1941 Ford Will Be Here Friday

New Models Will Be Shown For First Time At Yadkin Valley Motor Co.

Showing of new model Ford automobiles, always an occasion of much public interest, will take place on Friday of this week at Yadkin Valley Motor company, local Ford dealer, according to an announcement today by A. F. Kilby, president of the company.

The 1941 model Ford cars, according to advance information, will have numerous new features—to be exact, there are 45 major new features which the public will be much interested in when the 1941 model cars go on display Friday.

Mr. Kilby and Q. A. McNeill, of Yadkin Valley Motor company, attended a preview showing at the Ford branch in Charlotte last week and brought back glowing reports of the new models. Among the features of the 1941 Fords will be increased vision, new wide bodies, faster acceleration and new rigid frame, all of which with many other features will result in "an entirely new ride."

Also on display will be 1941 Mercury 8 models. The Mercury is the quality car made by Ford at medium low price and which has been increasing rapidly in popularity each year. The dealers are predicting that the 1941 Mercury will reach a new high in quality in its price range and should win unprecedented favor.

Commercial type cars will also be shown Friday and the showing is planned to catch the interest of all motorists.

The Yadkin Valley Motor company cordially invites everybody to see the 1941 model Fords and Mercurys Friday in the company's showrooms on Ninth street.

Here, in a setting as beautiful as it is practical, the observer follows the daily life of more than 1,000 orphan children, sons and daughters of deceased members of the Loyal Order of Moose. Mooseheart is a city complete in itself, having more than 200 modern, fire-proof buildings, including small homes, stores, schools, vocational buildings, shops, administrative offices, in
