Fidels Class Met Tuesday Evening

Mrs. E. S. Cooper, Mrs. Ed Dancy, and Mrs. H. L. Keller combined hospitality to the members of the Fidels class of the First Baptist church at the Cooper home Tuesday evening, having nineteen members present. Mrs. J. Q. Adams, the president, was in charge of the usual business session.

Miss Muriel Coykendall, a member of the North Wilkesboro school faculty, was guest speaker and made a most interesting talk on her travels in Mexico. The devotions were led by Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain.

During the social hour Mrs. Frank Tomlinson directed an entertaining turkey contest in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard Is Hostess To Her Club

Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard was hostess to the members of the Wilkesboro Book club at a dinner bridge at her home in Wilkesboro Saturday evening. A two-course dinner was served at seven o'clock, the hostess being assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. W. White.

The high score prize in the bridge game, which was played at two tables, went to Mrs. E. N. Phillips, while the honor prize was held by Miss Eloise Starr.

Hill Top Club Met With Mrs. Dewey Minton

With Mrs. Dewey Minton as hostess the members of the Hill Top club were delightfully entertained at her home north of the city Friday evening. The group spent an informal period together, some sewing and some playing rook, after which tempting refreshments were served. Colorful fall flowers made attractive decorations for the home.

A good way to eliminate some of the monotony of any job is to think up ways to improve it.

Mr. and Mrs. Reins Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Lenoir.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Reins celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a brilliant reception at their home on West avenue Saturday evening from eight until ten o'clock.

Opportunely arrangements of chrysanthemums and roses in delicate pinks, yellows, and blues graced the living room. In the sitting room huge yellow mums were artistically arranged.

Greeting the guests on the front porch and receiving wraps were Stacy Peterson and Bill Vernon.

Receiving guests at the front door were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beall, James C. Farthing and his mother, Mrs. A. C. Farthing, greeted guests and introduced them to the first receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Reins, Misses Frances, Teckla, and Bobbie Reins, daughters of the host and hostess, Mrs. W. P. Farthing, of Lenoir, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hubbard, Jr., of North Wilkesboro, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Triplett, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pritchett.

Mrs. Reins wore a lovely gown of pink chiffon and lace and her shoulder corsage was an orchid on a spray of silver leaves. The Reins daughters wore identical models of gold, dusty rose, and chartruse chiffon fashioned with high round necklines, long full sleeves, and full skirts. Their wide velvet girdles were in contrasting shades. They wore shoulder corsages of rosebuds.

The second receiving line in the sitting room was composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gulre, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beall, Jr., George Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Pegram.

Receiving guests in the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Robbins. The dining table, covered with a handsome lace banquet cloth, was centered with a large silver bowl of giant picardi gladioli, interspersed with chrysanthemums and baby mums in pastel shades. Four branched candelabra held burning pink tapers. Other lovely arrangements of pink roses and mixed flowers also added their beauty to the room.

Ice cream, cakes, mints, and nuts, carrying out a color scheme of green and white were served by Misses Helen Maynard, Marjorie Crisp, Alice Moose, Winifred Bryan, Carolyn Turner, Dorothy Wagner, Hattie McLean, and Vary Nash Smith. Misses Gordon and Rebecca Reins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reins, of North Wilkesboro, served mints. Attractive favors were cards printed in silver on which were pictures of the three Reins daughters and the quotation, "New Friends are Silver, Old Friends are Golden."

Miss Bonnie Farthing showed the way to the register where Mrs. J. C. Seagle and Mrs. E. F. Reid presided. Mrs. W. L. Minish invited guests into the gift room where Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seehorn and Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Eubanks presided. The room was beautifully decorated with arrangements of chrysanthemums carrying out the bridal color note of green and white. Artistically arranged stands of fruit added their beauty to the room where the lovely array of gifts was on display.

Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Turner. About two hundred guests gathered during the evening to greet Mr. and Mrs. Reins on this happy occasion.

Among others attending from the Wilkesboros were Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Sr., of North Wilkesboro, and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Foster, Mrs. Edith Brown, and daughter, Miss Nancy Brown from Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Floyd Jennings Is Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. Floyd Jennings entertained the members of her bridge club and several additional guests at the home of Mrs. R. C. Jennings at Pores Knob Tuesday evening. The Thanksgiving note was carried out in the table appointments and favors were miniature turkeys, which also served as score pads. Quantities of chrysanthemums were used for decorations.

A desert course was served at the beginning of the card game in which rook and bridge both were in play. High and low score prizes in rook were won by Mrs. Earl Meadows and Mrs. Hoyt Hendren. In bridge the top score prize went to Mrs. Otis Barker and the visitor's prize to Miss Helen Bumgarner.

Social Calendar

The North Wilkesboro Senior Women's club will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Tomlinson on Ninth Street.

St. Cecilia Music Club Met Thursday Evening

The high school division of the St. Cecilia Music Club met Thursday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes, with Misses Carol Hayes, Helen Phillips, and Mary Gage Barber as hostesses. There was a large attendance of the members.

