Tuesday evening, September 10, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bason and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Spainhour were hosts at the Spainhours' home east of the city at a picnic supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, parents of Mrs. Bason and Lincoln Spainhour, and Mrs. J. W. White on their triple birthdays. Mrs. White is a twin sister of Mrs. J. Spainhour. Around twenty were present, guests consisting of family members.

Among those attending the delightful occasion were Mrs. R. B. Lafitte and Miss Pearl Lafitte of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Lafitte being a sister of Mrs. White and Mrs. Spainhour, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Spainhour, of Elkin, Mr. and Mrs. William Spainhour, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spainhour, all of Hickory.

Use the advertising columns of this paper as your shopping guide

N. Wilkesboro Met. Dist. Society Met Tuesday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, the newly organized society for the women's work in the North Wilkesboro Methodist church, held its first meeting under the new setup at the church hut Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Pearson, the vice president, was in the chair for the business part of the meeting during which time a number of reports were heard.

Announcement was made of two meetings to be held soon, the Officers Training Day at the Broad Street church in Statesville, Wednesday, September 25, and the Conference organizational meeting to be held at the same place on Tuesday, October 1st. Anyone desiring to attend these meetings from the local society please call Mrs. Edd F. Gardner.

Mrs. W. E. Jones was in charge of the program, the theme of which was "Our Heritage", and was assisted by Mrs. A. L. Aycock, Mrs. Palmer Horton, and Mrs. Ira Payne.

Mrs. W. C. Hendren Is Hostess At Dessert-Bridge

On Friday evening Mrs. W. C. Hendren charmingly entertained the members of her club with a dessert bridge. Four tables were arranged for play in the dining room and living room. Fall flowers were used in colorful profusion.

Mrs. Shafter Laws won high score prize and Miss Louise Pearson won bingo prize. Mesdames Lloyd Phillips, H. G. Duncan, and Zeb Dickson were guests of the club.

Pontiac Cuts Into Accessory Field

The following accessories now are standard equipment on certain models of the 1941 Pontiac Torpedo Fleet. It is announced by D. U. Bathrick, vice president and general salesmanager of Pontiac Motor Division.

Electric clocks and flexible steering wheels now are standard on Custom and Super-Streamliner models.

Front bumper fender guards now standard on Streamliner, and Custom models.

Vacuum booster pump is standard on all eight-cylinder models while the cigar lighter becomes standard on all models, six or eight.

Ashe county ranks first in the number of cows of milking age based on the 1940 farm census of the State Department of Agriculture.

WILLIAMS MOTOR CO.

TELEPHONE 334-J
T. H. Williams, Owner
Oldsmobile Sales-Service
Bear Frame Service and
Wheel Alignment
General Auto Repairing
Wrecker Service—Electric and
Acetylene Welding
USED PARTS—For all makes and models of cars and trucks

STOCK UP NOW ON DENTAL NEEDS!

PEPSODENT
40¢ SIZE TOOTH PASTE 75¢ 5728

HORTON'S
CUT-RATE
DRUG STORE

Bethel News Items Of General Interest

The singing choir met last Sunday evening to practice for the singing which will be held at this church Sunday, September 29. Mrs. N. M. Burehette has not been so well for the past week, we are sorry to learn.

Mrs. W. A. Pardue and her son, Major, attended services at Pleasant Grove church last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam and mother, Mrs. C. W. Gilliam attended the funeral of Rev. Marcus Walker held at Dennyville church last Thursday, the former having a part in the music with the Yackia Valley Four quartet. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. G. Gilliam, of Elkin, and her mother, Mrs. D. C. Ross, of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Andrew Whitaker has been the guest of her daughter and family, Mrs. D. J. Melton, for a week before returning to Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Vanhoy, of State Road, visited a while last Sunday afternoon with her mother and family, Mrs. W. A. Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplette and children, Clay, Ethel and Estel, spent last Sunday in Winston-Salem, the guests of Mrs. Triplette's sister, Mrs. J. A. Vanvoo, and family, at their home on Academy Street.

Miss Kathlene Gilliam attended a birthday party given for Miss Grace Dean Bentley, last Thursday evening at her home at Ronda.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin P. Green and children, Gladys, Mary Ann and Jack, accompanied by Mrs. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Durham, of Swan Creek, went to the Byrd reunion last Sunday held at the home of Mr. case Byrd, near Roaring River.

Mrs. Seamon Dobbins, of Elkin, has been spending some time here with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Stroud, who has been convalescing from a minor operation she received at the Hugh Chamber Hospital in Elkin two weeks ago.

Miss Ella Segraves has returned to her home after being the guest for several days here of her aunt, Mrs. G. F. Pardue, and family.

At the recent conference held at the church here the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: the pastor, R. J. Pardue; clerk and treasurer, D. J. Melton; and Sunday school superintendent, W. H. Jones. They deserve much credit for their loyalty and faithful service previously rendered.

Charles Jones, teacher of the intermediate girls and boys of Bethel Sunday school, accompanied by Mrs. Jones and his brother, Eugene Jones, took this happy class to the "Big Spring Dairy" near the home of Mr. Guyer's, North of Elkin last Sunday where they enjoyed a wicker roast in the late afternoon. About twenty-five were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroud, of Wilkesboro, Mrs. J. B. Armstrong of Winston-Salem, and Miss Norma Gilliam, who is a student at Draughton's Business College in Winston-Salem, visited a while last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Gilliam and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam.

Reading the ads. gets you more or less money. Try it.

ORGANIZED

A one-variety cotton community has been organized in the J. F. Beasley community near Duncas with 15 members, reports J. E. Goulay, assistant farm agent of Harnett County.

PROFITABLE

J. B. Walker, a demonstration farmer of Madison county, made a net profit of more than $1,000 during the past year from five dairy cows and a flock of 200 Barred Rock hens.

Use the advertising columns of this paper as your shopping guide.

NEW FELTS FOR FALL

Mallory .. $5.00
Wilson ... $2.95

MARLOW'S Men's Shop

"New and Correct Men's Wear"

"PERCE STRINGS" by THOMPSON

THOMPSON RETREADING CO.
PENNSYLVANIA TIRES AND TUBES
Phone 413 North Wilkesboro, N. C.

BUILT TO BE FIRST AGAIN

The New 1941

CHEVROLET

Will Be On Display

Saturday, Sept. 21st

Chevrolet . . . The Nation's Leader

You don't have to take "claims" for "proof" when buying a Chevrolet automobile, and we urge you to come in Saturday and see the PROOF that CHEVROLET is ALL and MORE than claimed for it in improved features, improved styling, and improved performance!

There are too many new things to tell you about here, so we suggest that you EYE IT, TRY IT and BUY IT.

SEE IT SATURDAY

GADDY MOTOR CO.

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

MILLER-JONES presents

The NEW DREAMLINED FOOTWEAR for FALL

Your dreams of Feminine elegance and charm will come true in these lovely shoes for the American Lady

Glamorous Creations Styled in Pitch Black

In Dull Suede and Shiny Patent. See These Shoes Today

$3.95

Fancy Footwear For Fancy Footwork.

Beautiful New Shoes You Can Wear Anywhere.

$2.95

Paris to Hollywood styling.

Of course we have sizes and widths.

MILLER-JONES SHOES

FOOTWEAR FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

NORTH WILKESBORO, N. C.

I Resigned from "The Look-of-the-Month League" thanks to the help of CHI-CHESS-TERS BRAND PILLS in relieving my chronic functional pain and discomfort. Absolutely safe. 50¢ a box. No habit-forming and no drug or narcotic.

CHI-CHESS-TERS BRAND PILLS