

Rodent Control Demonstrations

By J. B. SNIPES
(County Agent)
Quite a few of the Farm Growers are having a great deal of trouble in controlling mice and rats in their orchards and around store houses.

Vandeman, Apple Research Specialist, and the County Agent, have arranged to have Dr. Whitehead, Rodent Control Specialist, of State College, to be with us and assist in conducting two Rodent Control Demonstrations next week.

These demonstrations have been arranged on the following farms: H. H. Morehouse, Oakwoods, Tuesday, December 17 at 10:00 a. m.; Ferry Lowe, Pores Knob, Tuesday, December 17, at 2:00 p. m.

Here Is 1940 All-American Selection Of Odd Accidents

Chicago.—Fortune indulged in some dizzy stunts in 1940. That became apparent yesterday, when Paul Jones of the National Safety Council made public his All-American selection of the oddest accidents of the year.

These Hens! What Will They Do Next

Rock Hill, S. C.—It may be that a hen in the yard of Samuel Thunderbird Blue, former chief of the Catawba Indian tribe, had world conditions in mind when she started laying eggs shaped like peace pipes.

Home beautification has been selected as the major project for 4-H Clubs of Bertie county during the coming year, says R. D. Smith, assistant farm agent of the State College Extension Service.