For the program, Miss Carolyn Sue Linney read an interesting article on Paderewski, famous Polish pianist and Statesman, who has recently returned to the United States. Mr. Edwin Gilreath gave a sketch of Edward Grieg, noted Norwegian composer; and Miss Helen Phillips played Grieg's "Butterfly." Other piano solos were played by Misses Carol Hayes, Eloise Minton, Mary Wiles, Goselle Andrews, Carol Glass and Messrs. Hoke Steelman and Jack Howard. Miss Edna Yates read an article on Dr. Benjamin Swalin, noted musician of Chapel Hill and director of the N. C. Symphony Orchestra. Solos were sung by Misses Louise Kennedy, Edith Roberts, and Mr. Marion Elliott. A humorous reading by Betty Jean Linney was much enjoyed. The club song closed the program.

During a delightful social hour, Mrs. Hayes and the young hostesses served delicious refreshments. The club will meet with Miss Barbara Ogilvie in December.

Mrs. Pressley Myers Entertains Her Club

The members of the Young Matron's Contract club and a number of visitors were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Pressley Myers at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. A dessert course preceded the game in which four tables were made up for bridge and one for rook. The autumn note was emphasized in the party appointments with a profusion of chrysanthemums being used for the decorations.

High and low score awards in bridge went to Mrs. A. M. Church, Jr., and Mrs. D. L. Crook, and in rook Mrs. J. W. Neel and Mrs. R. S. Shoaf were the winners. Mrs. Arthur Lowe, the former Miss Elizabeth Neel, was remembered with a gift.

Friendly Circle Holds Monthly Meeting Tuesday

The monthly meeting of the Friendly circle of the Wilkesboro Methodist church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Irvin, with a large number of the members being present. Mrs. George Parlier, the president, presided for the meeting and also taught the Bible study, which was on the Life of Christ.

During the business session plans were made for some Christmas work, and also in helping fix the parsonage. Mrs. J. C. Stokes, the pastor's wife, was present as well as some new members. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the evening.

First Baptist Y. W. A. In Meeting Monday

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church met Monday night with the president of the Y. W. A., Vivian Kerbaugh. The meeting was called to order by the president with Ruby Kilby having charge of the devotionals and Mrs. H. T. Clark, counsellor of the Y. W. A., leading in prayer. During the business session a social committee was appointed as follows: Miss Nichols, chairman; Fannie Ruth Kirby, Mary Nichols, and Ruby Kilby. A committee was also appointed to help with the sale of Christmas cards and wrappings as follows: Nell Hall, chairman; Charlotte Louise Harvyl, and Thelma Kilby. For the program the study course book, "Publish Glad Tidings," was given with the following members taking part: Mrs. Clark, Vivian Kerbaugh, Elsie Nichols, Mary Nichols, and Annie Jo Brookshire, after which the meeting adjourned.

Christmas Club Money Paid Out

Three hundred and sixty-five million dollars will be distributed to more than seven and one half million Christmas Club members by approximately forty eight hundred banking and savings institutions and other organizations during National Prosperity Week starting Monday, December 2nd, according to an estimate given out yesterday by Hentert F. Rawl, founder and president of Christmas Club, A Corporation, sponsors of National Prosperity Week. The total distribution for 1940 is about 4 1-2 per cent in excess of 1939. The average distribution per member amounts to $48.50 as against $48.30 for 1939. The estimates are based on a substantial number of reports received from institutions operating the Christmas Club plan in different sections of the country.

Based upon recent reports from individual Christmas Club members and applying these reports to the entire distribution for 1940, the estimated fund of $365,000,000.00 will be used by the recipients approximately as follows:

Christmas Purchases, $118,260,000; Permanent Savings, $95,655,000; Year End Bills, $51,000,000; Taxes, $36,400,000; Insurance Premiums, $34,000,000; Education, Travel and Charity, $15,330,000; Mortgage Interest, $8,400,000; Unclassified, $5,955,000; total, $365,000,000.

"Why We Are Threatened by a Dangerous Epidemic of Home-sickness." With thousands of young men headed for military camps and foreign refugees pouring into this country, the wholesale yearning for home may bring grave mental and physical disturbances, scientists say, unless proper preventive measures are observed. Read of these recent discoveries in The American Weekly Magazine, with next Sunday's Washington Times-Herald, now on sale.

Thanksgiving Day Singing 28th

County-Wide Singing Convention Will Be Held On Holiday At Courthouse

Regular semi-annual meeting of the Wilkes County Singers Association will be held at the courthouse in Wilkesboro on Thanksgiving Day, November 28. Singing will begin at ten o'clock a. m. and continue throughout the day. All singers are urgently requested to attend and take part in the singing, and those who like to hear good singing are also invited.

J. A. Gilliam is chairman of the organization and Wm. A. Stroud is secretary. In announcement of the singing, which is held each year on the fourth of July and Thanksgiving, they said: "This is a holiday, so let's take the day off and join in singing praise to the Lord."

Neither Sambo nor Rastus could tell time, but Sambo wore a nice big Ingersoll on a chain with an air of superiority.

"What time am it?" asked Rastus. Sambo hesitated and then extended the timepiece, saying: "Dar she am."

Rastus looked at it carefully and said: "Damned if she ain't."
